longer. They spent more and more time peeping out from under that pile of fallen trees. It was very wonderful outside. Mother had warned them to stay inside. Perhaps that was the reason that they did stay inside for the first few days. But there came a morning when temptation was too much. Taddy gave Tobby a sudden push, and she tumbled heels over head outside. She scrambled back inside, and the first chance she had she pushed Taddy out. After that those two little black imps could no more stay inside than they could fly.
