Great Entertainment

SANDY'S Royals and Johnny's Flying Hawks on the one hand and the Junior League on the other are competing for hockey crowds at Charlottetown Forum. Undoubtedly each side at first was a bit worried how the other would eat into its attendance but we think that worry is no more.

Since both have the same kind of a product to sell, they must serve up to the public the most appetizing menu. Royals and Flying Hawks have already done this in three games and they take the stage again tonight. The Juniors have been before the footlights twice and each time the public was delighted with the effort put forth.

Sandy and Johnny were watching Tuesday night's action and you could tell they weren't the least bit envious about the success the Juniors were enjoying. In fact they figure the more success this league enjoys, the more folks will turn out for Hawks-Royals performances. Good competition is surely the life of trade and we've got that kind of hockey competition here right now.

On the other hand, we think the Juniors owe Royals and Flying Hawks a vote of thanks for their first three games. These seniors and intermediates worked the hockey public into a state of excitement that carried right over into the junior loop.

AND so the Charlottetown area is much better off in regards to hockey than it was a year ago. Folks are turning out in much larger numbers and we are certain the numbers will increase with every game. Patrons who are satisfied are a great means of advertising and Royals, Hawks and Juniors are getting loads of nice things said about them. All of these things are deserved and should surely send more folks through the Forum turnstiles.

Big Battle Tonight

TONIGHT The Flying Hawks try their mightiest to square their best-of-seven series with Sandy's Royals. This is the fourth game and Hawks must triumph or go two down in the battle for Stead's Pharmacy trophy.

Rivalry is exceptionally keen and the boys will play tonight as though they were battling for a Maritime crown. The Hawks owned a 4-1 advantage in the first period last Thursday out blew it. Coach Norm 'Hawk' Larter insists no such things will happen again tonight. Both 'Hawk' and Johnny are confident that their boys can defeat Royals tonight and send this series into a fifth game all knotted up.

Tonight's action gets going promptly at 8.15 and it should be as good as anything seen this season. Why not take it in?

Plenty Of Balance

RIGHT now there doesn't seem to be too much worry about balance in this junior loop. North River was only shaded by Charlottetown Legionaires and Saints just sneaked out a 9-8 verdict over Welshmen.

Any worries you had about North River not being able to take care of themselves were dispelled last Sunday afternoon. These lads showed loads of ability and they'll get better each time. The Legionaires, all juvenile age, will have no trouble keeping pace with the bona fide juniors and many are predicting that Buck Whitlock and Harry Sentner's crew will emerge as league champions.

There is practically no difference between the abilities of the two college teams. They probably made a lot of mistakes Tuesday night but they gave the fans one of the best entertainments seen at The Forum in many a night.

Here you can expect a special rivalry to creep in. It's a good thing as long as it is kept on a sensible level. Saints and Welshmen can really pack them in next time they meet. That one Tuesday will not be forgotten for quite a spell.

The hockey picture indeed looks bright.

New Racing Body

WE direct your attention to the formation of a new harness racing club which intends holding ice meets at North River Causeway beginning this Saturday.

Interest appears high in this new organization and all members feel they still can have a lot of fun on the ice this season. We wish them the best.

League To Act

JUNIOR League president, Al Rogers, informed us last night that his executive is meeting this morning to deal with misconduct penalties handed out in the first two games. It is understood that both penalties came for abusive language and league officials have no intention of tolerating such goings-on.

There is also a league rule which has a player tossed out of the game for drawing a major penalty for fighting. If it occurs in the third period, the player misses the next game as well.

President Rogers and his associates are mighty happy with the calibre of play in both games to date but they intend to see to it that league rules are strictly enforced and league officials solidly backed.

SPORT ECHOES

By Norman Macdonald
Summerside Bureau of The Guardian

Congratulations To 'Big Jim'

Congratulations to "Big Jim" Pendergast on his selection as "Islander of the Year" for 1963, and congratulations to the judges for making such a good choice. The crowning achievement of Mr. Pendergast's career may well have been last year's "big swim", which he made a success of in the face of considerable discouragements, but Jim has always been an ardent follower of most sports, and his selection emphasizes the fact that sports are a really important part of the lives of many Islanders.

Apologies to the young skaters who gained honored places in the Summer Street ice sports Tuesday night, and certainly deserved recognition of their feats in the paper. Unfortunately transmission difficulties made this impossible for Wednesday's Guardian, but we are making amends. By the way, during those sports, the Summerside High School teachers played a game of broom ball against the Summer Street teachers. The S.H.S. gang scored two offside goals; the referee was a relative of theirs, and Summer Street scored one of the most beautiful goals of the broom ball season.

High Sticks Causing Concern

We were talking to "Red" Gravelle, referee of the Prince County Hockey League, recently and Red is a bit disturbed over the number of players who carry their sticks high in that circuit. So concerned is he that he intends cracking down on those offenders immediately. Red will advise the several coaches that those who carry high sticks will be dealt with severely even if contact is not made with an opponent. There has been a rash of minor facial cuts to players in this league recently, none of them serious as yet, but Red emphasizes that a player could easily lose an eye if this high-sticking barrage continues. We agree with Red's assessment of the situation and are glad to hear that he intends to take measures to curb this dangerous practice.

Top ten scorers of the Prince County League (not including Wednesday's game).

Montreal Canadiens Blank Leafs & Tie For Top Spot

By DAVE BETTS

TORONTO (CP) — Montreal Canadiens skated and checked their way into a first-place tie in the National Hockey League here Wednesday night with a 3-0 win over the third-place Toronto Maple Leafs.

The victory gave Montreal 53 points in 43 games, the same number as the idle Chicago Black Hawks, who have played one more game.

The Canadiens overpowered the Leafs to lead 2-0 at the end of the first period on goals by Gilles Tremblay and Henri Richard. Dave Balon scored in the second.

Goalie Charlie Hodge was superb in turning aside drives by the Leafs, who were forced most of the time to shoot from far out. The Canadiens never stopped skating and checking.

It was Hodge's third shutout this season.

For the Leafs and goalie Don Simmons, it was their second straight shutout on Maple Leaf Gardens ice, following a nightmarish 11-0 loss to last-place Boston Bruins here Saturday.

Simmons looked better Wednesday night and kept the score down in the second and third periods when the Canadiens had several good chances.

Toronto, having also played 43 games, remains three points behind the leaders.

Defenceman Jacques Laperriere started the Montreal scoring by bouncing a blue - line drive off the arm of Gilles Tremblay, who was parked at the edge of the Toronto net.

Late in the period Richard let go a hard rising shot from the right circle. Simmons made a move for the opposite side of the net, but the puck soared into the upper corner.

Balon combined with Ralph Backstrom on a two - on - one play to close out the scoring. Balon's shot was almost identical to Richard's, a rising backhander from the circle on the right side.

Toronto outshot Montreal 32 to 28.

Hawks Are Trying To Square Series

Will Johnny's Flying Hawks square the series tonight or will Sandy's Royals jump into a 3-1 lead in their best-of-seven series for The Stead Pharmacy trophy?

That's the question being asked by hundreds of hockey fans as this fourth battle looms between these arch rivals.

The Royals managed to bounce back in the opening game and cop an 11-10 verdict but the Hawks were back in the second encounter with a 5-3 decision over the Frizzelmen. Last Thursday, Hawks seemed on the way to their second triumph. They owned a handsome 4-1 cushion in the opening frame and seemed on the road to their second victory of the series.

But the fighting Royals halted the victory march and began one of their own. It was a great comeback for the Frizzelmen and a tough defeat for the Flying Hawks.

Nearly 1000 folks watched that encounter and that number should be increasing tonight. Everywhere you go today folks are talking this series up and it's likely a big number of those talking will be on hand for the real show.

The public has become definitely hockey-minded of late and all games at The Forum are drawing mighty fair crowds. The biggest of them all should be tonight when these foes fight it out.

Both teams will ice their strongest lineups in an effort to garner the big victory. The Hawks, especially, need this one in the worst way and coach Hawks' Larter will use all the strategy at his command to square the set.

For a great night's hockey entertainment, you can't go wrong if you attend the Hawks-Royals struggle tonight at Wes Trainor's icehouse on Fitzroy Street. Action gets away at 8.15 sharp.
