LEWIS'

SUPERB PHOTOS.

THIRTY YEARS' practice on the "human face divine," has given Lewis that wonderful command of the art he is reputed to possess in delineating those who take advantage of his skill. He has also succeeded in securing the services of Mr. Turner, of Notman's, Montreal, where he has been employed for seven years. Now, every one knows that Mr. Notman would not keep a MAN in his employ for that time, if he was not a first-class workman. Mr. Turner has also worked for a number of years in England and Scotland. Lewis' Gallery is large and commodious, furnished with all the latest improvements.
Lenses, which are entirely free from distortion, works the instantaneous and wet plate process. Sitters can have their choice of Children's Pictures, a specialty, made in one second.
Copying and enlarging done at moderate prices. Special reduction made to families and groups. All kinds of work done very cheap. Call and see samples. Don't mistake the place—

GAS COOKING STOVES.

WE have made arrangements with the best makers of Gas Stoves in the United States, which we will be able to supply the public, at the lowest possible price.
We have also agreed with the Gas Company (for the purpose of introducing these stoves), to sell the first fifteen (15) for which we may receive orders, At their Net Cost,
LANDED HERE.
TESTIMONIALS.

The following are a few testimonials from a list of several hundred:—
The capacity of the Stove is surprising.
With a No. 8 Stove we cooked for a party of seven, giving them broiled oysters, steak, lamb chops, and baked biscuit, in 45 minutes, at a cost for gas of 4 cents. On another occasion we gave a dinner in course of twenty men, the bill of fare as follows: Broiled shad, beef steak, roast quarter of lamb, baked biscuit and coffee; heating the water for washing the dishes four times, re-setting the table three times. All was accomplished in one hour and forty minutes, at an expense for gas of eleven cents. This work was all done on one No. 8 Stove. All were enthusiastic over the manner in which the oysters, fish and meats were cooked; none had experienced any so tender, juicy, and of such full flavor before. We consider the stove a great success, and most complete in all its parts and arrangements.
A. C. WOOD, Supt.

I bought one of your No. 12 Gas Cooking Stoves last September, for use in my restaurant, and have used it ever since for baking, broiling and stewing.
I can say for it that it is always ready and does its work rapidly; that there is no dust, no dirt, no surplus heat, as we are using only that portion that we need, and as soon as the article is cooked the gas is extinguished and there is no waste. I think it will do the same amount of work at less cost than coal, even at the high price of gas. It takes much less room than a coal range that would do the same work. I am perfectly satisfied with it and would not be without one for double the price.
J. T. HARKER.

The Gas Stove you sent me, I am glad to say has proved an entire success.
If my testimony is of any value to you, you are at liberty to use it. The decrease in the coal bill more than offsets the increase in the gas bill. The cooking is excellent and uniform in its operation.
No dirt or dust irritates the careful housewife, and Mrs. S. describes it as a "real treasure."
In my humble opinion, any man who really wants to add to the number of allotted days of his better-half, had better invest in a Gas Stove and save her worry, and himself expense.
W. H. SEYMOUR.

We are perfectly delighted with our Gas Stove. It gives entire satisfaction in every respect.
MRS. M. PENNINGTON, 2103 Vine St.
Your favor of the 1st inst. was duly received asking my opinion of the Gas Cooking Stove bought last May, and in reply, would state that the satisfaction rendered by the stove was far beyond my expectations, and the work it will accomplish is marvelous, together with the small expense and comfort attending the same.
EDWIN A. GARETT.

Having used one of your No. 7 Gas Cooking Stoves for a considerable time past, it is with pleasure that I bear testimony to its genuine merits.
It boils, bakes, broils, roasts, and in fact, does every thing that a first class stove or range can do, and with a saving of time and labor, that can only be appreciated by those who use them.
It has given us the most entire satisfaction, and to use my wife's words, "I would not be without it for ten times the cost." From statements of our gas meter taken, we find it more economical than coal.

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

OFFICIAL SUMMARY.

TUESDAY, APRIL 24.
Mr. GORSON said that no legislation could crush out the liquor traffic. It must be done through the civilizing and refining influences of the schools, the pulpit and the press. The people must be educated to learn that it is a disgrace and a crime to be drunk. He did not approve of the appointment of inspectors, and no good had come of it. The Temperance Act was working well by itself. It was not the custom of King's County to drink, on the contrary, it was very temperate. There were a few places where it was possible to get liquor, but it would be driven from there before long.

Mr. PERRY said that although the law had been passed by the general Parliament, it was put in force by the people, and it was the duty of the Local Government to see that it was properly executed. He was not in favor of the Canada Temperance Act, it had not done the good that was expected of it. He would petition to do away with it, and have some good sound License Act instead. The people did not like it, and it was hard to enforce it. If the Government wished to prevent persons using liquor, they should prohibit the importation of it. Whether it is better to use it with a license or without? The revenue formerly derived from it has been lost, and the tendency has been to demoralize the people. The sooner the Temperance Act was done away with, and a good license law enacted, the sooner would morality be restored. It was a deplorable state of affairs that no restrictions existed.
Mr. BLAKE said the Local Government had no right to appoint inspectors. It was a Dominion Act and they should operate it.
The Canada Temperance Act had not worked well, there was more liquor used, and more places wherein it was sold, than ever had known formerly. The permissive Act was a much greater benefit than the present law. A large quantity was now imported and sold, and it was no benefit to anybody. The City Government used to receive $2,500 a year, and they had been deprived of that. If the Act had worked in the interest of the city, no fault could have been found, but the contrary was the case, the same was true of the country. It was not liquor that was sold now, but pure poisons. This was very evident from its effects. It was hard to please the people in the matter. At the last election a large number had voted against the Government because they had not done enough in the interest of temperance, and the liquor dealers voted against them because they had done what they had. We should encourage temperance, but the amount paid the Inspectors was wasted. Legislation could not enforce temperance. A number of temperance organizations had collapsed owing to the way in which the Act was working. The city received no benefit from the fines; the money was deposited in the Bank, and the city had drawn the interest. The sooner we had a good License Law, so much the better for the cause of temperance.
Mr. ARSENAULT said that the Canada Temperance Act was good if it had been carried out, but it was unfortunate that its legality should have been disputed. The people were not in sympathy with it. The Government were in sympathy with the Act and would do all they could to carry it out.
The Inspectors seemed to have done no good, and therefore they were dismissed.
Mr. SULLIVAN said it was no part of the duty of the Legislature to pass a resolution declaring that we have no confidence in the Dominion Government, because they had failed to carry out the law. The machinery is vested in the Inland Revenue Department which can be called into operation to punish violations. He could not see why the Dominion Government should be blamed because the people neglected to lay their complaints at the proper quarter.
Mr. Beer's motives and objects were entirely political, and not actuated by any love for temperance, and Mr. Sinclair wanted to secure the Provincial Government. The Act had a great many provisions, one of which authorized any individual to bring it into operation; it was the duty of the people themselves to put the law in force.
There was no special obligation upon the Government to do so for this Act, than for any other on the Statute Book. The Government were anxious to give the Act a fair start, and consented, as an experiment to try the appointment of Inspectors. The experiment had not been successful. Prominent temperance men had expressed themselves as indifferent whether these officers should be continued or not, and thought the best thing the Government could do was to dispense with their services, as they prevented other people putting the Law in force. This Government had no right to put itself forward as a prosecutor, going around the country looking after the Act.
The House divided on Mr. Sinclair's amendment which was lost upon the following division.

money was deposited in the Bank, and the
city had drawn the interest. The sooner
we had a good License Law, so much the
better for the cause of temperance.
Mr. ARSENAULT said that the Canada
Government were in sympathy with the Act
and would do all they could to carry it out.
The Inspectors seemed to have done no
good, and therefore they were dismissed.
Mr. SULLIVAN said it was no part of the
duty of the Legislature to pass a resolution
declaring that we have no confidence in the
is vested in the Inland Revenue Department which can be called into operation to
lay their complaints at the proper quarter.
Mr. Beer's motives and objects were entire-
Act had a great many provisions, one of
which authorized any individual to bring it
into operation; it was the duty of the people themselves to put the law in force.
There was no special obligation upon the
could do was to dispense with their services,
as they prevented other people putting the
right to put itself forward as a prosecutor,
the Act.

DAWSON & LEPAGE,
May 6.—dy & wky

Mr. GORSON said that no legislation
press. The people must be educated
to be drunk. He did not approve of the
custom of King's County to drink, on the
there before long.
