Five Star In Aces-RCAF Tilt

By NORMAN MacDONALD

In that exceptionally well-played game between the Aces and Eagles last Friday night, which ended in a 4-3 draw, they were actually five players who played a starring role. Greg Deignan captured the award by reason of a "hat-trick" resulting from clever puck deflections, and a steady, hustling game. The only black mark against him was that he was in the sin bin when Eagles scored the tying goal. Dave MacLeod potted two early goals, and guardian Moffatt robbed him of some others by some amazing acrobatics. If the rink management were changing each player according to the puck, MacLeod would have run up a staggering bill. Willie Gallant, whose skating is a pleasure to watch, had two assists and made a lot of spectacular and dangerous sallies into the Eagles' one. For the RCAF Moffatt put on a brilliant display and Jean Paul Guy, who doesn't miss too often in the goal crease area, scored two of the Eagles' five goals.

The Eagles are beginning to lose their reputation for cool-headedness under fire. Most of the misconduct penalties used to go to the other three teams, but the RCAF boys are not only fighting back more aggressively in slug-fests, but they are also talking back to referees more frequently. They received the only two misconducts handed out by referee Glen Matthews on Friday night.

Play-off time is drawing close, and though nothing official had

PWC Welshmen Trample Kings

Prince of Wales College showed absolutely no hospitality to the members of the teams from Kings College in Halifax as they made a complete sweep of the sporting activities Saturday in the annual College Day competition. The local teams finished with a perfect record winning ten of the ten events. They won handily in Hockey, mens basketball, womens basketball and bowling, while the curling match was very close.

This is the first year in the history of the competition that the Island school has won everything and this year they did it in very convincing style. The annual trophy was accepted by Jamie Kennedy—captain of the hockey team, in a ceremony Saturday night in the college gym. The powerful PWC boys basketball team completely outclassed their University of Kings College hoop team in a fixture played in the PWC gym Saturday afternoon—scoring an impressive 80-31 triumph. Led by their two big men, Brian Peters and Wally Coulson, the Welshmen jumped into a quick 10-1 lead and never looked back. Holding a 30-10 halftime margin, coach Earl Nicholson substituted through throughout the game and still the PWC club ran amok.

Peters, controlling both the offensive and defensive backboards, hit for 29 points and if he had a bit more luck would have been a lot higher. Wally Coulson was the other high scorer for the locals with a 19 point performance. Roger Ghiz, filling in for the injured Ron Diamond played a fine game as the PWC playmaker. A deter-mined and hustling PWC girls basketball team fought their way from a 14-14 deficit to defeat their old rival, Kings College of Halifax 36-31, Saturday as the opening of Sports Day began at the Charlottetown school's annual winter carnival.

Red Hot Doug Saunders Defeats Palmer In Playoff

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) Doug Saunders won the $100,000 Bob Hope desert golf classic Sunday, defeating Arnold Palmer in the first hole of a sudden-death playoff by dropping a 15-foot putt for a birdie two. The 32-year-old Saunders and Palmer finished the regulation marathon 90-hole competition tied at 349. Palmer's tee shot on the extra hole at the Indian Wells Country Club was far wide to the right of the green. He pitched well past the pin and Saunders on his first putt, dropped the ball into the cup. The victory was worth $15,000, while Palmer picked up $8,000 for second place. The sudden-death playoff was the third in the six-year history of the classic. It was a drifty day when play began at Indian Wells, a course that measures 6,561 yards and has par 36-36-72. Saunders, who was six strokes behind the leader, Harold (Catfish) Kneese, at the start, knocked six strokes off par in a brilliant round in which he had an eagle and four birdies on the back nine. Palmer, who was two strokes behind Kneese at the outset, had a 70 and it took a four-foot pressure birdie putt on the 18th green to gain a tie with Saunders. Don Massengale was in front by two strokes at the 81st hole but couldn't hang on and finished with a 72 for 352. Stocky Phil Rodgers was even with Saunders coming to the 18th. But his second shot buried itself in the mud when he hit a trap, and he finished with a 67 for 350. Kneese, leader for three rounds, gave the packed gallery a thrill at the 18th when he sank a 20-foot putt for an eagle three. It gave him 73 and a 350 total. Dave Marr finished with a 67 to round out the four tied at 350. Attendance 12,531.

NEW YORK (AP)—Montreal Canadiens whipped New York Rangers 4-0 Sunday night behind Gump Worsley's steady goalkeeping and extended their National Hockey League winning streak to five games.

Bobby Rousseau, Ralph Backstrom, Claude Larose and Gilles Tremblay scored for Canadiens, whose furious checking helped ex-Ranger Worsley record his first shutout this year.

The stumpy veteran stopped 22 shots while Canadiens peppered Ranger goalie Ed Giacomin with 38. The last Montreal goal, scored by Tremblay, sailed 90 feet into an empty cage after Rangers replaced Giacomin with a sixth skater in a last-minute bid to get on the scoreboard.

The victory was Montreal's eighth in nine games against the fifth-place Rangers this season. Rousseau's 19th goal shot the Canadiens ahead with 4 1/2 minutes gone in the first period and New York's Reg Fleming in the penalty box. Rousseau, set up in front of the net by Henri Richard, fired a 25-foot shot past the sprawling Giacomin 54 seconds after Fleming was sent off for tripping.

COURNOYER STARTED IT Yvan Cournoyer started the power play from behind the Ranger cage with a pass to Richard. With each team playing short-handed for the most part as a result of a steady stream of penalties, the score stayed 1-0 until 8:05 of the middle period. Backstrom then slapped a Cournoyer rebound into a wide-open cage after Giacomin had slid out to make the initial save. Rousseau shot a cross-ice pass to Cournoyer, triggering the play. Richard and the Rangers' Rod Seiling were both off for high sticking when Backstrom scored his 15th goal.

Larose tipped in J. C. Tremblay's centering pass early in the third period and Gilles Tremblay completed the scoring with his unassisted goal from center ice with 30 seconds to play.

Toronto Maple Leafs Sunday night. The victory boosted Hawks into a three-way tie for first place in the National Hockey League with Detroit Red Wings and Montreal Canadiens.

The Leafs pulled into a 2-2 tie on a goal by Dave Keon less than two minutes before Nesterenko's winning tally.

Stan Mikita, who picked up an assist on the winning goal, scored Hawks' other two goals, while George Armstrong scored Leafs' first goal in the second period after Mikita had given the Hawks a 2-0 edge.

Mikita, league scoring champ for the last two years, deflected Bobby Hull's long shot behind Leaf netminder Terry Sawchuk at 41 of the first period while Toronto's Orland Kurtenbach was serving a roughing penalty.

Then, with only 57 seconds gone in the second period, Mikita got a rebound off Ken Wharram's shot and poked the puck over Sawchuk's fallen form.

Armstrong converted at 6:46 of the second period on a neat pass from Keon, who skated in along the left boards and fed the puck onto Armstrong's stick at the goal-mouth. Hawk goalie Glenn Hall, fresh from a week's vacation in which he wasn't required to practice or dress for games, never had a chance.

First period—1. Chicago, Mikita 23 (Hull) 41. Penalties—Kurtenbach (minor, misconduct) 3:36; Ravlich 1:04; MacNeil 3:16; Boyer 13:05.

Second period—2. Chicago, Mikita 24 (Mohns, Stapleton) 5:57; 3. Toronto, Armstrong 7 (Keon, Stanley) 6:46. Penalties—Vasko 9:27; Stenkowski 19:51.

BOSTON 3 DETROIT 3 DETROIT (AP)—John McKenzie's goal with less than eight minutes remaining capped a three-goal Boston third period, giving the Bruins a 3-3 National Hockey League tie with Detroit Red Wings Sunday night.

John Bucyk scored in the first minute of the final period and Tom Williams got an unassisted tally at 6:08 for the determined Bruins, who sent 19 shots on the Detroit net in the final period.

The tie gave the last-place Bruins their first point in 10 games with the Red Wings this season. Detroit outscored Bruins

SDU Pucksters Win Two; Roy Gets Five Markers

Showing better form as the season progresses, St. Dunstan's University Saints swept their two engagements this weekend with important victories over Acadia University Axemen 6-5 Saturday and against Dalhousie Tigers 8-4 Sunday afternoon.

The two wins give the Saints a 7-3 record and lifts them back into a second place tie with Mount Allison with 14 points, two points behind St. F.X., who lead the league with 16 points on a perfect 8-0 record.

Their next game is at home to St. Thomas on Friday night. The Saints next game is against U.N.B. Red Devils this coming Saturday in a big game for both teams.

Besides the two wins, the outstanding feature of the Saints games was the tremendous scoring punch of Maurice Roy, the dynamic and diminutive right winger who leads the M.I.H.L. scoring parade. Against Acadia he potted two goals and added another hat trick including the winning marker against the Dal Tigers yesterday afternoon. This brings his season total to 22 goals in ten games, which, incidentally compares to the same total Billy MacMahon had all season last year when he won the scoring race for the second consecutive season.

In addition to this five goals, he collected four assists to give him 33 points for the season, 9 short of the league record. Other goals scorers for St. Dunstan's against Acadia were Gordie Whitlock with two, and Mike Kelly and Rick O'Donnell with singles. Rae Clark got two for the Axemen, Athedon and Woodworth scored one each.

Nine Mile Creek Defeat Kingston

The Nine Mile Creek passed the Kingston Crystalites in the last scheduled game of the North River Senior Hockey League Saturday night at the North River rink. The playoffs get underway tonight as Pownal and Kingston meet.

Bobsled Ch'ships Are Cancelled

CORTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy (AP)—The world four-man bobsledding championship, which Canada was defending, has been cancelled following a crash that killed a West German driver and injured the three men on his sled.

Cancellation meant that for the first time in 32 world bobsled championships there would be no winner in the four-man event.

Canada's No. 1 sled, trying to defend world supremacy achieved in the 1964 Olympics and retained last year was a poor 11th after his first run but driver Victor Emery of Montreal pulled up into third place on his second run with a time of 1:16.78.

Eagles, Juniors Play To Deadlock

SUMMERSIDE — The RCAF Eagles had the frustrating experience of tying the Summerside Junior Legionnaires 4-4 at 467 local RCAF Station Sports Arena yesterday afternoon. It was the third consecutive tie game for the Eagles. They tied the Pope Motors Aces 5-5 here on Friday and 7-7 at the RCAF station last Sunday.

The game was evenly played throughout, with both teams scoring one goal in each of the first two periods and a pair apiece in the third. In every case, the Juniors scored to go ahead but the eagles tied it up before the Legionnaires could build up a two-goal margin.

Scorers for the Juniors were Richard Gallant, Donnie Arsenault, Keir Arsenault and Eugene Bernard, Jean-Paul Guy, Pete Rowlands, Gagnon and Boone scored for the Eagles.

There were eleven penalties in the game, none of them costly to the offender's team.

First Period: 1. Juniors — Gallant (Trainor, MacNeill) 15:03; 2. Eagles — Boone (Guy) 18:35. Penalties: Muttart, 4:00; Gallant, 9:45; Muttart, 10:14; Peltier, 15:34; Smith, 14:35; Crawford, 19:02.

Second Period: 3. Juniors — V. Mulligan (M. Kelly, M. Roy) 5:04; 4. Saints: M. Roy (M. Kelly, V. Mulligan) 8:00; 5. Saints: G. Whitlock (G. Hughes, M. Kelly) 8:27; 6. Saints: G. Whitlock (M. Roy, M.
