

Boston Market Prices.

Sept. 26, 1889. POTATOES.—Receipts have been light this week and prices have been ruling high, in some cases above quotations. Telegraphic Odds and Ends.

A BUDGET OF GENERAL NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD. VICTORIA, B. C., Sept. 27.—The British Pacific squadron will, it is said, test Canadian anthracite coal on the war vessels with a view of adopting it in preference to Welch coal if experiments prove satisfactory. PENNER, Neb., Sept. 24.—Much excitement is caused by a letter received by County Attorney Graves, in which he is warned to desist in his efforts to convict two Indian murderers. In any harm comes to the prisoners the Winnebago threaten to kill every white person in Thurston county. LONDON, Sept. 27.—The elections to fill the vacancy in the House of Commons for the Stafford division of Lincolnshire, caused by the acceptance of Rt. Hon. Henry Chaplin of the office of minister of agriculture, resulted in the return of Mr. Chaplin, who received 4,386 votes. Mr. Francis (Gladstone) received 3,078 votes. In the last election Mr. Chaplin was returned without opposition. FALL RIVER, Sept. 27.—Five persons were drowned in South Watuppa pond this afternoon by the capsizing of a row boat. The party had been across the pond after grapes. One of the number is said to have been intoxicated. An empty whiskey bottle was found in the boat. The water was less than five feet deep. ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 27.—A disastrous railroad accident is reported late tonight at Palatine bridge. It is said a fast train of five cars was telescoped by another train of five cars. It is said fully 300 people were on board the two trains. DUBLIN, Sept. 27.—A number of branches of the National League in counties Waterford and Tipperary have been suppressed. CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—No additional jurors secured in the Cronin case to-day. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Forest fires are reported from many parts of the State. In Santa Cruz, San Mateo, Sonoma and Marin Counties the loss has been very heavy and many villas have been burned. A telegram from Escondido, Lower California, seat of the International Co., says the city is threatened with destruction, as the fires have spread to the suburbs and can't be stopped. San Carlos, another town on Escondido Bay, is reported in flames.

Inter-Provincial Tennis Tournament.

The finals in men's doubles, between the Charlottetown pairs, were played off last week and resulted in Pope and Stewart coming out victors and carrying off the prize racquets. The following are the scores: Pope vs. Brecken Ings. 5 7 6 2 6 4 Stewart vs. Bartlett Newbery 6 1 6 2

The death of Mrs. Davies was anticipated by her friends in this city. Mrs. Davies suffered long and patiently. Death was for her a happy release from pain and weariness of the flesh. She was a woman of very sterling qualities. A large circle of friends will, with her esteemed husband and other relations, mourn their great loss—consoled by the thought of what she has gained.

The first page of last week's Grip contains a cartoon representing Cartwright and Laurier as two tramps meeting on the highway, and presenting a most woe-begone appearance. Laurier asks "Got anything to do yet, Dick?" Cartwright replies "Not a thing, have you?" When the Opposition leader adds, "No; the fact is, this is no country for skilled statesmen!" Although Grip is a strong opponent of the Government, it is compelled occasionally to be severe on the Grip par.

The Pioneer reports that the total exports from Summerside this season, so far, are valued at $362,720, of which $155,833 went to the Dominion, and $176,887 to foreign ports—the latter being distributed as follows, viz: to the United States $126,927, to the West Indies, $38,000, and to Europe $11,900.

A CHANGE NECESSARY.—The Summerside Pioneer says: The necessity of separating the passengers and freight traffic between this port and Point du Chene is becoming painfully apparent as the fall shipping approaches. Last Thursday and Friday a large quantity of freight had to be left behind on the wharf for want of storage room on board the steamer, and although the wharf was cleared off on Saturday morning, a considerable quantity of freight was held back by the shippers as it was useless to take it down. It is hoped the effort to build an additional wharf will be successful.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Letter From Hon. D. Gordon.

SIR,—Your leading article in THE EXAMINER of the 27th is calculated to convey an impression that drunkenness prevailed to a large extent at the exhibition in Georgetown yesterday. It is true that a very few young men were noisy, but with such a large concourse of people as were there assembled, surprise has been expressed at the general conduct of the "roughs" who come to exhibitions for the sole purpose of "knocking down a friend for love." There is but one opinion here, and that is that there was comparatively little or no drunkenness. The reference to the station master may tend to injure his good name also. Than Mr. Byrne, no more peaceable man, nor a more obliging official, can be found. When it is known that the man said to have been so severely hurt, within twenty-five minutes afterwards was found at the next station challenging to fight the best man on the ground, this does not indicate a serious hurt. Mr. Byrne did right, and even you, Mr. Editor, man of peace as you are, if a sounder were to break your door, causing the lock to fly in fragments at your feet, I opine you would let him know and feel that this was no place for such pranks. In the other instance which the name of the writer appears,—this was a case more after the manner of the highway man—it was a case of "stand and deliver"; but the robber failing to get money, tried to be revenged by destroying all within reach; but even this did not deserve the importance which THE EXAMINER attaches to it. Yours &c., D. GORDON. Geo'town, Sept. 28, 1889.

Echoes of the Stallion Race.

BOSTON, Sept. 26.—The Globe says this afternoon: "Nelson, record 2.14, has been sold conditionally. The Maine stallion has been disposed of with the understanding that, if he beats the stallion record his owner will be given more money than was ever paid for a trotting stallion. C. H. Nelson has not closed the deal, the offer being open to accept or not, as he thinks fit." BOSTON, Sept. 27.—C. H. Nelson, owner of the stallion Nelson, publishes the following challenge: "In reply to reports in regard to the stallion race not being won on its merits, I make the following proposition: I will trot Nelson against Alcyon over the Mystic Park track, next Tuesday or Wednesday, for from $2,500 to $4,000 a side, to satisfy the public that my horse can win on his own merits. I have had an offer to sell Nelson for very big money, but I have cancelled the sale until this race can be trotted." PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—The principal topic of discussion is the result of the Balch stallion stake at Boston. Crit Davis, Daniel de Novelles, and other good judges who were present, do not hesitate to give it as their opinion that Alcyon was pulled to let Nelson win. Budd Doble, who was to have driven Nelson, but was obliged to come here and look after his horses, says he did not expect that Nelson could beat the grav. Others say that, with an experienced driver, Alcyon could have landed that event in straight heats, and that his collapse in the third was owing to his having been pulled off his stride in the earlier part of the contest.

Ate the Bishop's Breakfast.

Rev. J. C. Berrie, Methodist clergyman, of Milltown, was coming down from Montreal the other day in the same train on which the Coadjutor Bishop of Fredericton was a passenger. On the way down, the latter ordered a very nice breakfast for himself, but through some misunderstanding the meal was placed by the waiter in front of Mr. Berrie, instead of the bishop. The former, thinking that was the way the C. P. R. treated their passengers, asked no questions, but at once set himself to dispose of the repast. He had proceeded pretty well, when the waiter discovered his mistake. He hastened to where Mr. Berrie was seated and explained how matters stood, but the explanation came too late, as nearly all the toothsome viands that the bishop had ordered had disappeared down the Methodist clergyman's throat. Of course there was nothing for the bishop to do but order another breakfast and look as pleasant as possible.—St. Andrew's Beacon.

Personal.

Capt. Michael Hickey returned on Saturday evening last from his business trip to Kentucky. Mr. W. D. Taunton, editor of the New Glasgow Indicator, is visiting his relatives and friends in this city. A Sackville despatch says that Rev. Dr. Burwar is to visit the Island this week in the interests of the Educational Society. The Pioneer says: T. D. Sims, chief financial inspector for the Dominion, was here four days last week examining the Savings Bank books. We learn that the books were certified to without a single error having been discovered, which speaks highly of the efficiency of Mr. James Gourlay, the manager of the Savings Bank Branch here. Mr. James Keegan, the well-known horse buyer, arrived here on Saturday evening. He is at the Davies. Mr. P. O. Vickery, of Augusta, Me., is amongst the guests at the Hotel Davies. The wife of Capt. Gardiner, of the Salvation Army corps in this city, is a daughter of Conductor Joe Edwards, of the Windsor and Annapolis R.R. way. A number of lady delegates left the Island this morning for Fredericton, N. B., to attend the annual meeting of the Branch Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church in New Brunswick and P. E. Island. Mrs. Dr. Johnson and Mrs. Wm. Heard represent the Charlottetown Auxiliary. SIDEWALKS.—The constant watering of the plank sidewalks from the hose tends to quickly rot the plank. We would like to see some more durable material adopted, especially on our principal thoroughfares. Although stone may at first appear costly, it is far the cheapest in the end. THE LYCEUM.—The Schoff Concert Company gave a good performance to a small audience on Saturday evening. They give an entertainment in Summerside this evening. DAMAGE FROM THE RAINS.—Accounts from districts in the vicinity of Quebec are continually reaching that city of damage from the recent continuous heavy rains. Small brooks and streams have overflowed, and bridges have been carried away. Some farmers have whole fields of potatoes and turnips under water.
