ANGLO RUSTICO W. I.
 The March meeting of Anglo Rustico W. I., met at the home of Mrs. Edison Rollings.
 The meeting opened with the Ode, followed by the Creed. The minutes were read by the Secretary and correspondence attended to.
 A bill of $3.20 for school supplies was paid. Remnants were received from two firms and sold to the members. The sum of $7.40 cents was realized from this sale.
 Pieces of quilt squares were passed in by the members and Mrs. Roland Buntain kindly offered to sew them together for the quilt top. Mrs. Edison Rollings invited the Quilting Bee to her home.
 It was decided to collect from the district for the new Doctor. Mr. Reid Stevenson and Mr. Stewart Parkman were appointed to do the collecting.
 Reports were heard from the committees and new committees appointed as follows: School, Miss Jean Chandler; sick, Mrs. E. Bulman and Mrs. C. Tompkins; programme, Mrs. D. Anderson and Mrs. I. Craswell; lunch, Mrs. S. Parkman and Mrs. E. Rollings. Mrs. Exton Bulman invited the April meeting to her home; roll call to be answered with a House-cleaning Hint.
 The meeting was brought to a close by singing the Queen.
 Mrs. Reid Stevenson put on an advertising contest. Lunch was served by the committee in charge, assisted by the hostess.

CLYDE RIVER W. I.
 The March meeting of Clyde River W. I. met at the home of Mrs. R. D. Matheson, on Monday evening, March 7th, with nine members and one visitor present.
 In the absence of the president, Mrs. R. D. Matheson presided. The meeting opened with repeating "Ode," followed by "Collect." Due to the absence of the secretary there were no minutes or correspondence presented to the meeting.
 The old capsules were all distributed among the members. A bill for articles for school, amounting to $1.95 was presented and paid and school committee was instructed to purchase paper cups.
 Mrs. Watson Livingston invited the members to her home for April meeting; roll call will be answered by "A Housecleaning Hint." Mrs. R. D. Matheson and Mrs. Dixon were appointed to be in charge of next month's program, which will consist of arranging a model living room and a question box pertaining to all phases of W. I. work.
 Lunch committee as follows: — Cake, Mrs. Thomas MacKinnon and Mrs. John Gillespie; sandwiches, Mrs. Dixon and Mrs. Reg MacKinnon.
 Collection for evening amounted to $1.10, following this, Mrs. Matheson presented a paper on, "Growth of Social Services in Canada from Confederation to present day." Meeting then adjourned and a delicious lunch was served.

IN Memoriam
 In loving memory of Pte. J. W. Folland, who departed this life in Newfoundland, April 3rd, 1943.
 Down a road that's calm and peaceful,
 Guided by God's knowing hand
 He has gone upon a journey
 To a distant brighter land.
 And although our hearts are heavy
 With the sorrow we must bear,
 But it helps to bring us comfort,
 Knowing he is happy there.
 Do not ask us if we miss him
 Oh! there's such a vacant place
 Ofttimes we think we hear his footsteps,
 And see his smiling face.
 Ever Remembered by Father,
 Mother, Sisters and Brothers,
 Wife and Family.

Former Grandview Couple Honoured

An event of interest to residents of Grandview and vicinity took place on Wednesday evening, March 23rd, at Concord, Mass., when upwards of forty relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert MacPhee, formerly of Grandview, P. E. I., gathered at their home to tender them a house-warming.
 Although taken completely by surprise, the gentle host and hostess welcomed their guests as they continued to arrive in twos and threes from the nearby towns and cities. By nine-thirty the spacious living-room buzzed with friendly conversation.
 About ten-thirty Miss Edith MacPherson of Allston, announced the purpose of the gathering — to welcome Mr. and Mrs. MacPhee to their new home in Concord — and opened the gifts which consisted of linens, silverware, aluminum ware, electric equipment, etc. Miss Florence MacPhee read the accompanying verses.
 Robert, in a few well-chosen words thanked all present for their gifts and thoughtful presence and invited them to come again at any time to visit. Far They Are Jolly Good Fellows" was then sung, followed by a hearty sing-song in which everyone joined.
 A delicious lunch was served by the ladies, after which all departed for their respective homes, having enjoyed a delightful evening.
 Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Les Cooke, Mr. and Mrs. Peter MacPhee, Miss Ruth MacPhee, and Mrs. Angus MacPherson, all of Allston; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leach, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon MacDougall, and Mrs. W. K. MacLeod of Westwood; Mrs. Hugh Martin and Miss Florence MacPhee of Needham; Misses Marion MacDougall, Amelia MacDonald, Mary Court and Messrs. James Brock, Robert Kennedy, Bill Reynolds and John Ferguson of Medfield.

Charles Of Mrs. Charles H. Simmons

Mrs. Nora May Simmons, 66, wife of Charles H. Simmons, died Thursday night, March 24, after a long illness at her home on River St., Alstead, New Hampshire.
 She was born in Bath on Jan. 27, 1889, a daughter of Elbridge and Carrie Steerey. She married her husband in Enfield in 1908 and the couple moved to Alstead in 1910. He belonged originally to Kingston, P. E. I. and they frequently visited here, being back last summer.
 Besides her husband, Mrs. Simmons leaves four sons, Walter M. of East Granby, Conn., Roland S. of Bloomfield, Conn., Charles A. of Alstead and Clinton Simmons of Westminster, Vt.; three daughters, Mrs. Irma Butler of Alstead, Mrs. Roger White of East Westmoreland, and Mrs. Marie Bishop of Dalton, Mass.; a sister, Mrs. Nellie Elliot of Littleton; a brother, Brant Steerey of Hudson, N. Y.; 21 grandchildren; one great-grandchild; several nieces and nephews.
 Funeral services were held March 27, at the Third Congregational Church, Alstead; burial in Lebanon.
 Badges were presented to Barbara Newcombe, Life and Religion Emblem; Lana Justason, Child Nurse and Health.
 The Brownies then sang "Brownie Taps," followed by the Guide Evening Hymn and Taps. God Save Our Queen ended the programme. Colour Party for the fly-up was Lana Justason, Barbara Newcombe as flag bearers; the attendants were Frances McInnis, Sunda Corbin Sandra Shanks and Raymond Pleau.
 The Guides and Brownies helped serve refreshments to the parents and were under the supervision of the Guide committee.
