GOFF BROS. boots are the boots to wear. Mr. G. HAMILTON BROWN, is visiting his friends in this city.

The market was well attended yesterday. The hay market was crowded, and hay sold from 75 to 80 cts. per hundred.

The Steam Navigation Company expect their new steamer, the Summerside of Point du Chene Route about the 1st of June.

A man who passed the night at Galanti's Hotel, on Great George Street, on leaving yesterday morning carried off two silk handkerchiefs and a gold ring. He was gathered in by the police and awaits trial to-day.

A SPECIAL meeting of the Ministerial Association, in reference to the Springhill Disaster Fund, will be held in the parlour of the First Methodist church this forenoon at 10 o'clock. Pastors are urgently invited to be present.

The growing national spirit is manifesting itself in all parts of Canada. Two P. E. Island papers, the ISLAND GUARDIAN and the Summerside Journal, will have departments this year devoted especially to Canadian Literature.—Canada.

YESTERDAY we had the earliest mail of the season. Boats left Cape Tormentine at 6:50 with 48 bags of mails for Charlottetown and 4 for Summerside, and made the passage in 3 hours and 40 minutes. Mail train arrived here at a quarter of one, local time.

Great preparations are being made at Jerusalem for the reception of the Austrian Empress, who will be the second lady of Imperial rank to kneel at the holy sepulchre. The Empress considers her journey a pilgrimage and will offer up prayers at the sepulchre for her dead son Rudolph.

On the prosecution of D. W. Handerson on the 25th of February, before Robert Jenkins and Benjamin Jenkins J. P.'s. Mr. Albion, Queen's Co., Angus Beaton of Alexandria, was convicted and fined $50 and costs or two months imprisonment for violation of C. T. Act.

YESTERDAY'S Examiner had a column of news headed "Special Despatches to the Examiner," all of which were obtainable from Montreal papers three days old, which arrived here the same day. And yet our contemporary is sometimes constrained to remark "how news does travel."

There were over 300 present at the Summerside rink to witness the Hockey match last night. The team played 45 minutes without scoring a goal. It was the most brilliant game ever played by the team. After a recess of 5 minutes they were at it again, and in 20 minutes a goal was declared for Sir John, and not a challenge. After some good playing by both sides, the Laurier team scored a goal. Sir John's team, after a rest of 15 minutes, scored another goal. They then played six minutes, when time was called, neither party scoring. The vote, by tickets, stood at the close of the poll: for Sir John 175; for Laurier 97. The Summerside people were very enthusiastic, and the Hockey match was a success in every respect.

THE McDONNELL CASE.—The expected has happened, so far as Rev. A. McDougal is concerned. He has been accepted and recognized as a Unitarian in an American Unitarian Association. This is a fitting sequel to his ingenious assaults upon Evangelical doctrine. One cannot regret that a person who, after his conversion in a revival in P. E. Island promised so well should have failed so deplorably. His promise after that revival was such as to induce the Presbytery of P. E. Island to ask the Synod to allow him a "short cut" to the ministry. The Synod granted the Presbytery's request. The "short cut" was taken. Mr. McDougal showed wonderful aptitude to learn a variety of things, and we expected a great deal of him. Our expectations were not realized. Not that he showed lack of talent, but there was a lack of certain other qualifications which ought to go with talent in order to a successful ministry. We cannot but regret that a man who after coming to years of maturity solemnly on five or six occasions declared his belief in the doctrines held by the Presbyterian Church, should find out that his proper place was among Unbelievers in the Divine Son of God.—Presbyterian Witness.

The Wesley Centenary.

The continuation of the Wesley Centenary was held in the Second Methodist Church last evening. There was a fair attendance. After a pleasing service of anthem and song, Rev. Mr. Fisher offered prayer. The pastor, Rev. W. W. Brower, in introducing the speakers stated that they were not making enough of the memorial service, and suggested the working of the church in this movement in Halifax and St. John with that in Charlottetown rather to our disadvantage. As the next anniversary would be one hundred years hence, the present was the only opportunity they would ever have of taking part in the celebration. Speaking of the Wesley he said the time would come when the world would place the crown on that good man's head, and the warriors of the past century would be forgotten when the name of Wesley was as a fresh memory, shining until the end of time as one of God's messengers to workmen. Rev. Mr. Kirby said Wesley lived in an age when intellectual giants were exercising their great powers in perverting human thought. The books written at that time indicate a very low condition of morals. It was an age of horrible darkness, that man that man degraded, a gentleman who was most degraded. As an example of the condition of even the church, he stated that ministers after ordination, could not boast of having read the Scriptures. He spoke of the mighty yet gentle influence of Wesley, whereby men were then raised to a higher and happier experience. Rev. Mr. Fisher next addressed the meeting on the subject of the "Successors of M-thism and Our Relations thereto," endorsing the statement of the pastor that they were not making the most of the centennial movement. They could not over estimate the work of which Wesley was the means under God of accomplishing even after having heard all that had been said on the subject. He spoke of Wesley's earnest love for all who loved the Saviour with sincerity and of the influence over Wesley by the hearing of Maxilla's teaching him into new avenues of work, dwelling upon the importance of the employment of lay helpers in the dissemination of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The meeting closed with a collection and hymn.

John Currie Writes.

SIR.—I beg to inform you that the article appearing in the GUARDIAN of 28th February, in reference to me, is highly inaccurate and incorrect. I don't know who furnished you with the information; but all I can say is that he misinformed you. It is to be regretted that statements not justified by the facts, should find their way into a newspaper making the pretensions to fair play that the GUARDIAN does. I must ask you in future to refrain from publishing anything reflecting upon me, unless you are prepared to give me the name of your informant; otherwise I shall hold you and your paper liable. Yours, &c., JOHN CURRIE.

Little Sands, March 3, 1891. [John Currie would do well to point out wherein the article referred to was incorrect. He is very careful to make no denial.]

Lecture in St. James' Hall.

There was a fair attendance at St. James' Hall last night, to hear Mr. A. A. Bartlett's paper on "The Footsteps of Burns." Our leading citizens of Scottish extraction were to the front, among the number we noticed Col. Irving, Malcolm McLeod, Q. C., Arch. McNeill, D. C., McLeod, Arch. Kennedy, Jno McEachern, R. R. Fitzgerald was also present. Mr. Bartlett traced in graceful and calmly impressive language the leading incidents in the poet's life. His description of Burns reciting a new poem in the drawing room of the Duchess of Gordon was remarkably natural. As the lecturer painted it one could almost fancy himself looking in upon that select and licentious society having upon the poet's lips the words rolling from the poet's lips. Altogether the lecture was a rare treat and the audience were in entire accord with the vote of thanks moved by John A. Nicholson, Esq., eloquently seconded by Arch. McNeill, Esq., and ably supported by Col. Irving.

The Wesley Social.

The Methodists of this city are not so far from their Socials, but that of the Wesley Mission Band last night appeared to eclipse them all. There was an excellent recitation by Rev. Mr. Read presided. A set of fancy articles began at 7 o'clock, and from 8 to 9.15 the following programme was carried out:—

- Chorus—"In the Harvest Field There Is Work to Do".....Pastor Vocal Solo.....Mrs. Roomo Recitation—"In As Much".....Miss Pugh Large Cornet Solo.....Mr. Albert Mitchell Duet and Chorus—"That Old, Old Story Is True".....Miss Collings & McPherson R. Riding—"How I Came To Lose My Mite Box".....Miss Susie Barrett Piano Solo.....Miss Read Reading—"Ye Did It Not".....Miss Maud J. Hanson Colloquy—"Offerings to the Genius of Christianity".....7 Members of the Band Vocal Solo.....Mrs. Hammond Large Violin Solo.....Mr. Mox Every number was creditably performed. Mrs. Roomo is always a favorite with Charlottetown audiences, and of every sort she was warmly welcomed last night, and her singing greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Hammond Large surprised those who had never heard her before. She has a very sweet voice, which one would like to hear often. The chief feature of the programme was the Colloquy, when seven young ladies, clothed in the garments of health and Mahomedan tribes to which the Gospel is being preached, presented their "Offerings to the Genius of Christianity." Miss Read's piano solo was highly creditable.

The New Cure.

BERLIN, Feb. 24.—Professor Liebreich's remedy for tuberculosis is described as a salt which is one of the strongest of poisons, but it is injected only in such minute doses and with such precautions that it is quite harmless, causing neither fever nor any other inconvenience. It is said to be efficacious not merely against laryngeal tuberculosis but against tuberculosis in general and has already been applied against lupus as well as laryngeal phthisis. Professor Liebreich recently stated privately that in his statements to the press in the Berlin Medical Society he intends to state all that he knows of the matter, and the doctors infer from this that his remedy is some compound that is generally known and which may be easily prepared without the special training necessary for the preparation of Koch's tuberculosis.

Fads in Stationery.

Sealing-wax, which had been abandoned for so many years by foreign elegants, has suddenly become fashionable again, and is in the windows of great Parisian stationery shops of sealing-wax, of all hues and shades, are ranged in tempting order. A meaning is now attached to each color. White sealing wax means a proposal of marriage; black, of course, mourning; violet, condoleance; brown or old-gold an invitation to dinner; ruby is used by lovers; crimson is reserved strictly for business letters; green means hope; pale grey, friendship; pink, love; yellow, jealousy; gold and silver, constancy, etc. Note-paper is to be had in crepe ending shades and in all shapes and forms. Mourning paper is now absolutely black, edged with silver, and silver ink is used to write thereupon. A pretty novelty is the flower-paper. It is of pale blue, pink, lilac or green, and is powdered all over with the buds and petals of flowers in a yet lighter hue. Forget-me-nots, argemoneellas on the blue, roses and apple blossoms on the pink, crocuses, violets or twigs of lavender on the lilac, and buttercups and daisies on green. The envelopes match the paper and are lined with silver. These are the latest Paris fads in stationery.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

IN future the Government Steamer "Stanley" will run during the winter months between Charlottetown and Pictou, while the ice will admit of her making a return trip each day, commencing on the 1st December. If, however, the Government's boats cannot keep up daily communication between the island and the mainland before the 1st December, the steamer "Stanley" will commence running earlier than the 1st December, so as to keep up daily communication. When the Steamer "Stanley" cannot make return trips between Charlottetown and Pictou, she will then run between Pictou and Georgetown and make daily trips, if possible. When the ice becomes so heavy that she cannot make return daily trips, the ice boats will carry the mails between Cape Tormentine and Cape Tormentine, so as to give a daily mail to the island during the winter. The "Stanley" will remain on the route until the 1st May in each year, and will continue longer than that date if the Company's boats are not able to keep up daily communication with the island. W. M. SMITH, Deputy Minister of Marine, Department of Marine, Ottawa, 3rd February, 1891.
