Dear Teacher: Today we realize how swiftly our school year has passed.

It seems but such a short time since we were gathered here, a year ago, happy in the thoughts of our coming vacation, and knowing that your pleasant smile would again welcome us on our return to school.

Today we again look forward with joy to our holidays, but this time our joy is mingled with sadness, for we know that we will no longer greet you as our teacher.

We know that we have often tried your patience, but through all, you have ever been gentle and considerate, giving freely of your time and talents towards our progress.

We hope that you will always meet with as true friendships in whatever work you may undertake, as that which you hold with each and everyone of us; and, now, we ask you to accept this small gift, not for its value, but for the good wishes that accompany it, as the pupils of Nine Mile Creek School bid you a fond farewell.

Signed on behalf of the pupils of Nine Mile Creek School.

Miss MacLaine heartily thanked the pupils, not only for their thoughtful remembrance at this time, but also for their kindness to her during the three years they had worked and played together.

On the pupils were then each given a gift by the teacher and were also treated to candy. Mrs. J. J. Murphy kindly donated fruit for the children.

What's In a Name?

HOLLYWOOD, July 7.—(C.P.)—The pun-loving movie colony accepted Hugh Herbert's "Hugh Hotel" name for his San Fernando valley ranch with calm. Neither did it become excited over Edward Everett Horton's "Belly Acres" or Helen Broderick's "Oak by Me."

But it believes Producer Ernest Pagano has reached the top. When his ranch proved more expensive than he anticipated, he tagged it "El Rancho Costa Mucha."

The bride looked beautiful in a gown of white satin and white hat and shoes and accessories to match and carried a pearl rosary. She was attended by her sister Miss Margaret, who wore a dress of pale blue silk crepe with white hat and shoes and also carried a pearl rosary. Mr. Cornelius Fleming ably supported the groom. After the ceremony the wedding party motored to the home of the groom where a sumptuous breakfast was partaken of. After a very enjoyable day spent in visiting relatives and friends a delectable supper was served at the home of the bride. The evening was spent in music and dancing "Till we small hours of the morning." Mr. and Mrs. Dobron will reside in New Orleans. Their many friends wish them every success in life.

Rotary President Reviews International Convention Held At Atlantic City

A comprehensive and interesting report of the 37th annual Rotary International convention, held this year at Atlantic City, was given at the weekly luncheon of the Charlottetown Rotary Club Monday by J. M. Murley, the new President of the club and its representative at the convention.

Mr. Murley spoke as follows: "As the honour of representing this club at Rotary International on the occasion of the 37th annual meeting fell to my lot, it is in order that I give an account of the proceedings to the extent available."

"The sessions began on Sunday, June 21st, with a concert at 9 p. m. The Madrigal singers of Philadelphia, a mixed chorus of 45 voices under the direction of Henry Hotz and accompanied by a thirty-piece orchestra under the direction of Dr. Jens Donath. The music was of exceptional merit and in keeping with the occasion and day.

On Monday, June 22nd, registrations were continued as the conference settled away to real work. Convention Hall on the Boardwalk at Atlantic City, where the sessions were held, was built at a cost of $15,000,000 and is municipally owned and operated.

The building covers seven acres of ground and seats forty thousand persons in the main hall alone, while the entire population of Atlantic City, 66,000, could be seated in the building with room to spare. Admirably suited for the needs and purposes of Rotary International, the main hall of the Auditorium provides 140,000 square feet of space.

Despite the great size of the hall, however, through the use of a specially designed public address system, a whisper in one end of the auditorium could be clearly heard in the other for announcement purposes.

It is claimed that the organ in the main hall is the largest and most powerful in the world. It is equipped with two giant consoles, one with seven manuals and the other, a movable one, with five. There are 1255 speaking stops and 33,000 pipes ranging from 3-16th of an inch to 64 feet in length. It is run by a 365 horse-power group of motors, has seven blowers and would circle the earth twice. Four years' time was necessary to complete the organ at a cost of half a million dollars.

"The ballroom on the second floor contains another pipe organ as well as complete stage equipment. Numerous committee rooms in the building range from fifty to five hundred seating capacity.

"Eleven thousand Rotarians poured into Atlantic City during the week from over eighty nations of the world. News of the various activities was flashed to all parts of the continent from Radio Station WPG, and thousands of non-Rotarians were able to hear the addresses and entertainment features.

"President Ed. R. Johnson conducted the proceedings at all plenary sessions. These sessions began each morning at 9:30 but not before numerous "Breakfast Assemblies" had been run off by various sub-committees, usually at 7:30 a. m.

"The afternoons were devoted to recreation, except for hundreds of group assemblies and special meetings. I will endeavour to outline the daily features as presented and also give a brief review of the entertainment provided.

"As most of you know, the first essential is "Registration" and your "Badge" until this matter is properly attended to you cannot get anywhere at a convention. Several hundred young ladies facing a battery of typewriters rattled out badge cards as fast as the delegates could fill in the necessary information.

"The young lady who filled ours in said, "Prince Edward Island?" "Is that where Charlottetown is?" and on being replied to in the affirmative, said: "Why that's where my grandpa came from, I'm all excited over meeting up with you."—It's a small world!

"The "House of Friendship" was then visited in the expectation that friends would be located there. As you know, this is a vast space filled with easy chairs, information

comes when you guard against COSMETIC SKIN

Sweet, smooth skin is very hard to resist. So don't risk losing this charm! Use all the cosmetics you wish. But be sure to remove them thoroughly as do 846 out of 857 English and Hollywood Stars—with gentle Lux Toilet Soap. This is the way to guard against the dangerous pore clogging that results in tiny blemishes, enlarged pores, blackheads, perhaps—warning signals of ugly Cosmetic Skin.

Cosmetics Harmless if removed this way

To protect your skin—use Lux Toilet Soap before you put on fresh make-up during the day—ALWAYS before you go to bed at night. Its rich, active lather goes deep into the pores—removes all trace of dust, dirt and stale cosmetics—leaves the skin fresh, smooth and soft.

Of course I use cosmetics, but thanks to Lux Toilet Soap I never worry about Cosmetic Skin the near future.

Rotarian Doctor Amos O. Squires, of Sing-Sing Prison, paid a glowing tribute to the Boy Scout movement when he stated that thirty thousand young men had been examined by him in that institution and not one had ever had a Scout training. He believed the Scout movement to be the greatest single factor in the world, for the training of boys in good citizenship.

The Doctor cited many cases of deep interest. The mother who is trying to be a leader in reclaiming criminals to a better life and worthy citizenship, frequently does so at the expense of beautiful and loving daughters of her own who are left to the mercies of the law.

"Encouraging the formation and extension of institutes of international relations; "Establishment of a research bureau and clearing house on boys' work and crippled children activities by various organizations in all countries to the end that reliable information, counsel and advice may be available to all those interested in these activities."

Definite progress is being made towards the adoption of a constructed universal language. When such a language has been agreed upon it is believed that Rotary can help tremendously towards its use through the avenues now in operation.

In addition to the daily general sessions over forty other conclaves were held daily to discuss worldwide problems in the various business professional and educational groups. Fifty districts held round dinner dinners at various hotels each evening.

The 32nd District dinner was presided over by incoming District Governor George Spencer of Moncton, N.B., who succeeds our own Percy W. Turner. Besides Ray Knoepfel, who represented Rotary International we had several distinguished guests from other districts. Thirty Rotarians and their wives took part in this reunion, and entertainment was provided by strolling entertainers who went from party to party for the purpose.

Although not definitely arranged, it is expected that the District Assembly of Presidents and Secretaries will be held in New Glasgow in deny the rights were all turned off except small colored lights placed in the trees, and a most pleasing effect was produced.

About seventy of the world's best known figure skaters took part in unusual movements. A great deal of practice by real artists must have been necessary to achieve such precision and grace. An exhibition by Miss Eleanor O'Hara of Toronto, Canadian champion 1936, was of particular merit and a source of pride and satisfaction to the Canadian section. Eleven large spotlights played on the performers in various colors, and the effect on the gold, silver and various fabrics of costumes was delightful to see. At times when the green spotlights were concentrated on the ice, one had the impression of literally flying across a huge lawn.

"To dwell on the entertaining features of the President's Ball, the British Empire Dinner, Golf Tournament, airplane flights, motor boating, etc., would take more time than remains at my disposal.

"21 resolutions were submitted, some of deep interest to the members of this club and others more in the nature of clarifying. These matters will all be dealt with fully at a later date.

"Owing to the Coronation, the British delegates were reluctantly compelled to withdraw the invitation to have Rotary International meet in London next year. In all probability the sessions will be held at Nice, France.

"Now I must thank you all for this wonderful experience. I trust that in some small way I may be able to reflect in my own club, for its benefit, a portion of the enthusiasm, application and adherence to Rotary principles manifested to such a marvellous degree at Atlantic City.
