SAVED HIS PLAYMATE
 SMITHS FALLS, Ont. (CP)—Michael Jordan, 8, put his wolf cub training to good use Monday when he hauled a playmate from the waters of the Rideau river here. He jumped into the river after Harold Young, Jr., 4, toppled from the shore while floating his toy boat.

Both Sides

Aggressive Conservative and CCF parties now have been defeated and only a few members are still to speak in the debate. Maurice Breton (L — Joliette-L'Assomption — Montcalm) said the federal government has set up tax agreements with the provinces because it recognizes the joint rights of both levels of government over direct taxation. He said only one man—Premier Duplessis of Quebec—has contested this view which is "constitutionally certain."

Quebec is the only one of 10 provinces which has refused to sign tax agreements with the federal government. He said there are some in Quebec—and even in the Commons—who hold fast to the principle of separatism and dream of the day when Quebec will become an independent state.

ISSUES CHALLENGE
 Mr. Fleming said Prime Minister St. Laurent has been coy in not replying to Opposition leader Drew's request that he call a federal-provincial conference on taxation and constitutional problems. "I challenge the prime minister to enter this debate and make a statement on this subject of dominion - provincial relations," Mr. Fleming said. It was "fallacious sophistry" for Liberals to argue that the provinces had an equal right to levy income taxes. The federal government already was taxing that field to the limit, and part of its collections in Quebec were being used to pay grants to other provinces which had signed taxation agreements. The government apparently was determined to beat Quebec to its knees and force it to come to Ottawa, cap in hand, seeking a tax agreement. Instead of that attitude there was an urgent need for a spirit of conciliation and good will among the governments in Canada. Mr. Bruneau said French-Canadians outside Quebec could not accept Quebec's argument that the British North America Act was a pact between the two main races of the country. The Fathers of Confederation might not have been logical in granting equal powers of direct taxation to both federal and provincial governments. The federal government was ready to study means of lessening that problem. "Unfortunately, we cannot say the same of the present Quebec government."
