Sea View And Vicinity

The majority of the farmers are finishing their harvest and some are busy at their threshing, the oats is proving to be an average crop.

The mackeral are very scarce and the fishermen are not getting enough to pay expenses.

The Junior W. A. held a most delightful moonlight picnic at Sea View Beach. An entertaining sing song of old favorite songs was greatly enjoyed round a huge bonfire. Lunch and ice-cream were served later and a neat sum was realized to help the W. A. members in carrying on their work which is so worth while. The leader Mrs. Blakaney in co-operation with the members are to be congratulated on their success at this time.

The many friends of Mr. David Adams are sorry to learn of his continued serious illness, Miss Jessie Murphy, Kensington is in attendance.

Miss Jennie Clark R. N. has returned to her home after spending some time in Sea View on professional duties.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Brooks, O'Leary, spent a few days recently with friends in Sea View.

Miss Nora Adams, Boston, is spending a pleasant holiday with her aged mother, Mrs. J. T. Adams.

The weekly dance was held in Darnley on Tuesday evening, there was a good gathering of young people. Splendid music was furnished by Baltic orchestra.

A large number of tourists are enjoying the beaches these days and the cottages are all filled with holiday seekers.

Mr. Ollie Burns, Kensington, spent a few days recently with friends in Sea View.

Many in this community were shocked when the news came that Mr. Hartwell Crozier had passed to that Home Beyond after a short illness in St. John General Hospital N. B. Word had been received of the necessery operation to save his life. Later that he was doing nicely, but the Angel of Death came on Saturday morning, August 26th. He was called away at the age of 77 years. After a well spent life. The late Mr. Crozier had been a resident of Darnley who with his wife nee Maria McLeod, New London, lived there many years. Theirs was a home where all were made welcome and their kindness will long be remembered by the many friends who shared their hospitality. After his wife's death he disposed of his farm and went to St. John where he was associated with the work of the Bible Society as colporteur. This work he carried on with a great deal of success. He paid a visit to this Province in the early part of summer and visited many of his old friends and to all appearances seemed to be in the best of health. But the Master whom he served willed it otherwise. He was afflicted with an incurable disease and in spite of the best of medical skill was called to Higher Service. The funeral service was held on Tuesday afternoon in the church at Malpeque of which the deceased had been a member of the session for a number of years. The church was filled with many from far and near and the service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Crowdis assisted by Rev. J. M. Murchison and Mr. Carson who read the scripture and led in prayer. Rev. Mr. Murchison gave the address full of comfort to all bereaved and paid a lasting tribute to the life of the deceased, as a friend and Christian worker. The hymns sung were, "The Lord's My Shepard" and "Forever With The Lord." Two touching and beautifully rendered solos were sung by Charles Woodside, who sang "Shadows" and Russel McKay sang, "Sleep On Beloved Sleep", both solos were greatly appreciated. The pall bearers were six nephews of the deceased. Bruce Crozier, Stephen Burns, William Burns, Lyle Crozier, James Hickey and Percy Hickey who bore the remains to their last resting place in the adjoining cemetery followed by the members of King Edward Lodge A. F. and A. M. and several members from other lodges, an impressive masonic service was held at the graveside of a much respected and greatly beloved brother member who had passed on to the presence of the Great Master of all Lodges in the Home Beyond. He leaves to mourn his passing, three sisters Mrs. George Profitt, Darnley, Mrs. John Hickey, Darnley and Mrs. Margaret Burns, Malpeque, one brother, Percy of Halifax, besides a large number of friends to mourn their loss. The sympathy of many friends is extended to all friends in their bereavement.

Rev. Mr. Crowdis held a prayer service in Sea View Hall on Wednesday evening. There was a large gathering and all greatly appreciated his inspiring and helpful message.

Rev. Mr. Fream was a recent visitor to Sea View. Mr. Fream has just returned from an enjoyable holiday in Toronto.

A most enjoyable evening was spent in Spring Valley on Tuesday evening in the form of an ice-cream social. A large number were present and greatly enjoyed the ice-cream and cake furnished by the ladies, after which dancing was indulged in. Splendid music was furnished by Lonzo Holmes and Bernice MacKinnon with Mrs. Charles Mac Lellan as accompanist. A nice sum was realized and all enjoyed the pleasant evening.

Mr. Lee Mountain, Summerside, was a recent visitor to Sea View in the interts of the fox business.

Mrs. Aubry Hillz is spending a pleasant holiday with friends in Martins River, N. S.

Mr. John Basset is kept busy with his threshing outfit.

Tweedy of Vernon River, and an uncle of George J. Tweedy of this city, first left the Island 49 years ago and has since been practising in Winona.

Submarine Warfare of 1917 Recalled

Undated Submarine Warfare With Athenia

(By the Canadian Press)

German submarine warfare against British Shipping during the "unrestricted" attack in 1917 sent down 1,134 ships. An additional 841 ships were attacked by submarines, but escaped.

Encounters with mines cost the British 137 ships in the same year, and enemy surface craft sank 38. In all, the savage attack by Germany in an effort to "starve out" the British Isles accounted for 3,500,000 tons in ships.

The Allies destroyed 75 submarines.

The sinking of the British Liner Lusitania, with loss of 1,198 lives, occurred in 1915.

By the close of 1917, the Allies had established a convoy system which was markedly effective. Up to Armistice Day, 581 allied ships had fallen victim to German submarines in 1918.

Chamberlain's Stand Indorsed

LONDON, Sept. 4—(CP) —Here is how Parliament's leaders rallied behind Prime Minister Chamberlain in war:—

David Lloyd George, Great War Prime Minister, told the House of Commons the Government could do no more than it had done, that Britain had won victory for right in the last war and "we will do it again."

Winston Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty at the outbreak of the Great War, emphasized Britain's repeated efforts for peace, declaring:—

"Outside the storms of war may blow and the land may be lashed with the furies of its gales but in our hearts this Sunday morning there is peace.

"Our hands may be active but our consciences are at rest.

"We must not underrate the gravity of the task which lies before us, the severity of the ordeal.

"We must expect many disappointments and many unpleasant surprises but we may be sure that the task which we have freely accepted is one not beyond the compass of the strength of the British Empire and the French Republic."

Sir Archibald Sinclair, leader of the Liberal opposition, declared:—

"It is the determination of Parliament to see this thing through.

In Memoriam

REV. J. E. TYNER.

James Edward Tyner, 80-year-old retired Baptist minister, died instantly in an auto driven by James W. Edwards, 2206 Fulton Avenue, Burnaby, B. C. when the car collided lightly with another machine at Nelson and Marine Drive, Whytecliff, near midnight Tuesday.

In an investigation conducted by Sergeant Albert Kruger and Constable Charles Hailstones, members of the West Vancouver police, it was learned that the victim had spent the day at Horseshoe Bay with his companion, Edwards.

Edwards told the officers that Tyner, who was a "down-easter" and fond of fishing, had insisted on taking his turn at the oars despite the plea of Edwards against that course. After they returned to their car for the journey home, Edwards noticed that his companion seemed pale and very quiet.

When the two cars met at the curved intersection none of the passengers was even jolted, and the victim still retained his erect posture.

Noting his silence Edwards turned to speak to him and discovered death had taken place.

The other auto was driven by Allen J. Waters, of Edmonton. In his car were Janet Thomson, and her sister, Isabelle and Cecil Anderson, all of Vancouver.

Mr. Tyner will be kindly remembered as pastor of the Tryon and Bonshaw Baptist Churches.

Hitler Reported Joining Troops On Eastern Front

BERLIN, Sept. 3. — (AP)—(Via Copenhagen) — Fuehrer Hitler was reported to have started for the East front to join his soldiers shortly after 10 P. M. (6 P. M., ADT) tonight.

The Fuehrer left the Chancellery in a limousine with shaded headlights while the city was in a complete blackout.

The car made its way slowly through the large, mostly silent crowd standing in the dark Wilhelmplatz.

A few in the crowd near the driveway broke through the small police guard and shouted, "Fuehrer command, we follow till death."

Catering to Dinner-parties and Afternoon Teas

No Wonder You Are Constipated!

What do you eat for breakfast? Coffee, toast, maybe some eggs? What do you eat for lunch and dinner? Bread, meat, potatoes? No wonder you're constipated... due to lack of "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean the amount you eat. It means the kind of food that forms a soft, bulky mass in the bowels. It's this mass that helps your bowels move.

The common sense thing to do about it is to eat Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast. This ready-to-eat cereal will give you just the "bulk" you need. And it gives you, in addition, Nature's intestinal-tonic, vitamin B1. Eat a generous portion of All-Bran every day, drink plenty of water; and life will be brighter for you! All-Bran is made by Kellogg in London, Canada. Sold by every grocer.
