

BINGEN ON THE RHINE.

BY MRS. CAROLINE NOITON. A soldier of the Legion lay dying in Alkiers. There was lack of woman's nursing; there was death of woman's tears; But a comrade stood beside him, while his life-blood ebbed away...

"There's another—not a sister; in the happy days you'd have known her by the merriment that sparkled in her eye; Too innocent for coquetry—too fond for idle scoring—"

His voice grew faint and hoarse,—his grasp was childish, weak,— His eyes put on a dying look,—he sighed and ceased to speak;

The Old Story.

The failure of the Munster Bank, of which the principal offices are in Dublin and Cork, is the old story over again. Mr. Shaw, M. P., a director, borrowed £80,000 from the bank, and then put in a set-off of £30,000 for directors' fees, which, however, he had to abandon.

A Faith Cure in Nova Scotia.

The newspapers are somewhat agitated over an alleged case of healing by faith in New Glasgow, N. S. The last Presbyterian Witness says: The person who sent us the original statement concerning this case of healing writes to say that the facts were obtained from the lips of one who had been to see the sick woman; and that he has himself investigated it further with the result that there was one, and but one, error in the account, namely that the woman was so restored as to be able to walk, whereas she had not got on thus far.
