"Bringing Up Mother"
Presented At St. Eleanors

The Young Adult Group of the United Church, Kensington, were greeted by a capacity audience on Friday night, June 16, when they presented their play "Bringing Up Mother" in St. Eleanor's Hall.

The action of the play takes place in the Piccadilly Hotel in London, Eng.

Mrs. Bruce McLeod was exceptionally good in the title role, "Maggie Fitzgerald", the mother who is being introduced to a new way of life in English society. Her hearty laugh, ready wit and perpetual good humor are infectious and she soon has the audience laughing heartily with her.

Miss Jean Davison took the part of "Mary Louise Fitzgerald" in a charming and capable manner. She finds out before it is too late that English noblemen are not always what they profess to be.

The part of Mrs. Hunter-Chase, an American social climber, was realistically interpreted by Mrs. Joseph Woodside. Her ambition to marry her daughter to an English title is not shared by the daughter, "Drusilla", a part equally well interpreted by Miss Thelma Adams.

"Lord Cecil Beaucliff" and his mother, "Lady Beaucliff", impoverished English aristocrats are characterized in a clever manner by Mr. Keith Moase and Mrs. Robert Carruthers.

"Margot Vane", a young English girl, is a short and thankless part of a schemer in which Mrs. Gordon Bryenton gives good support.

"The Duke of Guisebury", an elderly impoverished nobleman, who is bored with life in general and disgusted with those "vulgar Americans" changes his attitude when he hears about "Maggie Fitzgerald's" money "rolling in". This part was cleverly handled by Mr. Leaman Casely.

Maggie's old friend and neighbor "Idaho Ike" arrives in time to save her from a loveless marriage with the Duke but not before she has settled a considerable sum of money on him. However, "Ike" has the pleasure of "beating the tar out of him." The part of "Idaho Ike" was taken in professional style by Mr. Waldron Darach.

"Rudy Crosby", an American jazz band leader and singer, triumphs at last when "Mary Louise" finds out that her English lover is a fake. This was a short but important part admirably taken by Mr. Alonzo Webster.

Mr. Keith Stewart was the perfect servant as "Marmaduke" and won his share of laughs on every appearance.

Instrumental music between the acts was contributed by Mrs. Russell McKay, Mr. Norman Mill and Mr. John Inglis. Mr. Russell McKay sang two songs in his usual pleasing manner.

The National Anthem brought a most enjoyable entertainment to a close.

LONDON, June 28—(Reuters)—Britain's "Picturegoer" annual film awards for 1950 have been won by Jane Wyman for her performance in the film "Johnny Belinda" and by Richard Todd for his acting in "The Hasty Heart".

District W. I. Convention Held At Bedeque Hall

The twenty-second annual convention of Women's Institutes held at Central Bedeque Hall, Friday, June 16th was largely attended. With the president, Mrs. Scott Cairns presiding meeting opened by singing, O Canada followed by repeating Creed in unison. The visiting Institutes were very warmly welcomed by Mrs. Frank Deacon of Freetown and to this welcome four ladies of North Bedeque made a very fitting reply in song.

Miss Florrie Green, Convention Reporter, gave a very splendid report of the work done by the different Institutes during the year.

Miss Clapp of the Provincial Sanatorium, gave a most instructive talk and a wonderful exhibition of handicraft made by patients in Sanatorium. During lunch hour quite a number of these exhibits were sold. The Supervisor, Miss Robin, gave an instructive talk on many phases of Institute work and then gave a demonstration on how to make a pad for pressing shoulders.

The Nominating Committee consisting of Mrs. Harrison MacFarlane, Mrs. Wilfred Craig and Mrs. Frank Cairns named the officers for next year as follows, President—Mrs. Earle Pearson, Chelton, Vice-President—Mrs. Maude Newsome, Searlestown, Secretary Treasurer—Mrs. Heber Schurman, Chelton, Convention Reporter—Mrs. W. J. Reid, Middleton. The Resolutions Committee—Mrs. Wilbur Staver, Mrs. Platts Cameron and Mrs. Chappel brought in a number of resolutions most of which were approved by the meeting.

The lunch hour was presided over by the ladies of Upper Freetown, and a very pleasant intermission was enjoyed by all.

At the evening meeting the hall was filled to capacity and a splendid program was carried out as follows, a solo by Anne Leard, musical number on harp and mouth organ by Teddy Britten. Piano solo by Miss Katherine Auld, solo by Mrs. Edwin Taylor, solo by Edith McIver, and chorus by Bedeque school girls.

Mrs. Gordon MacMillan, Cornwall showed some very beautiful slides and gave talk on her flower garden. Mrs. Perry, Summerside, gave two very humorous readings which caused much merriment among the audience. A one act play, "When the Fires are Lighted" ably acted by Cape Traverse players brought the evening to a close. A goodly sum was realized and is to be divided equally between Manitoba Relief Fund and Provincial Sanatorium.

NEW YORK, June 24—(AP)—Greez Song, from the Brandywine stable of Donald P. Ross, upset the favored Hill Prince today to win the $40,000 Dwyer Stakes for three-year-olds at Aqueduct. Lights Up was third.

Freetown Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Simmons and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Reeves were visitors in Moncton, N. B. on Thursday.

Miss Evelyn Rogers of Ottawa arrived on Saturday to spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rogers of Lower Freetown.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cairns and baby daughter of Charlottetown spent Sunday in Freetown with Mrs. Cairns' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cairns.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Deacon of Charlottetown were visitors to Freetown on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deacon.

Mrs. Frank Deacon and Mrs. George Jardine were visitors to Charlottetown on Tuesday attending an executive meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Curley and little son Ivan who spent the winter in Summerside, have returned to their home in Freetown for the summer months.

Friends are sorry to hear of the illness of Norma and Linda Stetson, little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stetson, who have both been ill with pneumonia, and all hope they will soon be completely well again.

Rev. Vance McLean and Mrs. McLean of Ottawa, arrived on the Island recently to spend their vacation in their summer home at Stanley Bridge. They were accompanied by Mrs. McLean's mother, Mrs. Dr. Campbell, who is visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Rogers of Lower Freetown.

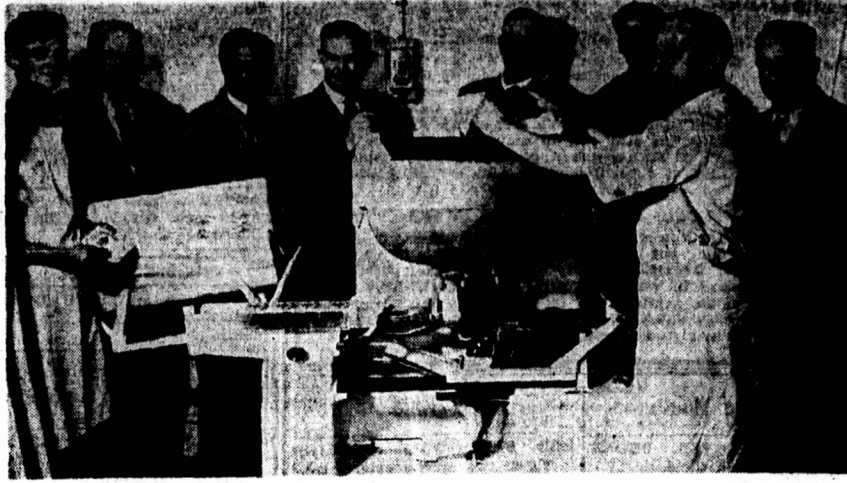

The Women's Missionary Society of the Freetown United Church entertained the associate members at the June meeting held in the church on Tuesday, June 6th. This being the twenty-fifth anniversary service, reports from the different officers were presented, showing the satisfactory progress made during that time. At the close of the meeting lunch was served to all, after which a pleasant social hour was spent.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the family of the late Mrs. John Profit whose death occurred on Friday, June 9 at her home in Lower Freetown. The funeral which was held on Monday from Freetown United Church, following a short service in the home was very largely attended and the floral tributes very beautiful. The services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Ralph L. Wagner, assisted by Rev. Charles Brittan and Rev. Ernest Weeks, Internment in People's Cemetery at Freetown.

Mr. and Mrs. William Francis entertained a large number of guests recently at a shower in honor of their daughter, Georgie, prior to her marriage to Mr. Gordon Rix of Alma, P.E.I. on Wednesday, June 14. Many lovely and useful gifts were received also many envelopes containing money. When the gifts had been presented and admired, Georgie thanked all for their gifts and good wishes. Then all joined in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" afterwards a delicious lunch was served.

A telegram received lately conveyed the sad news of the death in Cranbrook, B. C. of Mrs. Kenneth Mason. Mrs. Mason, nee Winnifred Deacon, was born in
