N.S. BRIDGE KNOCKED OUT BY ICE

The Jordan River bridge, near Shelburne, N.S., has been knocked out by a sudden thaw. A heavy rush of water threw ice cakes up on the highway and swept away the bridge disrupting traffic on a main highway. A Bailey bridge was thrown across the stream over the week-end and traffic has resumed. There has been no announcement as to when a permanent bridge will be erected.

Maj.-Gen. Kennedy To Head National Capital Commission

OTTAWA (CP) — Maj.-Gen. Howard Kennedy, who has guided development of the national capital as chairman of the federal district commission, will be head of the new national capital commission.

Prime Minister Diefenbaker, announcing Friday night the membership of the new 20-member commission which on Feb. 6 will replace the old federal district commission, said Gen. Kennedy will be its chairman.

Vice - chairman will be Prof. Anthony Adamson, a Toronto town planner and brother of Rodney Adamson, former Progressive Conservative MP for York West who was killed in a plane collision over Moose Jaw, Sask., in 1954.

A government spokesman said the salary of full-time chairman of the commission has not yet been set by cabinet. The deputy chairman and other commission members may be paid an allowance and expenses. Their posts are not full-time ones and are expected to involve periodic meetings at Ottawa.
