Odds and Ends.

In the United States they now call the papers devoted to shouting for prohibition "the hydraulic press."

Bobby (at the breakfast table—"Clara, did Mr. Spooner take any of the umbrellas or hats from the hall last night?" Clara—"Why, of courre not; why should he?" Bobby—"That's what I'll like to know. I thought he did, 'cos I heard him say when he was going out, 'I'm going to steal just one,' and—what's the matter, Clara?"

The Modern Great Man.—"When were you born, Prof. Greathead?" "The 17th day of May, 1832 or 33—I am not sure; but you will find it in the encyclopedia.'

Guest (at summer hotel)—"I expected to find fresh air at this country place, but I was disappointed." Friend—"How was that? Guest—"Why, as I got to the hotel the band was playing 'Annie Rooney."

Some one says: At ten years of age a boy thinks his father knows a great deal, at fifteen, he knows as much as his father, at twenty, he knows twice as much, at thirty, he is willing to take his advice, at forty, he thinks his father knows something, after all, at fifty, he begins to seek his advice, and at sixty—after his father is dead—he thinks he was the smartest man that ever lived.

The Queen Pays all Expenses.
