HORATIO ALGER, Jr., is now busily engaged on a new work entitled, "From Farm Boy to Senator," being a boy's life of the great American statesman and orator, Daniel Webster. As this is the centennial anniversary of the birth of Webster, it will be most timely. It will be issued April 15th, from the press of J. S. Ogilvie & Co., New York.

PARNELL, in a conversation with a friend on the 8th inst., said his imprisoned followers regarded the recent outrages with the greatest indignation. He expressed the belief that the state of things in Ireland would improve if the Government introduced a bill to relieve poor tenants of arrears of rent, and amended the clauses of the Land Act regarding purchases, so as practically to assist tenants to become owners of their farms. The result, he thought, would go a long way to restore peace and order.

A ST. JOHN'S, N. F., despatch of the 9th inst. states the sailing steamer "Wolf," the first of the Northern fleet, has just arrived, with about 6,000 old and young seals—not half a load. She brings very unfavorable reports. Nearly all the vessels have poorly fished. It is supposed that the main body of harp seals drifted south before the fleet got out through the heavy ice. Another steamer, "Hector," is signalled. She is forcing in towards the harbor, and is apparently making good way through the ice, now close to the Narrows. The "Wolf" reports the "Hector" with 2,400.

LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKY

ANALYTICAL SANITARY INSTITUTION 54, Holborn-viaduct, E. C., London, Aug. 8, '79. REPORT ON THE LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKY: "We have visited the bottling stores of Greenlees Brothers, and have selected from the vats, samples of their Lorne Highland Whisky, and have subjected them to careful examination and analysis. The samples were very fragrant, mellow, and of pleasant flavor, and possessed all the characteristics of pure and well-matured Scotch Whisky of the first quality."
