Millionaire-Model Marriage Was Wedding To Remember

By CAROL KENNEDY
HENLEY ON THAMES (CP) — A wedding to remember when Galen Weston, son of Canadian bakery millionaire Garfield Weston, married Dublin's top model, Hilary Frayne, by the Green banks of the Thames in this English town.

England turned on her best summer weather for the occasion, which reached its climax as an ancient steamboat with a hand playing ragtime music carried guests up the river, fringed with weeping willows and gardens thick with flowers.

Two high-spirited guests added a touch of unexpected drama by jumping into the river as the 80-year-old Majestic last of her kind on the Thames, cruised up the Henley regatta course. The adventurous guests, a girl in a purple mini-skirt and an Irish store executive, were quickly rescued, dried out and plied with champagne as the band played on.

Galen, strapping 25-year-old youngest of the nine Weston children—seventh to be married—chose the Klondyke theme after studying the family photograph album. His grandfather was married in the same kind of long-jacketed, high-buttoned suit with string tie and grey ten-gallon hat that Galen, best man David Nichol of Vancouver

Conrad Black a Toronto neighbor of the Westons; Rev. John Nichol of Flint, Ont., brother of the best man, assisted the rector of Remenham, Rev. G. L. Pettit.

A strong Irish contingent from Hilary's hometown of Dun Laoghaire, near Dublin, included Mrs. Noel Frayne, mother of the bride; Hilary's two sisters and young brother; and Dr. Stanley Boland, a family friend who gave the bride away.

In a touching gesture that broke with tradition, Hilary tossed her bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley to her widowed mother.

WESTON HAPPY

"It gives me great happiness that Galen has joined Canada with Ireland," said Garfield Weston at the champagne reception on the riverside lawns of the Weston home near Henley. His wife, Reta, whose ancestors came from Fermanagh, Northern Ireland, added: "It's good to have more Irish blood rejuvenating the stock."

Galen met his bride two years ago in Dublin, where he runs a Weston supermarket chain. Hilary was formerly a top model with Ireland's celebrated designer, Sybil Connolly. They announced their engagement 11 weeks ago at the Vancouver wedding of David and Diane Nichol.

The three-tiered wedding cake, naturally, came from a Weston bakery.

Garfield Weston, at 81, reputed to be one of the six richest men in Britain, was in breezy, jovial mood as he led guests to the steamboat moored at a nearby lock, preceded by three street musicians he had spotted playing outside his posh Fortnum and Mason store in Piccadilly.

"Galen always wanted to be married on the Thames," said Weston, reminiscing as the steamer puffed downriver. "He was born at our old place at Marlow, on a night of bad bombing by the Germans. Later he rowed for St. Paul's

Business Boom Highlights Half-Year In United States

By JOSEPH R. COVNE
WASHINGTON (AP) — Booming business, relatively low unemployment, rising incomes and prices—and the inflation which goes with them—highlighted the U.S. economic picture during the first half of this year.

Soft spots did develop in the economy—the housing industry and automobile sales were two—but the economic indicators published by the federal government showed that the first half of 1966 was a banner year for most Americans generally although the banner cost more than it did last year.

There was even talk both inside and outside government—especially in the first three months of the year—of the boom getting out of hand and rejuvinating the stock market.

Some economists said the administration "has waited, too long and inflation had engulfed the country."

President Johnson, as recently as last week, held open the possibility of a tax increase bill the emphasis now is on the increasing cost of the Viet Nam War and increased congressional spending rather than for purely anti-inflationary purposes.

As the first half of the year ended there were indications the boom would continue.

The commerce department said some monthly indicators such as employment and personal income suggested that the economy grew more rapidly in June than in either of the two preceding months.

And spending for new plant and equipment is expected to increase to more than $61,000,

The Guardian, Charlottetown, Mon., Aug. 1, 1966: 7

000,000 on a seasonally-adjusted annual rate during the third quarter up from the $39,600,000,000 rate estimated for April.

—Consumer price index: The half-year increase of 1.7 per cent in the labor department's index was the largest in eight years. The June index reading of 153.3 meant that it cost $11.23 to buy the goods and services that cost $10 in the 1957-59 base period.

—Unemployment: The unemployment index never exceeded four per cent of the total labor force during any of the last six months and actually dropped to 3.7 per cent in February and April. By June the total number of employed persons had risen to 77,700,000, compared with 71,200,000 last January.

—Industrial production: The output of the U.S. mines, mills and factories rose to record heights during each of the six months of the first half of this year and ended the period at 155.8 per cent of the 1957-59 base period. The index stood at 145.7 quarter was even more dramatic. Price increases accurate.

Of the $17,900,000,000 increase during the first three months of 1965, only $3,800,000,000 or 20 per cent reflected price changes, the commerce department said.

But in the first quarter of this year price increases accounted for $6,400,000,000 or 38 per cent of the total rise during that three-month period. The second quarter was even more dramatic. Price increases accurate.

BRIDE FRILLY

Blonde, blue-eyed Hilary, 23, wore a romantic draped and frilled white silk organza gown and her two Irish bridesmaids were dressed in Victorian-style white lace gowns embroidered with yellow flowers.

Galen's six sisters—Miriam, Barbara, Nancy, Wendy, Gretchen, and Camilla—flew from Canada and the United States for the wedding, but elder brothers Grainger, 42, and Gary, 39, were unable to make the trip from Texas and Australia.

Barbara's seven-year-old son, Garfield Mitchell, was a page. Other Canadians among the 180 guests included Peter Dalgleish, Camilla's husband, and
