The five ladies pictured above have been selected by their respective classes to represent them in this year's Winter Carnival. The contestants will be judged on intellect, university activity, outside involvement or interests, personality, poise, beauty and general appearance.

Mary Jane Groom, Carnival Ball co-ordinator will be in charge of the itinerary for the girls during Carnival Week which will include, television appearances, a tea and a cocktail party as well as interviews to enable the judges to meet and evaluate each girl individually.

The judges for the event are: Dr. Harry Callaghan, Brig. Al Rogers and Jeannie Rodd. Their final selection will be handed in a sealed envelope to Bill MacIntyre, Carnival Co-chairman, who will then announce the winner and Queen of Carnival '74. The Carnival Ball on Saturday, February 9th will be the scene for the announcement and subsequent coronation.
