ITS FAME SPREADING.

A New Remedy in General Use in Manitoba and the Northwest.

WINNIPEG, May 28.—The effects of the regular waves of sickness which sweep over this portion of the Dominion in the spring are noticeable in the increasing amount of the druggist's sales. There has been quite a run on the kidney remedy now so well known under the name of Dodd's Kidney Pills. The recovery from Bright's Disease of Mr. Arthur Coley, of Somerset, through their use, an account of which appeared in the papers, gave a considerable impetus to the sale, and the remedy has become indispensable in many Manitoba households, its fame having penetrated into the remotest parts of the province and Northwest Territories.

Mayor Hart, of Boston, is generally recognized as a sensible man. His latest act was to veto an order passed by the pro-Boer council providing that the city officially entertain the Boer peace envoys. The aldermen declined to pass the order over the Mayor's veto.

A CURE FOR CONSUMPTION.

We are all interested in an elaborate experiment now in progress at St. Luke's Hospital, New York, which has for its object the cure of consumption. Such are the ravages of this dread disease in the world, and particularly in our northern climate, that the outcome of these tests will be watched with the keenest possible interest. The system used is one devised by Francisque Crotte, a Frenchman who is not a physician, but who has devoted much time to the study of medicine and chemistry. Crotte's plan is to introduce antiseptic medicines into diseased tissue by means of static electricity, sponge electrodes being saturated with the medicine. The use of electricity in this matter is not new, but Mr. Crotte seems to have made advances in its practical application, particularly to consumption.

For several months this Crotte method has been the subject of official test at St. Luke's. Nine physicians have been appointed a committee to watch and test the results of the experiment. The board of health of the city of New York occupies the position of referee in the matter, for, to avoid the possibility of error, all the microscopic examinations that are necessary are made in duplicate, one at the hospital and one in the laboratories of the department of health. The cure is based on the discovery by Pasteur that consumption is due to the presence of a minute germ in the lungs, and the discovery by Mr. Crotte that formaldehyde gas, one of the most deadly germicides known, can be brought to bear directly on this bacillus. It cannot be breathed in the ordinary way.

It is explained by the Western Electrician that Professor Crotte, in his investigations into tuberculosis, became familiar with formaldehyde gas, but, unlike other investigators, he was not deterred by the difficulty of using it. Certain discoveries which had been made in the realm of electricity occurred to him. He knew that a large French manufacturing establishment was driving waterproof material into wood by means of electricity. It occurred to him that what electricity could accomplish in the case of vegetable fibre it could possibly do for the muscular fibre of the human body; and he tried the experiment. The result was success and the establishment of the Crotte method of treating consumption by means of formaldehyde gas.

Professor Crotte says his treatment will cure every case of consumption in the first stages of the disease, 75 per cent. in the second stage, and 30 per cent. in the third, or so-called "hopeless" stage. Professor Crotte has been conducting a clinic in Paris for the past five years, and it is a matter of record that he has cured countless in about the percentage mentioned. His discovery of a system by means of which formaldehyde gas can be actually forced into the lung cells by means of electricity is the result of many years of experiment.

In applying the treatment the patient is stripped to the waist, and, after being ing placed on a couch or operating-table, is carried near to the machine. Then a sponge filled with formaldehyde is attached to one pole of the electric machine and placed on the sufferer's body. In some cases another sponge, similarly charged with the gas, is held close to the mouth of the patient and connected with the battery, and the gas is inhaled in deep inspirations, while in some cases the second sponge is placed against the patient's chest.

Then the electric machine is started and the static electricity flows in a steady current through the sponges and into the body of the patient, carrying the formaldehyde with it and destroying all germs with which the gas comes in contact.

One of the experiments in connection with the treatment consists in an examination of the matter expectorated by the patient just before the current is applied. The germs are found by the thousand, alive and moving. Immediately after the operation another examination is made. Usually all the germs discovered are dead. Day after day this progress is repeated, the lungs gradually healing as the germs are killed and the searching gas goes deeper into the cells, searching out the cavities containing the bacilli. At length when no trace of germs can be found the patient is considered to be cured.
