

Happenings of The Week

The Queen, during her residence next month at Holyroodhouse, Edinburgh, will hold an installation service for the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle. This, the premier Order in Scotland, consists of the Sovereign, certain near relatives of the Sovereign, and 16 knights. At Windsor Castle, the Queen recently invested her husband with the insignia of a Knight of the Order.

on Wednesday morning for Kingston, Ont., to be present at the District No. 6 Kinsmen Convention being held there May 22-25. Following same they will visit at Mrs. Gaudet's home in London, Ont., for a week before returning to the City.

Square dancing and a lobster supper were enjoyed Wednesday evening by a group of twenty-two at the summer residence of Mr. and Mrs. Alex MacIsaac at Kerpoch.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Large entertained at luncheon at the Charlottetown Hotel on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Dix of Toronto were visitors to Charlottetown earlier in the week.

Mrs. George Ives is entertaining at afternoon tea today, when she will be assisted by Mrs. E. A. House and Mrs. A. J. Harman.

Mr. and Mrs. Newman McLellan are leaving tomorrow to spend the weekend in New Brunswick, visiting St. Andrews, Saint John and Fredericton. They will be accompanied as far as St. Andrews by their daughter Dorothy, who has accepted a position there for the summer.

Miss Lorraine McNeely of Halifax flew home last Saturday to attend her brother William's graduation from St. Dunstan's University.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Large and their daughter, Mrs. Allison Foster, are spending the weekend in Halifax.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Kennedy and family of Saint John were guests at the Charlottetown Hotel earlier in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Gallivan and children, Dana and Patricia of Halifax are visiting Mrs. Gallivan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. MacPhee.

Mrs. Lorne McLellan entertained at a bridge party last evening at her home on North River Road.

A party was given at the home of Mrs. B. P. MacLaine on Monday evening by the polo patients and staff of the Provincial Sanatorium in honour of Miss Kathleen Jackson, M.B.E., M.C.S.P. and Mrs. Dorothy Kellock, M.C.S.P., in recognition of the great work Miss Jackson has done for them. She was presented with a gold watch, and Mrs. Kellock was given a Kodak camera and case.

Regret was expressed that they who leave will return when their work in India is completed.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Smith are spending the holiday weekend in Halifax.

The annual St. Dunstan's Prom was held in the gymnasium at St. Dunstan's on Monday evening, and it proved to be one of the most enjoyable ever held. The graduates, in their caps and gowns, presented a charming picture as they moved in procession around the gym before the dance started. The chaperones were Mrs. Fred Coyle, Mrs. H. J. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Leonard McDonald, Mrs. Peter LeClair and Mrs. M. G. McNeely, and the Junior League of the Charlottetown Hospital provided the delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Van Maarlon are motoring to Halifax tomorrow morning to spend the weekend with

The Stars Say - - By Genevieve Kemble

For Tomorrow

A strange, involved and complex state of affairs seems to cloak all activities - business, personal, social and romantic - with a haze, unique and intriguing. The mentality, feelings, emotions and desires seem to be under an urge for expression beyond the regulation or conventional. Queer adventures could occur under such stress, with a glamour and tendency to expression outside the normal. The ideals and dreams may be romantic and guileless, not "staged" for effect or sensationalism. Despite queer incitements, the denouements may bring much elation and exaltation, perhaps renewed.

Those whose birthday it is assured of a year of the unpredictable and sensational, with all phases of living under peculiar urges to be original, spectacular, sophisticated, inscrutable. An aura of the intriguing and sensational dominates all the adventures and contacts of romantic living, albeit there is nothing of the sinister or debasing. Glitter and glamour may demand the glare of the spotlight. Workaday doings may react to the exceptional impetus.

A child born on this day may have an outstanding career, creative but singular, with strange adventures, a yen for the glamorous, novel and the spotlight.

Modern Etiquette By Roberta Lee

Q. Do you consider it good form for a man to refer to his wife as "the missus"?

A. This shows extreme lack of respect for his wife, and is ill-bred. To acquaintances, he should refer to his wife as "my wife" or as "Mrs. Blank." To good friends, he should call her by her Christian name.

Q. May an invitation be written on a visiting card?

A. Yes; a card is thus used for an invitation to a tea to meet a guest, an informal dance, or a bridge party.

Q. What kind of decoration should be used for the breakfast party table?

A. A bowl of fruit is customary, but flowers may be used.
