

Red Sox Defeat Yankees

Dodgers Lose Braves Win

Detroit Beats Cleveland

N.Y. Giants and Chicago Win

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
Boston Red Sox, aided by a strong breeze in their home Fenway Park, handed New York Yankees a 5-4 defeat Sunday. It was the first defeat for the World Champion Yankees in four starts of the young major league season. Gene Mauch raced home from second base in the eighth inning on "Sammy White's wind-tostled fly" to tie the score.

Other AL games: Baltimore pushed over two runs in the 10th inning to defeat Washington 11-9 in the first game of a double-header. Detroit Tigers beat Cleveland Indians in a thrill-packed 12-inning struggle, and Chicago White Sox defeated Kansas City 1-0 in a pitch-out duel that saw Sox Jim Wilson and Kansas Tom Morgan allow only three hits each.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
In the National Hank Sauer came in with his 251st homer when New York Giants beat Philadelphia 2-1. Pittsburgh tied a major league record with seven homers in the third inning when they defeated Brooklyn 6-3; Milwaukee Braves beat Cincinnati Reds 3-1, and Chicago Cubs beat St. Louis Cardinals 5-3.

Philadelphia at New York, Pittsburgh at Brooklyn and Chicago at St. Louis were double headers.

At Boston with two out, White skied a pop-up in front of the plate which Yankee catcher Yogi Berra stepped forward to grab. When Yogi saw the ball caught by the wind he quickened his pace as relief pitcher Bob Grim stood idle off the mound and first baseman Bill Skowron, who was playing back, watched.

The ball dropped between Grim and the first base line and Mauch, 31-year-old American League rookie who was off at White's swing, crossed the unguarded plate while Yankee manager Casey Stengel stormed up and down the dugout.

League sophomore Dave Sisler, Boston's promising young right-hander who turned in a seven-inning performance in the Yankees ninth inning up-ending to hold the Sox all night.

WILLIAMS GETS HOMER
Boston slugger Ted Williams hit his first homer of the season in the game, his 419th in the majors. At Washington it was a wild game. Thirty-nine players included George Zureick getting the victory and Dick Hyde the loss. Bob Boyd cracked a pinch triple and remained in the game to add a two-run homer and a double to pace the Orioles' 13-hit attack. Roy Sievers blasted his third home run of the season, a double and a single to spark the Senators' 12-hit barrage.

At Detroit Jack Dittmer blooped a pinch single over second base in his first batting appearance of the season. The ball was hit off Cal McLish and it dropped off the end of George Strickland's glove after the Indian second baseman made a lunging try for it. The hit scored pinch runner Jim Small from third base.

SACRIFICE FLY
At Chicago Szymon Lollar's sacrifice fly with the bases loaded in the 10th gave White Sox victory in their fourth straight. They now are in undisputed possession of first place in the American League.

Sauer singled in the ninth at New York after his 251st home run off Robin Roberts had given Giants their first run. Johnny Antonelli went all the way with a nine-inning.

Vern Law, Bob Purkey and Roy Face led Dodgers to two hits at Brooklyn. Pittsburgh would have shutout the Brooks but for Carl Furillo's three-run homer in the ninth. It was Dodgers' first defeat in four games.

Don Newcombe was routed in the third when Frank Thomas, Paul Smith and Dick Groat hit successive home runs, equalling a record that has been tied many times. It was Groat's first homer in two years.

At Milwaukee Del Crandall singled home two runs in the fourth and Warren Spahn settled down after a rocky start to give Braves their victory over Red Legs. The triumph gave Braves a sweep of the three-game series, four straight for the young season and undisputed possession of the NL lead.

At St. Louis Chicago fashioned its victory with consecutive two-out singles in the 11th by pinch hitter Bobby Del Greco and Casey Wise.

In second games: Chicago lost to St. Louis 3-5, Philadelphia defeated Giants 8-5, and Brooklyn ripped into Ronnie Kline and a long line of successors for 11 hits and a 7-4 victory over Pittsburgh.

The second Baltimore-Washington game had officials scratching their heads. Four of the stadium's eight light towers failed, forcing the game to conclude at the end of the fifth inning with Washington leading 2-1.

There were no rules to cover the situation and umpires left it to American League president Will Harridge to decide whether Washington won or to call it a suspended contest that must be resumed at a later date.

In the second game at Brooklyn Dodgers knocked out Kline in a five-run second inning. Don Zimmer, who hit a two-run homer in the fifth, later added another single and Junior Gilliam contributed two doubles and a single.

Sam Jones pitched a steady six-inning for Cardinals at St. Louis to defeat Chicago.

At New York Phillies scored four runs off rookie Curt Barrow, who relieved in the first inning without retiring a batter. Before the free-hitting game was over, manager Bill Rigney had used six Giant pitchers and Don Cardwell had replaced Jack Sanford, the winner, for the Phils.

Podres scattered six hits in leading Brooklyn to a 2-0 victory over Pittsburgh, the same score by which Johnny and his mates beat the Yankees in the deciding game of the 1955 world series. It was Podres' first start since the chunky 24-year-old lefty having spent last year in the U.S. Navy.

Shantz, celebrated sore-arm case obtained from Kansas City during the winter, was brilliant in his Yankee debut, allowing only two hits in five innings of relief as the world champions rallied to defeat Boston Red Sox 10-7 in 12 innings. Shantz picked up the victory, thanks to Hank Bauer's two-run homer in the 12th.

Detroit won its first of the new season, 7-0 over Cleveland, and Washington defeated Baltimore 6-4 in other American League games. Rain stopped Chicago Cubs and the Cardinals at St. Louis, limiting the remainder of the National League program to Philadelphia's 6-5 decision over the Giants at New York.

Duke Snider and Carl Furillo hit back-to-back home runs in the fourth inning off Bob Friend to give Podres all the batting support he needed.

The Yankees kept their record game despite the flop by Don (perc game) Larsen in his first appearance since his classic no-hitter against Brooklyn in the 1956 world series.

Larsen, still employing his windup, gave up five hits and four runs in the 1-1-1 innings he lasted.

Columbus Beats Rochester

Havana Defeats Toronto

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

An unheralded 22-year-old trail blazer named Charles (Whammy) Douglas cut his way through the Rochester batting order for the Columbus Jets' first International League victory of the season Sunday. But his pressing young teammates wandered right back into the wilderness of futility in the nightcap.

The right-handed Douglas, a 10-4 performer with Mexico City last year, gave up just four hits in taking the holiday opener at Columbus, Ohio, 5-1. Then Columbus' defense and pitching broke down in the seven-inning final as the Red Wings romped home, 2-2.

In other Sunday league games: Havana's Sugar Kings used a three-run homer in the first inning to beat Toronto 4-1, to gain a split. The Maple Leafs won the seven-inning opener at Havana, 2-1 on another homer by Stan Jok.

END TO STREAK
At Richmond, Va., Buffalo Bisons brought an emphatic end to Richmond's four-game winning streak, beating the Virginians 7-3 and 2-0 in both ends of a double-header for the regular season. And at Miami, John Anderson, Miami Marlins rookie pitcher, checked Montreal Royals with five hits as the Marlins won 3-2.

At Columbus the lone run in the ungalleyed Douglas, came in the fourth frame when Alie Clark, fourth baseman Tom Burgess who had singled.

The Jets scored their first run in the second inning on Howie Goss' lead off double and Ken Toohman's single past second base.

STAVED OFF WINNERS
Rookie 22-year-old right hander Ron Blackburn staved off the New Yorkers through nearly five innings of the second contest, but couldn't quite protect a two-run lead engineered by another Goss double in the third stanza.

At Havana doubles by Angel Scull and Manito Bernard, a walk, and Witty Quintana's second home run of the year gave the Sugar Kings the nightcap and Pancho Ramirez his first pitching victory.

Ramirez allowed seven of the Leafs' eight hits but needed help in the seventh inning from Orlando Pena, who kept Toronto batters under control the rest of the way.

In the opener, Jok's lowering smash and flawless relief pitching by Bob Tiefenauer gave the Phils 120 010 201 000-10 17 0

Second Game of Doubleheader Stopped in 5th
WASHINGTON (AP)—The second game of a doubleheader between Washington and Baltimore was called Sunday because of a power failure at the end of the fifth inning with Washington leading, 2-1.

Since the rules do not cover such an unprecedented situation the umpires left it to American League president Will Harridge to decide whether Washington won or to call it a suspended contest that must be resumed at a later date.

The ending game after Baltimore defeated Washington 11-9 in the first game with two runs in the tenth inning of a wild contest. The game lasted 3 hours 50 minutes, sending the second contest into darkness.

The umpires asked that the lights be turned on in the third inning of the second game, but when the power failed on four towers, the four operating towers were turned off and play continued in semi-darkness.

Efforts to repair the damage were fruitless and after a half-hour wait the game was called.

ST. LOUIS TRADES BOBBY DEL GRECO
ST. LOUIS (AP)—St. Louis Cardinals traded utility outfielder Bobby Del Greco plus an unnamed minor league southpaw pitcher to Chicago Cubs Saturday.

The Cardinals received Jimmy King, another utility outfielder, in exchange. Cub vice-president John Holland, who announced the deal, said no cash is involved.

Leafs their first victory of the season. At Richmond a dismayed audience of 6,138 saw the Bisons make a fast break in the opener by scoring four runs in the first three innings against Richmond starter Ed Cereghino and then capture the seven-inning nightcap on the two-hit pitching of Walt Craddock, a lefthander who struck out six and walked none.

Craddock did permit a Virginian past first base, and it took that good a pitching job to win for the Bisons. Buffalo collected three hits, all coming against lefthander Jim Kite in the first six innings. The undefeated Marlins' third in a row.

Anderson got off to a ragged start by walking leadoff batter Bob Dolan and granting a single to Lacy Curry. One run scored, but Anderson allowed no more hits for the next four innings and retired 15 of the 16 batters he faced.

YOUNGSTERS FOUND IN BARN
CHICOUTIMI, Que. (CP)—Four children, missing for 14 hours, were found asleep Saturday in a barn on the outskirts of nearby Port Alfred. They were cold and hungry, but unharmed. The children said they lost their way after wandering from home and decided to take refuge in the barn.

After retirement, Meld won £42,503 in stake money and is widely regarded as Britain's present filly of the generation. Lady Zia has turned down handsome offers for her pet thoroughbred, which now lives a life of leisure at the Someries stud in Newmarket.

Kelley Wins In Boston Marathon

By JOSEPH MACSWAIN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

BOSTON (CP)—The men who fight themselves have a new champion, John Kelley, a school teacher.

Kelley, paying no attention to an aching foot, won the Boston Marathon Saturday with a powerful stride that showed there is a big heart in his 132-pound frame. Kelley was second last year.

Marathoners—there were 140 in the race from several countries—were unanimous in saying that a runner's worst enemy in the race is himself. He must control his pace and not panic, disregarding the performances of other runners.

Kelley, 25, the first American winner since 1945, was all alone at the end—1,000 yards ahead of Finland's powerful Veikko Karvonen, who won the race in 1954, Canada's Gordon Dickson, 25, also a teacher, ran seventh, where he placed last year. The 120-pound native of Claresholm, Ont., now teaches at Hamilton, Ala.

OTHERS WELL BEHIND
Sidney Smith of Hamilton, a native of Manchester, England, finished 52nd while Roland Bouffard, Montreal, a veteran marathoner, finished 62nd. Paul Bellevue, Toronto, and Jean-Louis Guignard, Cap de la Madeleine, Que., dropped out.

Gerard Cole of St. Hyacinthe, Que., a four-time winner, won his fourth BAA in 1945 — the last North American winner before Kelley.

Korea's Ching Woo Lim was third Saturday and Finland's Olavi Mannion fourth. Soong Chih Ham of Korea was fifth, after holding third place over the tough hills toward the end of the race, and Japan's Keizo Yamada, the 1953 winner, was sixth.

Nine runners made up the leading "pack" that held a fantastic pace for the whole race. The runners did not jog, but appeared to be going all out nearly all the time.

Kelley's time was two hours, 30 minutes and five seconds. The record of two hours, 14 minutes and 14 seconds was established last year by Finland's Antti Viskari.

RECORD OFFICIAL
But Kelley's time still was a record officially, since after 60 runnings of the Boston classic it was recently found that the course was short of regulation length Saturday's race was 1.187 yards longer than previous contests.

The leaders took three minutes, 43 seconds to cover the extra distance, meaning that they were still short in the overall timing as compared with Viskari, who ran on a cooler day. Saturday's temperatures ranged over 70 degrees, and runners complained of the heat on the blistering pavement.

Oddly enough, the last American winner was also a John Kelley, who won the marathon twice and ran 13th Saturday at the age of 49. The latest winner is called Johnny the Younger, while the star of yesterday is called the Elder by New Englanders.

Grand Canyon Winner In Southern Cross Handicap
NEW YORK (CP)—Grand Canyon, owned by Toronto businessman Ken Kelman, got his first victory in 11 starts Saturday, but it was a good one—the $50,000 Southern Cross handicap at Gulfstream Park, Hallandale, Fla. Carrying only 107 pounds, Grand Canyon ran the 1 1/4 miles in 1:50 to win in a photo finish over Mighty Chief. Flying Chief was third in a field of 12.

Grand Canyon moved up to third going into the stretch, and battled the last few strides out neck and neck with Mighty Chief before easing in front under the wire.

The dark bay was claimed by Kelman for $9,000 from the Brookmeade stable as a three-year-old in 1956. He won four races out of 23 last year to earn $21,635.

He returned $14.30, $6.90 and $4.80.

BOLD RULER WINS
Wheatley Stable's Bold Ruler, ridden hard by Eddie Arcaro, lunged from behind on the final stride to win the $59,400 Wood Memorial at Jamaica track, New York, by a nose in track record time.

Allan Man, owned by Ralph Lowe of Texas, was second and Mrs. Ethel Jacobs' Promised Land third. Mister Jive, owned by John Applebaum of Toronto, was fourth.

Bold Ruler stepped the 1 1/4 miles in 1:48 4-5. The previous record of 1:49 1-5 was set Oct. 27, 1951, by Bryan G. A prohibitive 1-to-2 favorite, Bold Ruler returned $3, $2.60 and $2.30. He earned $40,800 and boosted his lifetime total to $322,675.

At San Mateo, Calif., Murray Canyon led from wire to wire to win the five-furlong, $60,000 Bay Meadows Futurity by a length over Beach City. Travel Book took third.

The win netted $29,275 for the victor's owners, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Goodman of Ely, Nev. Gough Thompson's Inswept came up in the last 50 yards to win the $24,450 Chesapeake Stakes at Laurel Track, Laurel, Md.

Inswept returned $12, $4.60 and $4 and collected $18,125 for his owners.

Good Gesture, owned by Blossom Stable of Chicago, opened the Chicago thoroughbred racing season by winning the $10,000 inaugural handicap at Sportsman's Park, Chicago.

Colonial Farms Hello Mom scored her third consecutive victory with a one-length triumph in the $10,000 Pawtucket handicap at Lincoln Downs, R.I. The winner's time for seven furlongs was 1:26 1-5. She paid $7.20.

Star Rover won the $10,000 added Ben Ali Handicap and equaled a track record at Keeneland, Lexington, Ky.

Vance Harris Wins Most Valuable Player Award

Vance Harris, centre man for the Summerisle Aces, Island Senior "B" Champions, won the John H. Grady Memorial Trophy for the most valuable player on the Aces Hockey Club during the 1956-57. The trophy was presented to Vance last night at CJRW Studio by Benny Grady, acting for the Grady family who made the donation.

Harris was also presented with two jackets from R. T. Holman, Ltd., by Joe Storey of the Men's Wear Department. One was for the M.V.P. Award and the other for the highest point getter in the regular league schedule. Vance last night at CJRW Studio by Benny Grady, acting for the Grady family who made the donation.

Albany St. Pats Defeated Spring Valley Saturday

The Albany St. Pats defeated the Spring Valley team 18-4 at Kensington Park Saturday night winning the C. C. Baker Trophy, which every year is played for by the winners of the North and South Shore Leagues. The series was to be a home and home, total goal affair, but the clubs decided to make Saturday's contest a sudden-game, and at the conclusion of the contest the Baker Trophy was presented to Albany by Mr. Claude Delaney, President of the South Shore League. Freetown Royals had won the cup the previous year.

The Junior Habs now meet Flin Flon Bombers in the Memorial Cup final starting in Flin Flon Wednesday.

Saturday's win, the Habs' third straight at home, gave them the best-of-seven series 4-1 with one game tied.

Michel Legace and Bill Carter sparked the winners' attack with two goals each. Singles went to championship before a wildly cheering crowd of more than 5,000.
