

Car Enthusiast Killed In Crash

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP)—Sir Sydney Oakes, a sports car enthusiast who was the son of Canadian gold millionaire Sir Harry Oakes, was killed Monday in an automobile accident.

Sir Sydney, 39, one of the moving forces behind the creation of Nassau's Speed Weeks, died behind the wheel of a Sunbeam Tiger he had hoped to drive in the next races.

The accident happened in downtown Nassau. A reporter for the Nassau Tribune said he passed Sir Sydney only a few minutes before the accident and he was driving slow. No one else was in the Oakes car.

Sir Harry, who made a fortune with a gold mine in Canada, was bludgeoned to death at his Nassau home in 1943. His son-in-law, Count Demarigny, was tried for the murder and acquitted.

Sir Harry had built numerous hospitals in Canada and Britain and was knighted baronet so the title would pass from generation to generation.

The title now passes to Christopher Oakes, 17, Sir Sydney's first son by his first wife, Grete, a native of Copenhagen.

Sir Sydney married a second time about six years ago. He owned the Bahamas' largest bottling company and also was involved in several real estate ventures.

The Nassau Speed Weeks is an annual collection of races for sports cars of all sizes. In recent years it has attracted top drivers from around the world. It is scheduled for Dec. 3-12 this year.

Six city men appeared on charges of being drunk and incapable. Two of the accused were fined $20 and costs or 20 days, one was fined $20 and costs or 10 days, and three were given 20 day suspended sentences.

Fines In City Court

Magistrate A.J. Haslam, QC, fined Wilfred D. Kennedy, city, $5 and costs or two days in city police court yesterday morning when he was charged with failing to stop at a stop sign.
