DEATH'S FERRYMAN.

BY MISS ALICE CARY.

Boatman, thrice I've call'd thee o'er,
Waiting on life's solemn shore,
Tracing, in the silver sand,
Letters till thy boat should land.

Drifting out alone with thee,
Towards the clime I cannot see,
Read to me the strange device
Given on thy wand of ice.

Push the curls of golden hue
From thy eyes of starlit dew,
And behold me where I stand,
Beckoning thy boat to land.

Where the river mist so pale,
Trembles like a bridal veil,
O'er yon lowly drooping tree,
One that loves me waits for me.

Hear, sweet Boatman, hear my call!
Last year, with the leaflet's fall,
Resting her pale hand in mine,
Crossed she in that boat of thine?

When the corn shall cease to grow,
And the rye-field's silver flow
At the reaper's feet is laid,
Crossing, spake the lovely maid.

Dearest love, another year,
Thou shalt meet this Boatman here—
The white fingers of despair
Playing with his golden hair.

From this silver sanded shore,
Beckon him to row thee o'er;
Where yon solemn shadows be,
I shall wait thee—come and see.

There! the white sails float and flow,
One in heaven and one below;
And I hear a low voice cry,
Ferryman of Death am I.

LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT.

Does it require a long time, days, weeks, months, and years to enable human beings to love one another? Does the human heart slowly and suspiciously lay up one kind thought after another, till the measure of its affection be full? May gentle words and kindly smiles pass from the lips and eyes, and yet the heart remain cold and untouched—and willingly lose sight of and forget the object of its transitory tenderness? It may be so with many, for the incidents of time teach different lessons, all equally necessary and wholesome perhaps, to different hearts; but before human nature has been sorely afflicted, tried or deceived, its temper open to kindness and joy, and attracted by the sympathies of a common nature, why may not those who are strangers to-day be better friends to-morrow? Nor does the deepest affliction always close up the fountains of love into the human soul. Like light streaming in upon a prisoner through the bars of his dungeon, is the smile of faces not yet dimmed by grief to the man of many miseries; and hugging his sorrows close to his soul, will often lay down that fearful burden to which he has long clung with infatuated despair, at this sight of youth, beauty, and innocence rejoicing before him in an untamed, fearless and triumphant bliss. There are often, too, sudden revelations of sympathy made between human beings by a word, a tone, a look, a smile; truth is then conveyed suddenly and easily into these spirits, and from that moment, they rest presuming on each other's affections and each other's worth, as if they had been mutually known for years. If there were not those strong and prevailing tendencies in our nature, the paths of human life would be barren indeed; or the friendships that spring up over them, would generally be sown by the hand of interest and self love. But nature follows other processes; and love and friendship at first sight, often springs up as necessarily as flowers expand from bud into blossoms in the course of a few sunny and dewy hours of one vernal morning.

DRUNK.—There is scarcely a word in the English language that seems to be so studiously avoided by every body, as the one at the head of this paragraph. We wish the thing were as uncommon as the word. The last synonym we have observed is 'tight,' a term which strikes us as rather inappropriate, since a 'tight' man in the cant use of the word is almost always a 'loose character.' We give a list of a few of the various words and phrases which have been in use, at one time or another, to signify some stage of inebriation:—Over the bay, half seas over, hot, high, corned, cut, cocked, half-cocked, shaved, disguised, jammed, damaged, sleepy, tired, discouraged, snuffy, whipped, how come ye so, breezy, smoked, top heavy, fuddled, groggy, tipsy, smashed, swipy, slewed, crank, salted down, how are ye, on the lee lurch, all sails set, three sheets in the wind, well under weigh, battered, blowing, booty, sawd, snubbed, screwed, soaked, comfortable, stimulated, jug-steamed, tangle-legged, fogmatic blue-eyed, a passenger in the Cape Ann stage, striped, faint, shot in the neck, bamboozled, weak-jointed, got a brick in his hat, got a turkey on his back.—Burlington Sentinel.

CUSTOM.—When railways were first established, every living being gazed a passing train with astonishment and fear; ploughmen held their breath, the loose horse galloped from it, and then, suddenly stopping turned round, stared at it, and at last snorted aloud. But the "nine days' wonder" soon came to an end. As the train now flies through our verdant fields, the cattle grazing on each side, do not even raise their heads to look at it; the timid sheep fears it no more than the wind; indeed, the hen partridge, running with her brood along the embankment of a deep cutting, does not now even crouch as it passes close by her. It is the same with mankind. On entering a railway station, we merely mutter to the clerk where we want to go, say "How much!" see him horizontally poke a card into a little machine that pinches it—receive our ticket—take our place—read our newspaper—on reaching our terminus drive away perfectly careless of all or any of the innumerable arrangements necessary for the astonishing luxury we have enjoyed.

FACT IN ORNITHOLOGY.—The quills of the feathers of birds are air vessels, which can be emptied and filled at pleasure. The gannet or soan goose, is a beautiful instance of this wonderful provision; it lives on fish, and passes the greatest portion of its time either in the air or on the water; even in the most tempestuous weather it may be seen floating like a cork on the wildest waves. It can even force air between its skin and body to such a degree, that it becomes as light and buoyant as a bladder.

A San Francisco paper announces that several gentlemen of that city have resolved to make the experiment of manufacturing porcelain out of the immense quantity of powdered quartz which is to be obtained in the mining districts. The labour of the Chinese, who are daily flocking to California, it is thought, can be advantageously employed in this business.

Misfortune is never mournful to the soul that accepts it; for such do always see that every cloud is an angel's face. Every man deems that he has precisely the trials and temptations which are the hardest of all others to bear; but they are so, simply because they are the very ones he most needs.—Mrs. Child.

"Doctor, do you think a thin shoe is bad for consumption?"
"Not at all, my love—it is what it lives on."

The largest bell known in the world is that of the Kremlin, at Moscow; its weight is estimated at 448,772 pounds. The largest in England is the Great Tom, of Oxford.

CURES FOR THE UNCURED!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF SCROFULA OR KING'S EVIL.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. J. H. Aliday, 209, High Street, Cheltenham, dated the 22d of January, 1850. To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—My eldest son, when about three years of age, was afflicted with a Glandular Swelling in the neck, which after a short time broke out into an Ulcer. An eminent medical man pronounced it a very bad case of Scrofula, and prescribed for a considerable time without effect. The disease then for four years went on gradually increasing in violence, when, besides the ulcer in the neck, another formed below the left knee, and a third under the eye, besides seven others on the left arm, with a tumor between the eyes which was expected to break. During the whole of the time my suffering boy had received the constant advice of the most celebrated medical gentlemen at Cheltenham, besides being for several months at the General Hospital, where one of the surgeons said that he would amputate the left arm, but that the blood was so impure, that if that limb were taken off it would be then even impossible to subdue the disease. In this desperate state I determined to give your Pills and Ointment a trial, and after two months' perseverance in their use, the tumor gradually began to disappear, and the discharge from all the ulcers perceptibly decreased, and at the expiration of eight months they were perfectly healed, and the boy thoroughly restored to the blessings of health, to the astonishment of a large circle of acquaintances, who could testify to the truth of this miraculous case. Three years have now elapsed without any recurrence of the malady, and the boy is now as healthy as heart can wish. Under these circumstances I consider that I should be truly ungrateful were I not to make you acquainted with this wonderful cure, effected by your medicines after every other means had failed.

(Signed) J. H. ALIDAY.

CURE OF ACUTE RHEUMATISM OF FOUR YEARS' STANDING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. John Pitt, Dudley, 19th Jan. 1850. To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—It is with the greatest pleasure that I write to thank you for the benefit I have received from your Pills and Ointment, which have completely cured me of the Rheumatism, under which I suffered for this last four years, at times I was so bad as hardly to be able to walk. I had tried every kind of medicine that was recommended without receiving any benefit. I at last thought I would give your medicines a trial and purchased from Mr. Hollin, Chemist of this Town two boxes of Pills and two of Ointment, and in three weeks through them and the blessing of God, I was restored to health and strength, and am now as well able to walk as ever I was in my life. I am well known in this parish, having been sixty-five years in it, with an exception of ten years I served in the 24th Regiment of Foot.

(Signed) JOHN PITT.

CURE OF A BAD LEG OF MORE THAN SIXTY YEARS' STANDING.

Mr. Barker, of No. 5, Graham's Place, Drypool, near Hull, had ulcers on his leg from the age of eighteen until upwards of eighty, and although for many years he had sought the first advice in the country, nothing was found to cure them. He very often suffered most excruciating pain for long periods together, which incapacitated him from attending to his business. He had given up all hopes of getting a cure when at last he was persuaded to try Holloway's Pills and Ointment, which he did, and however wonderful it may appear, the leg was thoroughly healed by their means, and by continuing to use the Pills alone after his leg was well, he has become in health so hale and hearty as now to be more active than most men of fifty.

N. B.—The truth of this extraordinary statement can be vouched for by Mr. J. C. Reinhardt, 22, Market Place, Hull. February 20th, 1850.

CURE OF A DESPERATE CASE OF RINGWORM, OF SIX YEARS' STANDING.

One of the most eminent Surgeons in Lima (the Capital of Peru) had a child covered with Ringworm for more than six years; in vain he exhausted all his art in his endeavours to effect a cure. Not succeeding, he consulted among his brethren, the most celebrated medical practitioners of the City, but nothing was found to do the child service. When he was persuaded by Mr. Joseph P. Hague, the English Chemist and Druggist, residing at 74, Calle de Palacio, to try Holloway's Pills and Ointment, which was done, and after using six large Pots of the Ointment, with a proportion of the Pills, the child was radically cured, to the surprise of the whole medical profession. The name of the parent, from motives of delicacy is withheld.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—

- Bad Legs Chicago-foot Fistulas Sore throats
Bad Breasts Chillsains Gout Skin diseases
Burns Chapped-hands Glandular Scoury
Bunions Corns (Soft) Swellings Sore heads
Bites of Mos- Cancers Lumbago Tumours
chetoes and Contracted Piles Ulcers
Sand-Flies Stiff joints Rheumatism Wounds
Cocoa-Bay Elephantiasis Scalds Yaws

Sold by the Proprietor at 244 Strand (near Temple Bar) London, and by GEO. T. HASZARD, Agent for P. E. Island, in Boxes and Pots, at 2s, 5s, 8s, and 20s each. There is a very considerable saving in taking the larger sizes.

DR. EVANS'S PAIN KILLER.

NO Medicine has been discovered that is so happily adapted to use internally as drops to be taken, or yet perform such wonders when applied externally as a wash, bath, or by friction.

USE IT IN THIS MANNER. For Common headache, simple bathing will answer. For sudden colds and hard coughs, [to cure immediately,] put one teaspoonful in four of molasses, and take three spoonfuls of the mixture as often as you cough. Bathe the neck, breast and sides with it to cure soreness of a cough.

Asthma, Phthisic and sore breasts—for speedy relief, 30 drops in molasses, and bathe freely with it clear, and keep on flannel wet in it.

For bowel complaint, cholera morbus, cholera and diarrhoea,—a teaspoonful in a gill of milk and molasses, well mixed; if the pain is severe, bathe the bowels with it, and in cholera repeat the dose every hour.

For Dyspepsia and sick stomach, 20 to 30 drops in sweetened water, morning, noon and night, till all symptoms yield, and you are restored to perfect health.

For all rheumatic complaints, lame neck, swelled face, sore throat and toothache, 60 drops as above, three times a day; bathe the parts well, rub with a warm cloth, and take a teaspoonful of mustard seed nightly, in milk or molasses, at bed time.

For burns, scalds, and all sores, pricks, stings or old sores, bathe well and often the parts afflicted.

For sudden colds or croup, 30 drops in Molasses, every hour, and bathe freely with it.

For canker, sore mouth and stomach, chicken pox, or measles, 30 drops, twice a day in sweet milk.

Wonderful cure performed by S. P. Townsend's Sarsaparilla!

To M. W. Skinner, Agent for S. P. Townsend's Sarsaparilla.

SIR: This is to certify that I was, for this last 12 months, troubled with Fits; and, from their very severe attacks, thought each one would terminate my existence; and, in addition to the Fits, I was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was extremely weak and nervous. I heard a great deal about S. P. Townsend's Sarsaparilla, for which you are Agent. I was advised to try it. And strange and wonderful to relate, before using the contents of one bottle, was greatly benefited. Indeed, so rapid and effectual was the cure, that it appeared to me to be almost miraculous. And I think that, in justice to the public and suffering humanity, I am bound to make the above statement, and say, that a greater blessing, in my opinion, than S. P. Townsend's Sarsaparilla never came to this Island.

PROFESSOR A. G. BARRY'S TRICOPHEROUS OR MEDICATED SYRUP—Truth loves an incredulous audience, for if they listen, they are sure to become converts. If there is any man or woman who challenges the statement that Barry's Tricopherous is a specific for cutaneous diseases and injuries, and the best preparation for the hair extant, all that is asked is that he or she will try one twenty-five cent bottle of the fluid, and read the pamphlet in which it is enclosed. Read and make the trial. Truth will then force conviction upon the mind, that all, and more than all, that has been claimed for the preparation by the inventor, is as palpable a fact as the existence of the sun, or changes of day and night. Referring the reader to the thing itself, and the accompanying treatise for a solution of all his doubts, if he entertains any, we will here briefly state what the Tricopherous will do. It will remove scurf and dandruff; it will restore, preserve and beautify the hair; it will prevent it from becoming harsh or gray; it will dispose the hair to curl and render it glossy; it will relieve inflammation, itching and all irritation of the skin; it will cure bites and stings of insects; it will take away the pain of cuts, burns, bruises and sprains; it will allay the pain of rheumatism and cure headache. For these reasons, it ought never to be absent from the dwelling of any family, and no one should travel without it. Sold in large bottles, price 25 cents, at the principal office, 137 Broadway, New York. For sale by the principal merchants and druggists throughout the United States and Canada. Beware of the counterfeit, sold at one dollar per bottle. For sale by W. R. WATSON, Agent for P. E. Island.

Blake's Metallic Fire Proof Paint, OR, ARTIFICIAL SLATE.

THIS admirable article has been tested for some years and proved to be very valuable, becoming a perfect slate, as hard as marble in a few months, completely protecting whatever is coated with it from the action of the weather and fire—a better fire-proof than tin or zinc. Several Insurance Companies certify they will insure buildings covered with it at a cheaper rate, than if covered with those metals. It is of two colors, the black is best for roofing—the chocolate the best thing ever discovered for sides of either brick or wood, forming a perfect stone coating of a handsome stone or chocolate color, can be easily changed by a little white lead or other coloring matter to suit the taste. There is nothing equal to it for steamboat and car decks, and all kinds of iron as it forms a coating nearly as hard as the iron itself, and never cleaves off.

BEWARE OF WORTHLESS COUNTERFEITS. As the popularity of my paint has induced scores of unprincipled individuals to grind up, and offer as fire-proof paint, all kinds of worthless stuff, much of it nothing but rotten stone that has no cohesive attraction, is held on only by the oil with which it is applied; consequently as soon as the action of the atmosphere destroys the oil, it will wash or rub off like Chalk or Whiting, nothing can yet be known of its lasting qualities, as it is but little over a year since they got them up, whereas mine has been tested about seven, and where first applied is now like a stone.

The original and genuine article can be obtained of PATRICK STEVENS, Orwell, my authorized Agent for the Island.
