Local and Other Items.

ECLIPSE.—Look out for the eclipse of the moon to-night.

SCOTT ACT.—Twelve new summonses were served yesterday. They are returnable on Friday.

NOMINATION DAY.—It was moved, seconded and carried unanimously that McEachen sells the cheapest Boots in the city.

SKATING.—The splendid skating on the river was taken advantage of by a large number of people last afternoon and evening.

POLICE COURT.—Ronald McDonald was the only penitent this forenoon. He was charged with drunkenness and fined $2 or 8 days.

CARNIVAL.—A Fancy Dress Carnival will be held at the Hillsborough Skating Rink, on Thursday evening, 7th February next. Adv't in a few days.

SUPREME COURT.—There is a strong probability that the case of Cole vs. Biggar, which has been on trial for several days past, will close this afternoon.

CURLIANA.—The curling match, "Episcopalians vs All-comers," did not come off last evening as at first intended, but will take place this afternoon.

HERRING.—There is a bountiful harvest of herring in the Bay of Fundy. All that is lacking is frost to freeze the catch. Fifty schooners are reported off Grand Manan, all doing a fine business.

MUSICAL.—Any person glancing over the programme of the first Y. M. C. A. Concert, which appears elsewhere in to-day's issue, will see that Mr. Earle intends giving none but first-class concerts during the winter.

AN EVEN SWAP.—A gypsey and a truckman traded horses on Queen street, Fredericton, on Wednesday. After exchanging harness, one horse was found to be a treacherous kicker, while the other was slower than time and unable to chew hay. This was fun for the spectators.

WATER FAMINE.—St. John and Portland experienced a three hour's water famine on Sunday morning, caused by the bursting of one of the three supply pipes beyond the marsh bridge. There was much annoyance and discomfort, as all householders were without water for that time.

MEETING.—A meeting of the shareholder of the Charlottetown Driving Park and Provincial Exhibition Association will be held in J. D. McLeod's Hall this (Wednesday) evening at eight o'clock. The directors report will be submitted and other business transacted. A full and prompt attendance is desired.

A NEW PICTOU INDUSTRY.—The Pictou News says: It is confidentially expected that the boot and shoe factory will be ready for operation by the first day of April next. Some one will go to Boston next week to purchase the necessary machinery and make other arrangements. Every one is confident that under efficient management the institution will prove an undoubted success.

BOY KILLED.—A small boy named Weyman, about four years old, while playing in the roadway of Lower Spring Park Road, near McLeod's grocery store, was run over and killed by a stray cow, this afternoon. It appears that the child saw the cow coming, and on trying to get out of its way, fell down and was trampled upon. Dr. Taylor was immediately summoned, but when he arrived the boy was dead—death having been instantaneous.

To the Electors of Ward 3.

GENTLEMEN,—The City Accounts for the past year are now before you, and on their merits I ask a continuance of the confidence reposed in me for the past six years.

Believing that the revenue should meet the expenditure in each year, I have endeavored, as Chairman of the Finance Committee, to carry that principle into effect, and I think I may claim that I have been fairly successful.

Should you again see fit to return me as your representative, I will use my influence to carry out the same policy in the future as in the past. Soliciting your support, I remain,

Yours respectfully,
SIMON W. CRABBE.
