Sproule - Colborne Wedding

The United Baptist Church Pugswash, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon, June 19th, at 3 o'clock when Isabel Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Colborne, Pugswash, became the bride of L.A.C. Bernard Hale Sproule, son of Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Sproule, York, P. E. I.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Sproule, assisted by Rev. H. K. Grimmer, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Amherst.

Baskets of summer flowers in yellow and white formed a setting for the ceremony and the guest were marked with nosegays of yellow roses with turquoise ribbon.

The wedding music was played by Miss Dulcie Cook, aunt of the groom, and during the signing of the register Miss Carole Gillis sang the solo "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown designed by "Norman Rae" of white nylon net and chantilly lace over taffeta and ermine. The nipped-in jacket with a pearly which covered a strapless gown buttoned in front with tiny self covered buttons. The sleeves were long tapering to points over the hands. The skirt with front panels of chantilly lace billowed out into fullness from beneath a sweetheart nipped-in bodice. The hand-rolled veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses and white baby mums with shower of rose petals.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Joan Smith, as bridesmaid who wore an ankle length gown of turquoise nylon net over taffeta with matching stole, head-dress and mitts, and carried a nosegay of yellow and white mums. The bride's sister, Miss Penny Colborne, as junior bridesmaid, wore an ankle length gown of yellow nylon net over taffeta with matching head-dress and mitts and carried a nosegay of mauve and white mums.

The groom was attended by Walter Murray, as best man.

The ushers were Glenn Colborne, brother of the bride, and L.A.C. Sheldon Huntley, RCAF, St. Margarets, N.B.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon dress of dusky rose and wore a corsage of pink roses and white mums.

The groom's mother wore a dress of lilac nylon lace with white accessories, and wore a corsage of yellow roses and white mums.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Guests from out of town attending the wedding were from Amherst, Springhill, Bass River, Upper Musquodoboit, Dartmouth, Halifax, Bridgewater, Nova Scotia; York, P.E.I.; St. Margarets and Harvey Station, New Brunswick.

Paid $3,000 For Dead Horse

FORT ERIE, Ont. (CP)—W. R. Wesley of Toronto paid $3,000 for a dead horse at the Fort Erie Jockey Club Tuesday.

Wesley had entered a claim for Tenn Tommy, a starter in the fourth race and had deposited his $3,000 with the stewards. Tenn Tommy broke his leg during the running of the race and was humanely destroyed by the track veterinarian.

Under the rules of racing, Wesley's $3,000 went to J. O. Proulx, the former owner of Tenn Tommy and all Wesley received for his money was the dead horse.

Geddie Memorial Service at Cavendish

On Sunday, July 11, the Cavendish pastoral charge will remember the organization of the Cavendish Church in 1809 and its first minister, Rev. John Geddie, who was inducted into the Cavendish-New London Charge in 1838.

John Geddie built a home at Cavendish, the remains of which are still to be seen where he remained until 1843. During his pastorate he became a figure of great interest to all Presbyterians throughout the Island as he strove to bring his Church to "a consciousness of its mission to spread abroad through all the earth, the honours of His name."

The Prince Edward Island Presbytery was much divided on the wisdom, at that time, of spending money to take the Gospel to the heathen. Geddie moved in and out among the various charges ever appealing for support for his great project. At last in 1843 he secured the passing of a resolution to the Synod at Pictou, urging the Church to become more missionary minded and to organize a Missionary Society.

On July 11, 1844, the Synod, after a very acrimonious debate, finally gave its approval and John Geddie was sent to carry the message of God's love to the South Seas. How well and faithfully he carried out this commission is testified to by his memorial at Anetim which bears the inscription "When John Geddie" came there were no Christians when he departed, there were no heathen."

The services on July 11 will be conducted by the Very Rev. C. M. Nicholson, ex-Moderator of the United Church and Principal of Pinehill Divinity Hall.

Oh Goody!... Mom's Making Jam Again!

Jams and Jellies

made with Certo turn out RIGHT

They're delicious... sparkling. Made in one-third the time. Cost less per glass.

WHY CERTO RECIPES ARE SO QUICK—SO EASY—SO FREE FROM GUESSWORK

WHAT CERTO IS—Certo is fruit pectin—the natural jelling substance in fruit—extracted and refined to help you make delicious tasting jams and jellies quicker and more easily.

ONE-MINUTE BOIL SAVES TIME, WORK—With Certo you can actually make a whole batch in 15 minutes from the time your fruit is ready. It turns jam and jelly making from a chore into a pleasant task.

Certo jams and jellies need only a ONE-MINUTE full, rolling boil. No long, tedious boiling and stirring over a hot stove. It's remarkably easy.

50% MORE JAM OR JELLY—Since there is no long "boiling down" with Certo, hardly any precious juice wastes away in steam. So you get up to 50% more yield from your fruit. That brings costs way down.

FRESH-FRUIT TASTE AND COLOR—And the boil is so short it does not spoil the fresh-fruit taste or dull the natural color. They stay right in your jam and jelly.

SURE RESULTS—NO GUESSWORK—Best of all—Certo ends guesswork! You get a separate kitchen-tested recipe for each kind of fruit. Follow the simple directions carefully and your success is sure.

A Product of General Foods
