S'side Doctor Is Awarded Fellowship

—Dr. J. K. Beer, M.D., of Summerside, has been awarded a fellowship in the American College of Surgeons, according to an announcement from the headquarters of the college. The American College of Surgeons was founded in 1913 to establish standards of competency and character for specialists in surgery.
Dr. Beer received his fellowship in absentia as he was unable to attend the five day annual meeting of this world's largest organization.
Dr. Beer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Beer of Montague. He graduated from Dalhousie University in 1941 and practiced in Kensington until 1949. He then went to Montreal for two years post-graduate work in general surgery at the Royal Victoria Hospital and Queen Mary Veterans' Hospital. Prior to this while in Kensington, he had taken post-graduate course in surgery at Cook County Hospital, Chicago. On completion of the course in Montreal he joined the staff of the Medical Centre in Montreal.
Dr. Beer is married to the former Gladys Armstrong, of Saint John, N. B., and they have three children.—S.

Paton-Dawson Wedding

—A profusion of autumn flowers and fernery were used to create the setting for the wedding in the Tryon Baptist Church of Margaret Irene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Dawson of North Tryon and John James Paton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Paton of Rollo Bay West at 2:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. Rev. W. G. Killam performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Lloyd Rogerson was organist and accompanied the soloist Mrs. George Robbice, as she sang "O Perfect Love", prior to the ceremony, and "I'll Walk Beside You", during the signing of the register.
Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a waltz-length gown of white nylon net over satin. Her strapless bodice was topped with a bolero of chantilly lace with Peter Pan collar and lily point sleeves. She wore silver sandals. Her three-quarter length veil was held in place by a tiara and she carried a nosegay of Better Time roses.
The bridesmaid, Miss Ruth Thompson, was gowned in midnight blue velvet bodice with net stole and a tiered net skirt in waltz-length with matching headress. She wore silver slippers and mitts, and carried a nosegay of Pink Delight roses.
The groom's mother was gowned in a two-piece dress of royal chiffon velvet with blue and white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.
Messrs. Prowse Chappell and Charles Thompson ushered the guests to their places which were marked with nosegays of white roses.

—Following the ceremony, a reception for fifty guests was held at Birch Hill Lodge where the bride's table with its attractive arrangement of autumn flowers and lighted tapers was centered with a three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.
For a short honeymoon in the Maritimes the bride changed to a suit of fawn gabardine with gold trim and brown accessories. She wore a white feather hat and her corsage was of pink roses. They will reside in Montreal where the groom is on the staff of the Bell Telephone Company. Previous to her marriage the bride was on the staff of the Island Telephone Company in Charlottetown.—S.

McNeill-Jenkins Wedding

—St. Paul's Church, Summerside, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday morning at 8 o'clock when Wilma Noreen, daughter of W. E. Jenkins and Mrs. Edna Jenkins and Edward Vincent McNeill, son of Mrs. D. F. McNeill and the late Mr. McNeill, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rt. Rev. G. J. MacLellan, V. G.

—Mrs. Irene Peters was in charge of the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Charles Cahill as she sang "Ave Maria" during the nuptial Mass. The church was appropriately decorated with autumn flowers.

—Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Lester Jenkins, the bride was attended by her sisters, Mrs. Russell Phaneuf, as matron of honor, and Miss Yvonne Jenkins as bridesmaid.

—The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Tanton McNeill. Messrs. Bennett Jenkins and John McNeill were ushers.

—The bride was lovely in a white nylon net over satin waltz-length gown, featuring a strapless bodice with chantilly lace bolero, having a Peter Pan collar and long sleeves with pointed cuffs. Her shoulder-length veil fell from a coronet with seed pearl trim and she carried a bouquet of Better Time roses.

—The matron of honor was gowned in a waltz-length coffee lace over taffeta with matching corsage and nosegay of Tallman roses. The bridesmaid was attired in a frock of lily nylon net over taffeta with matching headress and carried a nosegay of Pink Delight roses.

—Mrs. Jenkins chose for her daughter's wedding a suit of steel gray with mink neckpiece and coffee shade accessories. Her corsage was of pink delight roses. The groom's mother was attired in navy with matching accessories and corsage of Better Time roses.

—Following the ceremony a reception for fifty guests was held at Mulberry Lodge where the bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake, topped with a canopy under which stood a miniature bride and groom and on the steps, leading to them, was a red carpet. Lighted tapers and bouquets of asters adorned the table. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Francis McNeill and responded to by the groom.

—For a short honeymoon trip the bride donned a suit of brown gabardine with a trim of darker shade and pink and brown accessories.
