

In Memoriam

GRAHAM — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, William C. Graham, Gasperaux, who passed away July 23, 1954.

The dearest father the world could hold, A cherry smile and a heart of gold. To those who knew him all will know. How much we lost two years ago.

Sadly missed by wife and family.

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Hazard B. Gardiner, who passed away July 23, 1955.

When through our years of sorrow we see a curtain fall, And know a dearly loved one has gone beyond our call.

We must have faith and confidence in God and in his way. For he will raise the curtain. On a fairer scene some day.

Always remembered by wife, Daughters and sons.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Dan MacEwen and family Long Creek, wish to thank their friends and neighbours for the many expressions of sympathy tendered them during the illness and death of their husband and father; and also for the flowers and cards and other tokens of sympathy in their bereavement.

IN MEMORIAM

MARY ANNE SHREENAN On June 3rd, the soul of Mary Anne Shreenan went forth to meet its maker and stand in judgement at the Holy Throne.

Born in Maple Plains, eighty three years ago, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Shreenan. Mary Anne as she was familiarly known to young and old alike, was beloved by all who knew her.

Her entire life, up until the past twelve years were spent on the old Shreenan homestead in Maple Plains. Her earlier years were devoted to the loving care of her invalid parents; and on their death she continued to make a home for her brothers. She will always be remembered for her kindness to the sick and needy and for the hospitality and friendship she extended to all who had occasion to visit her home.

Ten years ago, being the last surviving member of the family, she sold her home and spent three years with relatives in U.S.A. The remaining years of her life were spent at the Sacred Heart Home, where she peacefully passed away, on the above mentioned date, fortified by the rites of the Holy Catholic Church, which she loved so well.

Her remains were forwarded from the Monaghan Funeral Home, Kinkora, to the residence of Daniel Shreenan, from where the funeral was held on June 21st to St. Malachias Church, Kinkora. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by her pastor, Rev. Harold Croken, who also performed the rites at the grave, in the adjoining cemetery where she was laid tenderly to rest in the family plot.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. at St. Malachias Church, Kinkora. Rev. Harold Croken, officiating. Burial in the family plot.

IN MEMORIAM

DANIEL MacEwen On Thursday the fourteenth of June, 1956, the residence of West River was saddened to learn of the passing of Daniel MacEwen at 67 years of age.

Mr. MacEwen the son of Duncan and Katherine MacEwen, was born at Long Creek, and lived all his life on the old homestead, where his forebears have resided for several generations. Although he suffered from a heart ailment for the past three years, yet his death came as a distinct shock to his family and friends.

A true friend and the best of neighbours, Mr. MacEwen will not be remembered for his many acts of kindness especially to those in sickness or sorrow.

There are left to mourn the loss of a loving husband and devoted father, his wife formerly Rose MacEwen, eight sons, and three daughters; Albert with the Experimental Farm, Charlottetown, Holis, Chemical Engineer with a Pulp and Paper Mill at Chandler, Quebec, Norman with the Addis-son Refrigeration Company in Toronto, Rely on the staff of Medical Arts Building, Halifax, Eric, Harvey, Neil, Lucy, Blair, Marie, and Heath, all at home. There are also two brothers and one sister, Herbert, Saskatchewan, Belle Mrs. Sellers, Seattle, and Anson Seattle.

On Saturday, June 16, a short service was held at the home followed by service at the New Dominion United Church in absence of his pastor the service was conducted by Rev. R.A. Patterson, assisted by Rev. Owen Cocherane of North River. The choir with Mrs. Hector Currie organist, sang as a request, The Old Rugged Cross.

The pall bearers were: George MacLean, Bruce MacLean, Donald MacEwen, Dan MacPhee, Colin MacEwen and Norman MacKenzie. Interment was in New Dominion Cemetery.

The floral tributes were as follows: The family CROSS, Hollis and Joan SPRAU, Mother Milbourne and Violet Kenneth, Mary, Sandy and Laura Mr. and Mrs. Percy Barry, Dartmouth Mr. and Mrs. Harold Horne Dr. and Mrs. Miller, Halifax Staff of Medical Arts Bldg., Halifax Employees of Addislon Ltd., Tor- Sadie and Preston Sentner

IN MEMORIAM MRS. JAMES FITZGERALD The death occurred at the Charlottetown Hospital on June fourth of Mrs. James Fitzgerald, Morell Rear in her seventy-seventh year, although in failing health for the past two years, her condition was never considered serious till about two months ago.

A woman of sterling qualities and true christian character, she will be well remembered, for her ever willing aid to all in need but most of all in her home will be her presence and smile of welcome be missed by those who loved her best.

During her last illness her family journeyed home to be near their beloved mother.

Being fortified with the last rites of the Holy Catholic Church she peacefully resigned herself to God, there to wait the great judgment day.

Born in Morell, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy. After fifty-four years of a happily married life, she appears to mourn the loss of a kind and loving wife and mother her husband, three sons and daughter John and Eugene in Montreal, P. Q. Frances, at home; Georgie, Mrs. Wm. Whitney, West Roxbury, Mass., also a brother Patrick, Morell, along with several grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Her funeral was very largely attended from her late residence to St. Lawrence Church, where Rev. Eric Robin celebrated requiem High Mass and who also officiated at the grave where she was tenderly laid to rest by six of her nephews, Edward John, Gerald Sharkey, Edward Shepherd, Alphonso Kelly and Eugene Sinnott.

CARD OF THANKS The family of the late Mrs. James Fitzgerald wishes to express their sincere thanks to Rev. Eric Robin and Rev. Reg. Phalen, the Sisters and Nurses of the Charlottetown Hospital, also Doctors H. A. MacMillan and L. H. Killoran. Friends and neighbors who sent Mass Cards, Flowers Cards and messages of Sympathy also those who helped them in any way during their recent sad bereavement.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Steel Magazine said Sunday the "heat will be on" to end the United States steel strike before the Democratic convention starts Aug. 6. "Otherwise the Democrats would have some good talking points about industry and labor suffering under a Republican administration," dominated by businessmen," said the metal-working weekly.

"If the steel industry is back at work on a strong basis by August time, the Republicans will be able to point with pride at a record of no interference by government in the internal affairs of management and
