ANOTHER life saved. About two years ago a prominent citizen of Chicago was told by his physicians that he must die. The Roman Catholic church of the Sacred Heart at Bathurst, N. B., was totally destroyed by fire on the morning of the 9th, between the hours of five and seven o'clock. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is the general opinion that it was caused by mice taking matches from the boxes and conveying them to the attic of the building; as it was in that part the fire was first discovered. Some moveables were with great difficulty saved, but the greater part of the church furniture was destroyed. A nice organ, valued at $200, was also burned, as it was impossible to get it out. The total loss is estimated at between $5,000 and $6,000. The building was partly insured.

THE BELFAST RIOTS.

Thirsting for Blood and Carnage.

A VIVID NARRATION!

BELFAST, Aug. 11. During the morning a few minor disturbances occurred. There was some spasmodic firing of revolvers on the streets—enough to make walking dangerous. An unoffending lamp-lighter was set upon and badly beaten and he is now in a critical condition. About 5 o'clock p. m. two men were shot by a gang of disorderly persons. One of the two was shot while in the Catholic cemetery attending the funeral of a previous victim. The other was fired on in Grosvenor Road. Both will probably die. Five thousand troops and 500 constables occupy the disturbed districts. The presence of the police only serves to increase the disorders. Protestants declare Catholics to be the aggressors, while the Catholics are equally certain that Protestants began the riots. Of one thing there can be no doubt—never did two mobs of different religious belief display a more bloodthirsty desire to kill or maim each other. During the fighting on Sunday and Monday, whenever powder ran short, viragoes were out in full force, armed with flat irons and other implements, with which they ground large blasting powder into a size suitable for small arms, while boys of tender age melted lead into slugs and bullets. While the rioters were firing, youths and women stood behind bushes, loading spare guns in order to prevent loss of time. The fusillade lasted until yesterday morning, when the ammunition gave out and a truce ensued, both sides removing their dead and wounded to their homes. Both sides are doing their utmost to hide the extent of their losses. A very bitter feeling exists on both sides against the police, who are regarded as a common enemy. The city is now tranquil and there are no indications at present of a renewal of the rioting. It is believed and hoped that the worst is over. The magistrates are dealing severely with those rioters who have been tried to-day. Throughout the day and evening, sudden crowds were gathered on the streets, evidently desiring to renew the rioting, but fear of the troops preventing any outbreak. The Queen's island men rejected the magistrate's appeal to return to their homes in small bodies instead of in a compact crowd. They carried a good supply of missiles for use in the event of their being attacked. A band of youths and girls continued to indulge in acts of rowdiness. Notice has been served on all the wholesale spirit and beer dealers warning them that a penalty of £100 will be enforced against all persons selling drink for consumption in the vicinity of their premises. While the funeral of one of the victims of the riots was being held to-day, several shots were fired from a crowd of onlookers. Constables rushed in to the crowd and arrested ten of the supposed culprits. Two other funerals which were held were conducted in an orderly manner.

Indicted for Misdemeanor.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11. Rollin M. Squire, Commissioner of Public Works, and his associate, ex-Alderman Maurice B. Flynn, against whom charges had been preferred before Mayor Grace, by the late Hubert O. Thompson (a former Commissioner of Public Works), on the grounds that previous to his (Squire's) acceptance of office Mr. Squire had delivered to Mr. Flynn an agreement by which he contracted to run the Department of Public Works as Mr. Flynn might direct and promising to make no removals nor appointments without Flynn's sanction and approval, have been indicted for misdemeanor.

A few days ago when a Michigan banker closed his doors against depositors, a woman who had $800 on deposit took a revolver and sallied up to his house. The banker wasn't at home, but his wife was. She had on a pair of $800 diamonds, and a $200 gold watch, and a couple of bracelets worth $100 apiece. "Shed" observed the woman with the revolver. "What?" "I want that jewelry as security for my money, and I'm in a hurry." She got it, but she had not held it for twenty-four hours before it was quietly redeemed, and she was asked to keep mum.

The Fredericton, N. B. Gleaner says that Mr. C. H. Lugin in correspondence with a leading Boston publishing house with the view to the production of an illustrated book upon the maritime provinces. There is a reasonable prospect that terms will be agreed upon and the Boston house will spare no expense in getting out a work which will be a credit to all concerned. Such a book would, no doubt, stimulate the growing interest in these provinces, now manifest all over the eastern states.
