Flyers Host Shearwater

Today at 8:30 p.m. the Flyers will host the Shearwater team in their first game of the season. The Flyers are picking up the game first and make some surprisingly good plays considering their inexperience. Willis Gallant is the star. Pronounced, is hard to stop once he sees a little daylight ahead, and he scored three touchdowns on Wednesday.

John Polner the Frontenac quarterback also showed some fine break-field running, and his passes were fairly accurate. Two quick-line drives flipped to Gerry Hopkir looking particularly sharp.

Start Grid Season

The Summerside High School boys have started their football season. They won their first game, and although they don't remind you of the NFL players as yet, nevertheless they are picking up the game fast and make some surprisingly good plays considering their inexperience. Willis Gallant is the star. Pronounced, is hard to stop once he sees a little daylight ahead, and he scored three touchdowns on Wednesday.

Song Honors MacKenzie's

We've made a song in honor of MacKenzie's football. If someone would just put some music to it. Here it goes. We've won a lot of football in our days, We've had our share of thrilling moments too. We can't forget those fine ex-citizens, Sir, Sir, That MacKenzie led by Jack Fox used to do. Think of those 'Gills' pick up at short.

Things—his loss over to Mont. Think—his a Jenkins ball. Things—that belong now to the past. Things—like a catch by Coke, Things—Marti's mighty poke. Think of those fine ex-citizens who did. Things—after reading the thing over we're inclined to agree with you. But it did fill our one space in a dull season.

Tonight Klee Card Goes To Night at CPD

Another fine harness racing program is scheduled for tonight at Charlottetown Driving Park. The nine-card card that is loaded to the hilt with action and patrons certainly should have a rugged time of it picking the winners.

and mutual pays should get into double figures for those holding tickets on the first horse. The show opens with a single dash and is followed by four 'fives'. However, the chances are good that the horse favorite here again falls as most likely to collect sizable wagers. The feature attraction will be a six-outting harness race, the good trotter. The first, finishing it in six times two, will be the pace set by the Sires' Magic Royal Day. Arthur Hanover, Red Look and Tony come to call the finish.

Duck Quota Seen Likely

Many hunters will likely get their quota of ducks when the season opens Monday, predicts Louis Cantelo, president of the Southern Kings fish and game association. "Observing that the trout season which ends tomorrow was produced some good fishing, the ones that were big ones came out of the Canadian causeway and it is glad that it has been closed to hunters. It is being intended that this body of water should be a bird sanctuary when it was built. This is a dream of the Southern Kings fish and game association, when they first recommended that the way. More stream improvement is definitely necessary," he added.

Native partridge appear plentiful but huns and pheasants are scarce. Mr. Cantelo observes, and they will be using the same predators are killed off," he added. The Raven and the fox are the worst and the pressure on the fish and game is becoming greater. Cubs Nip Hapless Mets; Tigers Top Athletics 7-3

By THE CANADIAN PRESS
Cubs will hit two-run double in the sixth inning to lift Chicago Cubs to a 2-1 conquest of New York Mets Friday before 595 persons — smallest crowd in franchise since 398 showed up Sept. 17, 1959.

The Cubs sent starter Galen Cisco to his first National League loss when George Altman stroked a leadoff single, and Dick McAuliffe was walked intentionally with two out, and Will Douglas to right, scoring both runners.

Winning pitcher Paul Tait's sixth grounder scored Altman with the Cubs' first run in the second. The Mets matched this with two singles and Frank Thomas' sacrifice fly in the sixth.

New York's second run sprouted from Felix Mantilla's eighth inning single with the bases loaded.

THE KNOCKOUT

Fransoise, the team's chief power runner, will play today despite an ankle injury which sidelined him in the team's 5-0-3 trouncing of Shearwater Flyers last Saturday in an Atlantic Conference game.

He says he won't decide until 15 minutes before the game whether he will use Doug, a trouncing of Shearwater Flyers last Saturday in an Atlantic Conference game.

WEIGHT WAS FACTOR

Loney said the heavier McGill line was the deciding factor in last year's game, enabling the Redmen's two fullbacks, Bob Milligan and Alan Montell, to pile up yardage.
