SANDERSON & CO

GROCER.

PERSONAL.

Mr. A. C. Macdonald, M. P., is in the city.

Mr. Walter Simpson, of Bay View, was in the city today.

Mr. L. M. Poole went to Summerside this morning.

Mr. Geo. A. Sharp is expected home from Sydney tonight.

Captain Brown, of the Stanley, came up from Georgetown this forenoon.

Captain Malcolm Macdonald returned to Georgetown last evening.

Dr. Houston, of New Glasgow, registered at the Queen Hotel last evening.

Mr Neil McLeod, barrister-at-law Summerside, came to the city this forenoon.

Mr. W. F. Tidmarsh was a passenger to Georgetown by the mail special last evening.

Judge McLeod, of Summerside, is in the city. He is the guest of the Hon. B. and Mrs. Rogers, Fairholm.

Mr J. Gordon McKay, who has been in the city for a day or two, returned to Bradalbane today.

Mr. A. J. McInnis, of Murray River, is in the city. He goes west this afternoon to see his brother who is ill.

Mr. W. A. Carlyle, late Government mineralogist of British Columbia has accepted the managership of the Rio Tinto Mines, Spain. His salary will be $25,000.

The deaths in Ottawa for the last six months exceeded the births by 66. They totalled 63. The total number of births was 579. During the same period 270 couples were married.

Mr. W. D. Ross, who has for some time past been manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia at New Glasgow, arrived in Charlottetown yesterday to take the place of Mr. H. A. Richardson, who has been transferred to the management of an agency in Ontario.

George MacEachern, of Mount Stewart, Prince Edward Island, has arrived in Cripple Creek to take charge of the local office of the Colorado Springs Gazette. Mr MacEachern is a newspaper man of rare ability and will make a valuable addition to the force of the Gazette.—Cripple Creek Star.

The mail special last evening had a number of young people returning to college after spending the holidays with parents and relatives in this province. Among the number were Miss Hortense Phillips, Miss Annie Higgs, Miss Winnie Weeks and Mr. D. Ross, going to Sackville; Mr. Robert Nicholson en route to Wolfville; Miss Adele McLeod and Miss Ruby Darrach returning to Acadia College.

Mr. A. Lord, of the Department of Marine, was at Georgetown last evening. In conversation with Captain Finlayson he ascertained that the failure of the Minto to come into Charlottetown was due to the heavy snowstorm encountered off Point Prim and a large quantity of rafted ice met with through which Captain Finlayson did not consider it safe or prudent to force the steamer.

A Pugwash despatch says:—"Rev. J. W. Cox, B. A., rector of Pugwash, who has been appointed Church of England chaplain for the second contingent, was born in South Africa in 1873, and after some years in England came to this country about thirteen years ago. He is a graduate of King's College, Windsor, was ordained in 1897, and appointed assistant curate of St. Peter's cathedral, Charlottetown, remaining there until July 1899, when he became rector of Pugwash and Wallace. He volunteered for the first contingent and again when the second contingent was mooted, being lucky enough to receive the honor of the appointment this time. He is a good horseman and will be at home with the mounted men.

THE Board of Trade meets tonight.

THE MINTO goes to Georgetown this afternoon.

SEWING CIRCLE.—The Ladies of St. James' church sewing circle will resume work on Thursday, January the 11th, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

YOUNG MEN'S DEVELOPMENT SOCIETY.—Last evening the first debate of the society was held, The subject, "Is man the creature of circumstance or the architect of his own fortune?" was spoken on by most of those present. When the vote was taken a large majority agreed that man is the architect of his own fortune.

RED CROSS SOCIETY.—There was much good work done yesterday at the meeting of the Ladies Aid to the Red Cross Society, and today they are endeavoring to eclipse yesterday's record. Since THE EXAMINER'S last report the following contributions in money and goods have been received: Mrs F S Moore, $5; Mrs Parker Carvell, $1; Mrs Henry Anderson, $1; Miss Mercy Coles, $1; Mrs J R Warren; $1; Mrs A McLean, $1; Mrs T G Taylor, 50 cents; Mrs Clements, 25 cents; Mrs Maher, 25c; J D McLeod & Co, half doz bottles beef extract; Mr W F Tidmarsh, 9 tins fluid beef, 25 yds rubber plaster, 2 elastic bandages; Mr T J Harris, 15 yds grey cotton; Mrs W W Sullivan, 20 yds flannelette; Miss Carrie Rogers, 6 cans condensed milk, 10 lbs white castile soap; John McLeod & Co, 8 doz buttons, Mrs Brent Longworth, 1 pair wool blankets; Mrs Chas J Clarke, 1 flannelette shirt; Mrs Edward Robertson and daughter, 6 hot water bottles; Miss Rosa Desbrisay, 9 yards flannlette; Mr A B McKenzie; 5 yards flannelette; Mrs. Joseph Pope, 7 bottles of Bovril, 2 cans fluid beef, 4 cans concentrated lemonade; Mrs. John McEachern, 6 cans of concentrated lemonade, 1 dozen bottles of lemonade tablets.

Local and Other Items.

I. O. O. F.—Port La Joie Encampment will meet tonight.

O. Y. B.—There will be a meeting in Mechanic's Hall at 7.30 tonight. Important business.

DON'T forget the date, January 18th, the O. Y. B. concert and basket social at Milton. Plenty of things to make you laugh.

MAJORITY INCREASED.—As a result of the official recount, the Scott Act majority in Westmorland county, N. B., has been increased to 235.

LOTS OF SNOW.—Snowdrifts ten feet deep were reported in some parts of New York state last week. The train service was materially affected. In some cases trains could not move out at all.

FUNERAL TODAY.—The funeral of the late Malcolm McLeod was held this afternoon. It was attended by the legal fraternity and a large number of citizens. The pall bearers were. Mr. Justice Hodgson, Capt. Tooker, R. N. H. J. Cundall, W. E. Dawson, C. C Gardiner and Hon. u Benjamin Rogers. Rev. Mr. Fraser and Rev. D. B. Macleod officiated.

EXCHANGE OF PULPITS.—The pastors of the city will not exchange pulpits at both services on Sunday next, as on preceding years, but in the evening only The First Methodist and Zion will exchange; the Baptist and St. James; the Central Christian and Grace church. Rev. J. J. Teasdale will preach in Zion church, Rev. D. B. McLeod in First Methodist. Rev. Mr. McConnell in Central Christian. Rev. R. F. Whiston in Grace; Rev. J. K Fraser in Baptist; and Rev. G. P. Raymond in St. James. R. WHISTON, Sec'r.

BOSTON COMEDY COMPANY.—The Boston Comedy Company gave their opening performance in the Opera House last evening presenting the patriotic play, "British Born," to a splendid audience. The play was well put on and greatly enjoyed by everyone. Miss Grey and Mr. Webber, sustained the parts of "Mary Hope" and "Fred Faggles" with their usual ability, Mr. Webber's local hits and singing "bringing down the house." The character of "George Seymour," the hero, was cleverly played by Mr. Bennette, and Mr. Bedell, as "Laban Brood," the villain, was at his best. Mr. Chase was also good as "Don Andre de Calderone," the military governor of Bolivia. The hearty welcome given Miss Grey and Mr. Webber when they made their appearance on the stage last evening shows that they are still exceedingly popular with Charlottetown theatre-goers. Tonight "The Little Detective" will be presented, and a large audience is expected.

SONS OF ENGLAND—Last evening the following officers of Lodge Prince Edward were installed: W P, W H F Gill; J P, W R Boreham; Chap, Walter Tanton, Secy, R H Duchemin; Treas, H Gates; 1st, Com. Frank Duchemin; 2nd, Com. W B Prowse; 3rd, Com. Ernest Rice; 4th, Com. J Puncher; I G, Ed McKie; O G, A Sabine; P P, F Newsome; Trustees, D Fraser, L G Whear; Auditors, A W Mitchell, F Hutcheson, A S Johnson. The officers reports for the year were presented to the Lodge. Prince Edward is only eleven months old, but its roll of membership has already almost doubled, which speaks well for the untiring efforts of its charter members. A point that reflects great credit on the membership is the fact that at the end of the year not one member was indebted to the Lodge. In the eleven months nearly two hundred dollars were paid out to sick members in doctors bills, medicine and cash benefits. A large Union Jack has been offered by representatives of both of the city Lodges of the Sons of England to be awarded to the Lodge securing the largest number of new members before the annual celebration on the 24th of May. A silver medal will be awarded to the individual member who secures the largest number of applications. With these two prizes in view the membership of the Sons of England in Charlottetown will probably be largely increased when the annual celebration comes round.

Confidence in Your Druggist

Is a more desirable qualification on the part of intending purchasers than reliance on their own limited knowledge of the relative values and qualities of drugs. In dispensing prescriptions we put in the best drugs, and use our best brains, and as Joseph Pulitzer said—"Angels can do no more."
