

40 Growers Advised On Cole Crop Methods

MONTAGUE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN Approximately 40 growers were present to ask questions on the growing of peas and other cole crops for Langley Fruit Packers Ltd., Montague Friday evening at the Montague Elementary School.

RECEIVES SCHOLARSHIP CHEQUE

Chosen as a 1963 recipient of a Canada Packers Scholarship Miss Sandra Kennedy, Cross Roads, accepts a cheque for $300 from L.W. MacLeod, manager, Canada Packers Limited, Charlottetown. This award is presented annually by the

LOCAL BRIEFS

DIES IN TRURO Mrs. Donald MacKinnon, 74, Burhanan, received the sad news from Miss Helen MacMillan, Canada, N.S., of the death on Sunday, Oct. 6, of Mrs. A.M. Thomson, Truro, N.S. (see Florence MacMillan page 3).

SIX MONTHS JAIL TERM GIVEN FOR POSSESSION

Convicted of the possession of stolen goods, valued over $50, the property of the Island Telephone Company, Lloyd MacLean, Charlottetown, was sentenced to six months in Queens County Jail by Magistrate J.J. Haslam, QC, in city police court Saturday.

AT WINSFLOW

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald MacKinnon, Winsflow, had as their guests Sunday, October 13, Miss Birt and Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Fall and son Barry from Kentville, also Mrs. Bruce Younger of Charlottetown and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sherron a N.S. couple.

BIS DRAW WINNERS

The following are the winners in the BIS Shamrocks softball team draw made recently: 1st prize, first prize, gun, Will Linn McCarron, P.O. Box 34, Charlottetown; 2nd prize, football team: Colin J. MacMillan, Allan Connolly, Lawrence F. R. Hill, Frederick Ripley, Michael McPhee and John Rodgers.

CARD PARTY HELD

Following are the results of the St. Pius X card party last night: first prize, Mrs. Mary McInnis; second, Mrs. James Hughes; consolation, Mrs. Joseph McInnis. The winners of the consolation were: second, Clem Wynne; consolation, Parker Whitlock; Mrs. Allan MacKinnon; Mrs. C. Cooper; door prize, Peter Doyle.

ELLIS FUNERAL

The funeral for Mary Beth infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ellis, was held yesterday afternoon from the Charlottetown Funeral Home to the Roman Catholic cemetery where service was conducted by Rev. Father Landrigan. The flower bearers were all members of the St. Dunstan's varsity football team: Colin J. MacMillan, Allan Connolly, Lawrence F. R. Hill, Frederick Ripley, Michael McPhee and John Rodgers.

MACMILLAN FUNERAL

The funeral for Mrs. William L. MacMillan was held Sunday afternoon, Oct. 13, from the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur MacMillan, in Wood Islands, to the St. John's Presbyterian Church, where Rev. Donald Nicholson conducted the service. Honorary bearers were Wally Taylor, Laughlin MacMillan, Malcolm Bell, Eric Stewart, Russel Stewart and Ralph Young. Flower bearers were Stanley MacMillan, William Connors, Alan Courton, Lemuel G. Ginn, Alan Singleton, Daniel Ewa, Alex Wood, Lloyd Morrison, Douglas Ellis, Raymond MacMillan, Frank MacMillan. Interment was in Wood Islands cemetery.

McKENNA FUNERAL

The funeral for Miss Lillian McKenna was held Sunday afternoon, Oct. 13, a private service was held at her late residence, followed by funeral service at North Trpton Presbyterian Church. Services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. George Kilien. Hymns sung were "The Lord's My Shepherd" and "What a Friend We Have in Jesus". A solo, "The Old Rugged Cross" was rendered by the Vernon Rogers. Pallbearers were Gerry Cousins, Ronald Macdonald, Mervyn Wood, McKenna, Gordon Matheson and Douglas Harkness. Flower bearers were Billy Matheson, Fernam Thomson, Wendell Howatt, George Curtis, Garth McKenna, Gordon George, Russell Quinlan, Alister Wood, Brian Macdonald, Eriend Cousins, Gordon Matheson, Edson Martin, Robert Inman, Jack Thomson, Hillis Cairns, Fred Dawson and Harold Warren. Interment was in the church cemetery.

GILL FUNERAL

The funeral for Mrs. John T. Gill, 81,

CATHOLIC COLLEGE STUDENTS ENTERTAINED

Some 25 members of the Canadian Federation of Catholic College Students who held a conference at St. Dunstan's University over the past weekend, were guests Saturday night of the provincial council of the Catholic Women's League at a banquet held at the Basilica Recreation Centre. Here some of the guests are seen being greeted by Mrs. Fred Macmillan (centre), second vice-president of the provincial CWL, who convened the dinner with the assistance of several members of the St. Dunstan's Basilica parish council. Left to right in the

FIRES HANDY FOR FIREMEN

Business has been brought right to the door of the Charlottetown fire department over the past few days as the only calls they received were from next door to the fire station. On Saturday about 11:30 p.m. the furnace in Men's Restaurant flooded causing a great deal of smoke, then last evening around 6:30 some garbage in the lot behind the fire station caught fire. Both blazes were minor and were extinguished without difficulty.

Elderly Georgetown Resident Dies

GEORGETOWN - Regional Batchelder, 80, well-known citizen of this community, died yesterday in the Charlottetown Hospital which he had entered two weeks ago.

FROM WHITE SANDS

Mr. George Martin, N.S. Perth, returned home by plane last week from Boston, where he was a patient at the Peter Brigham Hospital. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Harry Waters of Boston.

RETURNS FROM TRIP

Mrs. Lulu Colby, Charlottetown, accompanied by Mrs. A. Macdonald, returned from a commercial cruise with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Colby, who returned recently from a two months visit to the U.S., where she was guest of her sister, Mrs. Elsie Dubon, Brattleboro, Mass., and of her brother, Lloyd Nicholson, in Wakefield, Mass. She also spent some time with friends in New York City.

McCARRON FUNERAL

The funeral for Peter D. McCarron of Montague was held at St. Mary's Church, Montague, on Monday, Oct. 14, when Rev. High Mass was celebrated by the pastor, Rev. J.W. McCarride. Pallbearers were: Oliver Roche, Jack Amner, Raymond Gormley, Alden Baker, Thomas Murphy, Hymns sung by the choir, were "My Faith Looks Up To Thee", "Able With Me", and "In The Sweet By and By". The soloist was John Beyer, Brooklyn. The organist, Mrs. Austin Ross, Pallbearers were: Simon Ross, William Fraser, Edward Mahar, James Creed, Cecil Hesso, William Lewellyn, Flower bearers were Leroy White, Sterling Love, Alvin Hastings, Harry Lawrence, Robert Crane, Bruce Kemp, John Fraser, Douglas Sorrie, William Church, Bruce Sorrie, Calvin Kemp, and Hicken. Interment was in the Lower Montague cemetery.

MAGNEN FUNERAL

The funeral for Mrs. Theresa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Magnen, Elliotville, was held Monday morning from the home of her parents, to St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River, where the service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Urban Gillis. Mass of the Angels was celebrated by Rev. Clifford Murphy, who also officiated at the grave. Rev. Urban Gillis officiated a great number of times at the graves of her four uncles, Francis Magnen, Maurice Donnelly, Michael Donnelly, and Francis Donnelly. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Factory Outlet Lucky Draw

Number 10720 For the Week of Sept 30 to Oct 5 100.00 dollars must be picked up before end, Oct. 15 3 p.m.

Fiddling And Step-Dancing Contest Is Held At Mr. Ryan

Thirty-two contestants took part in the old-time fiddling and dancing contest held recently in Mr. Ryan Hall. The judges were: Daniel Birt, Miss Elizabeth Peaslee, Charlottetown and John J. Grimpe, Waterville. The accompaniment was furnished by the band of Emericus, Vernon Driscoll. During the intermission the audience was entertained by Amy Gaubier, Charlottetown on the accordion, a duet by the MacLeods, and Mrs. M. Corriegan, 300 St. Charles O'Brien and step-dancing by Mrs. Mary Kelly, Charles Walker, Leo Walker, M. J. Robb and George Bambrick. The prize winners were as follows: Violin: 1. Earl Hughes; 2.

Farmer Offers No Comment

In regard to the City of Charlottetown's threat to institute court action against the provincial government "if remedial action is not taken immediately" regarding the jailing of prisoners sentenced from city police court, Attorney-General M. Alban Farmer stated he had no comment Saturday.

ART'S TAXI

LUCKY NUMBER THIS WEEK 50268 DIAL 4-5586

CAPITOL THEATRE

"Where The Movies Are Better Than Ever" Opposite Confederation Buildings GREGORY PECK - THE MAN OF EVERY GIRL'S DREAMS with AUDREY HEPBURN... THE SCREEN'S MOST ADORABLE NEW STAR... ROMAN HOLIDAY SHOWS 3:30 - 7:00 and 9:00 STARTING WED. SHOWS 3:30 - 7:00 and 9:00 in the singing-acting role of her life!

STUART MILLS - LAWRENCE TURMAN

JUDY GARLAND DIRK BOGARDE "I COULD GO ON SINGING"

STUART MILLS - LAWRENCE TURMAN

JUDY GARLAND DIRK BOGARDE "I COULD GO ON SINGING"

Tobacco Grower Loses Home To Flames At Glen William

MONTAGUE BUREAU OF THE GUARDIAN Fire completely destroyed the home of Miss Beatrix of Glen William Friday night. Mr. Behren was in his tobacco field when he noticed smoke coming from the roof of his home near the chimney. Mrs. Behren and family were not in the home at the time.

Son Of Former Resident Killed

MONTAGUE - The death of a young man who was killed in a car accident in Russell Brown in his 21st year. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Brown of Montague. Mrs. Brown was the former Ellen Emma of Glenfield, P.E.I. He is survived by his parents and one sister Linda. Funeral services will take place Wednesday morning in Montague.

FUNERAL NOTICE

All members of the Presbytery of Prince Edward Island, The United Church of Canada, are requested to attend the funeral of the late W. Bentley Creed at Highfield United Church, on Wednesday, October 16th, at 1:30 o'clock. The Presbytery is establishing a Living Memorial through the Missionary and Maintenance Fund in memory of Mr. Creed. Rev. D. Elton Adams Rev. Bryer R. Jones Chairman Secretary

CREDIT UNION DAY PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the credit union movement is now in its second century of service, and WHEREAS, the credit union members throughout the world will celebrate International Credit Union Day on Thursday, October 17, 1963, and WHEREAS, credit unions provide an invaluable means whereby people may pool their savings, and assist themselves to fill their needs for credit at a low cost, and WHEREAS, credit unions have proved an effective and versatile tool for combating usury, unfair credit practices, and encouraging thrift, and WHEREAS, these credit unions not only promote the economic security of their members, but also strengthens democracy, encourage individual responsibility and the practice of true brotherhood and thus benefit our entire community, and WHEREAS, the province of Prince Edward Island now has 55 credit unions whose combined membership totals 10,000 representing a significant proportion of the citizens of Prince Edward Island, I DO HEREBY PROCLAIM Thursday, October 17, 1963 as CREDIT UNION DAY to be observed in Prince Edward Island and urge our people to give fitting recognition at this time to the many benefits brought to them through credit unions. AND ON THIS OCCASION, I extend to the leaders and members of the credit unions of Prince Edward Island my greetings, congratulations and sincere wishes for continued success in serving their fellowmen. Given under my hand and the seal of the Province of Prince Edward Island. J. DAVID STEWART, Acting Premier.

The Royal Children

The final article of a two-part series dealing with the upbringing of the royal children appears this week in your Weekend Magazine. Writer Mary Nunn tells how the Queen and Prince Philip have quietly engineered many changes which have secured them the right to exercise the closest possible influence on the lives of their children.

THE PATRIOT With WEEKEND

STILL 10¢ ONLY on Sale Saturday