

S'ide Man Escapes When Fire Breaks Out In Bedroom

Summerside firemen, in a 4 a. m. alarm, were called to the home of Sydney Birch, at 533 Sheen Street, yesterday morning. Firemen worked for almost an hour to locate and remove burning bedding and mattress from the second storey bedroom of Mr. Birch who said he fell asleep while smoking.

He said he escaped from the room with great difficulty when he awakened to find himself almost overcome by the thick smoke pouring from the burning mattress.

It is understood that Mr. Birch was alone in the home when the fire originated.
