

PLANTS FROM THE FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

National Hockey League

The National Hockey League gets its first taste of week-end action for the 1963-64 campaign in the next couple of nights.

New York Rangers invade Montreal Forum for a game with the Canadiens and folks are rightly excited about this one. Jacques Plante will be better than ever, the Rangers and the Habs, Donnie Marshall and Phil Goyette, always Canadians until this season will climb on the boards tonight wearing the uniform of the New York Rangers.

It will indeed be interesting to see the Montreal fans react to this situation. Plante, especially, has had rough times from the fans while he performed with the Habs. You can imagine how they'll try to "get his goat" tonight. With Marshall and Goyette, it should be different. They were never controversial figures but Plante was always in the limelight.

Since joining the Rangers, Plante's management. He has even lashed out at some of the Montreal players. He definitely has stirred up the New York fans and the Forum will glow at the seams each time they perform.

Over at Maple Leaf Gardens tonight, Boston Bruins will be the guests of the Stanley Cup champions, the Toronto Canadiens to a 4-4 tie in their opener this week. So Canucks and Rangers, Bruins and Leafs will all be looking for their first victory. Rangers lost their opener 4-1 to Chicago and Leafs didn't get into action before tonight.

Sunday Toronto visits Chicago where they should find the fans loudest and loudest by past performance. This time we would think the Bruins will have more than that to handle.

So we start on our weekend selections. We like Rangers over Montreal, Toronto over Boston, Chicago over Toronto and Detroit to beat Boston.

On Football Scene

ON the Canadian Football scene, Ottawa Rough Riders and Hamilton were tied to have an easy weekend ahead of them. These teams are led by the Big Four leadership and it's likely they'll still be in the lead on Sunday morning.

The Rough Riders entertain the lowly Edmonton Eskimos Saturday and tie to do the hosting to the Eskis on Monday. It would indeed be a major upset if either Ottawa or Hamilton suffered a setback in these games.

Toronto Argonauts, all but eliminated from the race, invade Montreal Sunday and looking by past performance, Alouettes should trounce them Sunday.

In WRIF action, Regina Rams, put out the welcome mat for Saskatchewan Rough Riders and Lions will undoubtedly increase their first place margin. Monday Winnipeg Bombardiers and Edmonton Eskimos will have a close game. Sunday will surely throw Bud Brown's boys for a loss.

It will not be long before they're into playoffs, and then comes the great contest of the year, a game between the Eskis and Vancouver this year on Saturday, November 30.

On The Local Scene

Here in Charlottetown today St. Dunstan's host the University of New Brunswick in an Atlantic Football Conference game. Also this afternoon, the St. John's Red Bombers will be in action. The game will be held at the Charlottetown stadium. The game will be held at the Charlottetown stadium. The game will be held at the Charlottetown stadium.

Harlem Stars Coming

THE United Commercial Travellers are sponsoring two exhibition games featuring The Harlem Stars this Wednesday at Queen Charlotte gym. These travelling hoop stars will play a team composed of local players under Jack Ross. Expected to line up with the low line up will be the Harlem stars, Dennis Taylor, Ron Atkinson, Roy McGonnell, Dave Hyndman, Don MacLeod, Wendell MacLean, Wayne Macdonald and Red Hourat.

Games will be played in the afternoon and evening. We'll have more data on the Harlem Stars before the contest.

SPORT OF KINGS

It's The Season Of The Year When Sports Get Mixed

Once again we're at that time of the year when sports are getting mixed. Football, basketball, hockey are all played at the same time. For instance, basketball action takes place while football is still in full swing. Soccer is also in full swing. The season is a mix of sports. The season is a mix of sports. The season is a mix of sports.

Usually, at this time of year, in this area, sports reach a new low. It's usually too early for football, basketball or bowling, leaving the scene blank. However, with the start of football, we now have a new sport to witness. Just how it will go over with the fans is, of course, unknown. Most of the fans know little about the game, except what they've picked up from watching TV.

SHOULD COME
Naturally, the game here can't begin to compare. It won't even compare to what's available in Charlottetown. But, if it could come only two years, it would be a good experience. The game is a mix of sports. The season is a mix of sports. The season is a mix of sports.

Red Bombers Pay Visit To Local Saints Today

ST. DUNSTAN'S Varsity, visiting in two starts in the 1963 Atlantic Football Conference season, tries again this afternoon when they host the University of New Brunswick Red Bombers. The Bombers left their only start this year, a 30-0 decision to Mount Allison University. Here are three Saints who will see action this afternoon. Left to Right they are Jim Garrity, tackle, Mike MacPhee, fullback, and Vince Mulligan, halfback. Play commences at 1:30.

Widelines in their first two starts in Atlantic Football Conference this season, Ed Hillon's Saint Dunstan's squad is hoping to break the jinx this afternoon when they entertain the University of New Brunswick Red Bombers at SDU field commencing at 1:30.

The Saints played well in the opener against Shearwater. It was their first game of the season and limited training camp, losing 12-1 at Halifax, and their second contest, last Saturday afternoon, was one day coach Hillon and his boys a victory over the St. FX and Stadacona by single-point margins, and the powerful SMU team, one of the strongest in the AFC, humbled the Red and White to the tune of 66-0.

On defense, the line will have Jim Davis at middle guard; Mike MacPhee and Colin MacMillan at tackle; and Jim Garrity and possibly Allan Connolly on the ends. Mike MacPhee and Colin MacMillan will draw the inside linebacking assignments, with Jim Garrity and Wes McAleer on the corners. Vince Mulligan, Dave O'Brien and Walt Boote will be the deep men.

LOCAL FLAVOR
This year's SDU team once again has a strong local flavor, with no fewer than 10 local players holding down positions on the 25-man squad. The island representatives include Vince Mulligan, Charlottetown, defensive half; Dave O'Brien, Park-

OUT OF ACTION
The Red and White will be missing quarterback John Driscoll for the UNB game. He suffered a bruised hip in the game against St. Mary's, and Fred battles when this half dozen speedsters collide in races four and eight.

That meeting of Evelyn's Argonaut, Anthony L. Lucky V, Garrin's Best, Zither and Dennis Hiestert could easily steal the show from the main event. These horses do their bits in races three and seven and once again the fans can be certain they'll see top notch entertainment. Make certain you take in this final card of the summer schedule.

At Summerside Monday evening another top notch program is lined up. Here eight more sizzling dashes are ready for the customers and another great night's harness racing action is assured.

All events look like crowd-poppers and the popular race show should have one of its finest crowds of the entire season. Action here starts at 8 o'clock.

Boxing Head Pins Clay
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Casius Clay was rapped on the knuckles Friday for refusing to meet Toronto to heavyweight George Chuvalo after signing a document of intent.

Clay also was told he must keep active in the ring if he is to retain his rating as the No. 1 challenger for Sonny Liston's heavyweight title.

The warning came from Arch Hindman, executive secretary of the World Boxing Association, who attended a hearing called by Kentucky Boxing Commission.

Evans acted after Louisville promoter Bill King complained that Clay had declined to fight Chuvalo in a 10-round televised fight here Nov. 8.

Plante And Worsley Get Hockey Scene Spotlight

By PAUL RIMSTEAD
Canadian Press Staff Writer
Two men will meet dramatically tonight, both intent on winning a case for their new employers. They are goalkeepers. The courtroom will be the spacious Montreal Forum and the jury a sellout crowd of the National Hockey League fans. Jacques Plante makes his 10th Montreal Canadiens last 10 years, will lead his New York Rangers against Gump Worsley and the Canadiens.

To the last man, the fans will be Plante's first appearance in Montreal as a Ranger and Gump's home debut as a Canadian.

LEAFS PLAY BRUINS
In a second opener, Toronto Maple Leafs will play host to Boston Bruins, who have one game under their belts. Toronto Minister Pearson will be guest of honor at the Boston-Toronto game.

Mr. Pearson will present Dave Keon, chosen as the most valuable Leaf in the 1962-63 season with the J.P. Bickell Memorial Trophy and a solid gold miniature, and will make honorariums to start the contest. The Stanley Cup champion Leafs travel to Chicago Sunday night to face the Black Hawks. Detroit Red Wings meet the Bruins at home.

Plante made his debut in a plunger sweater Wednesday night when New York dropped a 4-1 decision to Chicago. Despite the loss, the man in the mask performed brilliantly as he booted out 40 shots. Plante, always a confident and controversial figure at Montreal, has been called in some quarters the greatest goaltender in the league.

But, Canadian coach Tommy Gorman, although he gives Plante credit for his ability, says Jacques just couldn't play last season, possibly nerves. He said the unpredictable goaltender was bolstered by something last season, possibly nerves.

WORSLEY OVERWORKED
Worsley, the rotund combe who has been overworked because of a weak Ranger defence for the last 10 years, also has his credentials.

Both men speak their minds but Plante has been doing most of the talking since the trade. If Montreal fans have been listening, he won't be a popular figure in the forum.

Plante says the Canadiens haven't a chance to make the playoffs. But the Rangers, with Plante in goal, have an excellent chance, says Jacques.

It will be some time before anyone knows who did best in the trade. Other things will have to be weighed. Such as the other men involved in the deal.
