FAMILY WEEK SERVICES HELD

*Special services for Family Week were held on Sunday, May 8th at St. David's Church, Georgetown, both afternoon and evening.

A service in honour of mothers was held in the afternoon with the first appearance of the year of the Junior Choir, with Mrs. E. Easton as accompanist. Daffodils, chrysanthemums, and beautiful potted plants decorated the communion table and organ; placed there in memory of mothers of members of the congregation. The service was led by Miss Janie Llewellyn, superintendent of the Sunday School. Special hymns were sung by the Junior choir, including, "We thank Thee, O our Father" sung by five little girls. Scripture readings were given by the boys. Rev. W. Paterson gave an appropriate address, closing with the Benediction.

In the evening, Rev. Paterson's address again concerned family life, and the service was led by the Men's Choir, with the director, Mr. Henry Yorston, at the organ.
