Chatterer's Good Guess

By Thornton W. Burgess
It often happens that success results from nothing but a guess. —Chatterer, the Red Squirrel.
Long ago Chatterer found out how true that saying is. Guessing is not very satisfactory...

'Caw! caw! caw! What are you doing over here?' cried Blacky the Crow.
'You're a good guesser!' replied Blacky. 'They are nesting in this neighborhood.'

Island Students Graduate From U. of Wisconsin

MADISON, Wis., Robert V. Clark, North Wiltshire, P.E.I. was awarded the degree of Doctor of Philosophy and Allison B. Stevenson, Route 2, Hunter River, P.E.I., Canada, was awarded the Master of Science (entomology) degree at the University of Wisconsin's annual commencement late Friday afternoon, June 15, at the University.

More than 2,300 students filed across the platform to receive diplomas. Bachelor degrees were awarded to 1,700 students, while some 600 men and women received higher degrees. Over 500 of the graduates are war veterans, and over 600 are married. Nearly 75 per cent of them come from Wisconsin homes, while the other 25 per cent come from 43 other states, the District of Columbia, and from 24 foreign lands scattered throughout the world. The 1956 commencement brought to over 111,000 the number of degrees granted by Wisconsin's State University during its 107-year history.

Pass 2♥ Pass 4♥

Obviously the spade, because if the heart of club finesse is tried and it loses, back comes a diamond, and we'll be faced with a losing diamond. So we play a spade to the queen, and when it holds, another to the jack, which East wins. A diamond is returned. We win it, and on dummy's king of spades discard the losing diamond. The first hurdle is cleared. What next? The heart finesse or the club finesse? We can't afford the heart finesse because, if it loses, another trump could be returned, and we might end with losing two club tricks for down one. Therefore the club finesse has to come first. We try it and lose it. A spade is returned and ruffed by us. Then the ace of clubs, and another club which is trumped in dummy. Finally, but at a point when the hand is under control, the heart finesse is taken and lost. Result—four hearts bid and made.

19 British Soldiers Perish In Cyprus Fire, Count Shows
By RICHARD K. O'MALLEY
NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Nineteen British soldiers of a 2,000-man force trying to capture the rebel chief Digenis—whom they identify as a former Greek army colonel named George Grivas—and he is one of 11 men they still hope to net on the sun-baked Troodos ridges.
