

Detroit Tigers Back On Top Rung Of American League Ladder

(By The Canadian Press)
Detroit Tigers Wednesday climbed right back to share the top rung in the American League as they beat the third-place Boston Red Sox 6-3 behind the nine-hit pitching of Teddy Gray.

The victory put the Tigers on even terms with New York Yankees, who defeated St. Louis 11-9.

Big Walt Dropo, Boston's sensational rookie first-baseman, slammed two home runs to drive in all three Boston runs.

Dropo collected homer No. 7 in the fourth and added No. 8 in the ninth after Vern Stephens had walked. Stephens and Ted Williams, each of whom bagged a pair of homers yesterday in the opener of the three-game series, got only one single between them today, that going to Stephens.

All six Detroit runs came across as the results of extra-base hits. Most potent of these was Dick Kryhoski's inside-the-park homer in the fourth on one on.

Singles by Billy Martin and Phil Rizzuto climaxed a three-run ninth-inning rally that gave New York Yankees a 11-9 victory over St. Louis Browns.

Lefty Ed Lopat snuffed out a ninth-inning Brown threat, stranding three runners. Sherm Lollar drove in five runs for St. Louis on a grand-slam homer and single.

Washington Senators needed only three scattered singles to blank Chicago White Sox 2-0.

Ray Scarborough pitched his second shutout by checking the White Sox on six hits.

Bob Kuzava was the victim of Washington's light-hitting winning attack. The lanky lefty pitched seven innings on a yield of three hits before he was replaced by a pinch-hitter. Ken Holcombe pitched the final two innings.

Philadelphia Athletics put on a three-run rally in the ninth to beat Cleveland Indians 7-5. Outfielder Paul Lehner's double off Joe Gordon's glove scored the two runs that proved the A's winners.

U. S. Entries Lose In British Women's Golf Tourney

NEWCASTLE, Northern Ireland, May 17 (AP)—The last American to beat today in the British women's golf championship, leaving the champion of France and a former British links queen to fight it out in tomorrow's 36-hole final.

Dorothy Kieley, 29-year-old Los Angeles flying instructor, succumbed in her quarter-final match this morning to the vicomtesse de Saint-Sever, of France, 1 up.

Three other American girls were eliminated in earlier rounds.

The vicomtesse went on to defeat Judith Percy of Australia 2 and 1 in her semi-final match in the afternoon.

Her opponent in tomorrow's final over the 5,500-yard Newcastle County Down links will be Mrs. Gerge Valentine, the former Jessie Anderson, who put out the tournament's "giant killer," Elizabeth Price, 5 and 3, in the semi-finals.

THE GUARDIAN, CHARLOTTETOWN MAY 18, 1950

We were certainly sorry to learn that John "Whacky" MacEachern had to be taken to the hospital on Tuesday, suffering from a fractured pelvic bone as the result of an accident while carrying out his duties at Tommy Davies Service Station on Great George Street, where he is employed as an attendant. He was apparently working at the front of a car in the station when another car struck it from behind, driving it ahead and pinning him against the wall.

Known by everybody as "Whacky", he was in days gone by, probably one of the best little athletes that this Province has produced in a good number of years. He took part in practically every line of sport being played then, and excelled in hockey, baseball and track and field. Since his retirement from an active role in sport, he has never lost the interest of keen competitive play and is a "dyed in the wool" fan for anything connected with sport.

Although his "hey day" in sport was a little before this writer's time, all you have to do is ask any sportsman of that era if you want to hear of his accomplishments. Although small of stature, "Whacky" was a package of dynamite with a heart as big as his body, and was a power to contend with whether it was on the football field, baseball diamond, or on track.

In his present job as a service station attendant, he has carried his energy and friendliness into it with him with a full zest for whatever he is doing, and if you want a job well done and fast, with a friendly greeting to boot, just go to Whacky.

It is a tough break for a great little guy, but there is one consolation however, and that is that he is resting comfortably in the P. E. I. Hospital, and although he will be there for some six weeks or so, everything points towards a satisfactory recovery. Mr. Davies, his employer, was out to see him in hospital and informed us last night that Whacky was as cheerful about it as could be expected under the circumstances. Typical of his genial character, he remarked to Mr. Davies "It is good that it had to happen now instead of in the fall, when we aren't so busy."

You can't keep a man down with an attitude like that, and this columnist would like to join with his many friends at this time in extending our sympathies to Whacky in his misfortune and wish him the best of luck for a complete and speedy recovery.

It was announced by officials last night, that an additional section of bleachers will be erected today at Memorial Field at Victoria Park. These bleachers will fill a much felt need, as they will allow approximately 250 fans to sit behind the screen, almost directly behind home plate, where they can get the full benefit of the pitching and batting performance. The new bleachers will bring the total seating accommodation to approximately eleven hundred.

This is only a part of the program, however to put the Memorial Field and the Old Diamond in tip-top shape for the coming baseball season. Within the next few days it is hoped that workmen will have the opportunity of giving both diamonds a thorough going over in preparation for what appears to be a very busy season of activities ahead.

Other work at Memorial Field will include the re-roofing and painting of the dugouts, painting of the new bleachers, fixing and repairs to the canteen, dragging, rolling and other fixing up of the diamond itself, the latter operation also to be carried out at the Old Diamond as well.

Major League Clubs Make Hasty Shifts On Player Deadline

NEW YORK, May 17 (AP)—Three-way shuffle involving Pittsburgh, Brooklyn and New York Giants today featured hasty maneuvering by major-league baseball clubs to get down to the 25-player limit before the midnight deadline.

The giants bought third-baseman Johnny Jorgensen from the Dodgers for an undisclosed sum of cash and sold veteran catcher Ray Mueller to the Pirates. The Giants announced that Mueller went to Pittsburgh for more than the $10,000 waiver price.

To make room for the catcher, the Pirates sent pitcher John McCall to their Indianapolis farm club in the American Association on a 24-hour recall basis.

The deals brought all three national League Clubs within the prescribed limit.

The Giants' excess man—outfielder Mike McCormack—is not in uniform while the club is awaiting word on waivers that have been asked on him.

St. Louis Cardinals got down to size by shipping outfielder Johnny Blatnik to their Houston team in the Texas League. The 29-year-old fly-chaser was sent out on 24-hour recall.

The Cardinals had to dispose of Blatnik because they bought Johnny Lindell from New York Yankees. Pitcher Ted Wilks and first-baseman Nippy Jones are on the disabled list.

Chicago Cubs reduced their roster to 25 by sending catcher Carl Sawatski to Nashville in the southern association.

Cincinnati Reds optioned south-paw pitcher Kent Peterson to Syracuse of the International League. Peterson had lost two games and wor none for the club this year.

In the American League, the Cleveland front office had trouble making up its mind but finally went up sending infielder Johnny Berardino and first-baseman Herb Conyers to San Diego of the Pacific Coast League on 24-hour recall.

At first the Indians announced that pitcher Sam Zoldak was being optioned. But under decided they'd better not deplete their pitching staff. So the southpaw stays and Berardino goes instead.

The Browns got under by giving veteran third-baseman Frank Gustine his unconditional release. The 30-year-old Gustine a former Pittsburgher, played with the Cubs and Los Angeles Angels last season.

Detroit Tigers sold first-baseman Paul Campbell to their Toledo affiliate in the American Association. No price was announced. They also received first-baseman George Vico from Toledo and dealt him out immediately to Seattle.

Boston, Washington, Philadelphia, New York and Chicago in the American League had beaten the deadline with a day or so to spare.

Boston Braves and Philadelphia Phillies in the national also beat the gun well in advance.

English Cricketers Smashed Record

CAMBRIDGE, England, May 17 (Reuters)—Jack Dewes, England's left handed batsman, and David Sheppard, 21-year-old former Sussex player, today smashed the record for the highest stand for any wicket against the tourists.

At close-of-play on the opening day the university had made 507 for three.

Trouncing the tolling West Indian Bowlers on a feather-bed wicket, Dewes and Sheppard eclipsed the 311 made for the Hampshire sixth wicket partnership against West Indies in 1928 by John Newman and Lionel Tennyson.

The tourists had to wait 4 hours 40 minutes before they scored their first success when Goddard had Dewes caught by Weekes. The left-hander had made 183.

Sheppard went on to bring his score to 227.

NEW YORK, May 17 (AP)—New York Giants announced today they had purchased third-baseman Johnny Jorgensen from Brooklyn Dodgers for an undisclosed sum of cash.

Cdn. Amateur Hockey Officials Don't Like Olympic Proposals

(By JACK SULLIVAN (Canadian Press Staff Writer))
TORONTO, May 17 (CP)—The International Ice Hockey Federation and the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association thumbed its nose in the direction of the International Olympic Committee today.

It didn't take hockey officials long to give the I.O.C. an answer.

At Edmonton, Dr. George Hardy, president of the I.I.H.F., retorted "there will be no negotiations" under these terms. From Boston, Walter Brown, vice-president of the Amateur Hockey Association of the U.S., said he would go by Dr. Hardy's decision.

George Dudley of Midland, Ont., secretary-manager of the C.A.H.A. and North American secretary of the I.I.H.F., was more outspoken:

"I said in 1948 the I.O.C. was dictatorial, domineering and undemocratic and this latest affront doesn't change my mind," he said in a telephone interview from his home.

"We certainly will not repudiate Dr. Kraatz. If he isn't included in negotiations, then we just won't meet the I.O.C."

Olympic Committee Conclude Discussions

COPENHAGEN, May 17 (AP)—The International Olympic committee today ended a three-day meeting devoted more to discussion than decision.

These are the major concrete developments:

- Exact dates for the 1952 winter and summer games were agreed upon. The winter games at Oslo will be from Feb. 14 through Feb. 25, the summer games at Helsinki from July 19 through Aug. 3.
- The program for the summer games was accepted. It will be the same as in 1948 at London except that preliminary competitions in team sports may be necessary in Finland before the games open, and the number of competitors for each country in each event of shooting and weight-lifting will be one less.
- A proposal to change the amateur rule to allow individual sports federations to decide who are amateurs was rejected.
- It was agreed to try to return ice hockey to the Olympic program.
- Provisional recognition was extended to the Olympic committee of Western Germany.

Prime Minister Of Northern Ireland Visits Toronto

TORONTO, May 17 (CP)—Sir Basil Brooke, Prime Minister of Northern Ireland, was received today at City Hall and went to lunch with Mayor Hiram McCallum.

He told reporters he came here on a "strictly friendly visit" and hoped to meet many old friends and Ulstermen.

He called on Lieutenant-Governor Lawson at the Parliament Buildings and later visited the Canada College before going to City Hall shortly before noon.

About five hours before Sir Basil reached City Hall, Robert J. Roberts, a city property department worker, told police he had found an army smoke bomb, of the type used by troops to camouflage manoeuvres, near a flagpole on the City Hall lawn.

A senior police official said later that no link between the finding of the smoke bomb and Sir Basil's visit had been established.

When reporters told Sir Basil about the smoke bomb, he smilingly said he thought "some critical friends" might have left it on the lawn.

"I should think they would get tired of this nonsense," he added.

Warns Against Union With U. S.

OTTAWA, May 17 (CP)—The stronger, more powerful United States would swallow up Canada if the two countries merged economically without the inclusion of other countries, a Liberal Senator from Quebec said today.

Calling for a wider, more balanced economic union among the 12 Atlantic Treaty Nations, Senator L. M. Gouin, veteran student of International Affairs, told the Upper Chamber such a union would tend to eliminate the disproportion "which exists between ourselves and our neighbors."

Senator Gouin lined up with Senator T. A. Crerar (L. Manitoba) and Senator W. D. Euler (L. Ontario) to advance the idea of world government as a means of maintaining peace, but cautioned that the only way to get it to proceed in a "piecemeal" way.

Favoring Senator Euler's motion that the U. S. call a conference of Atlantic treaty nations to develop the theme of Atlantic or world government, Senator Gouin suggested that a Federation of Atlantic Nations may not be as difficult as some would suppose.

Leading statesmen such as Winston Churchill of the United Kingdom have advocated west European Union, but Senator Gouin was convinced that union of the 12 countries bound by the Atlantic Pact would offer "much greater advantages."

Jones Goes Route With Five Hitter In Win Over Cubs

(By The Canadian Press)
Sheldon Jones went the route Wednesday for the first time, scattering five hits in pitching New York Giants to a 4-1 National League victory over Chicago Cubs.

The Giants made only five hits themselves off loser Bill Voiselle and Paul Minner, but one was an inside-the-park homer by Bobby Thomson with a man on in the first inning.

The Cubs scored their lone run in the eighth. Wayne Terwilliger scored on a fly by Preston Ward.

A triple by Eddie Waitkus, a pass to Del Ennis and Willie Jones' single with none out in the ninth broke a 4-4 tie and gave the Philles a 5-4 victory over Cincinnati Reds.

Ken Johnson scattered nine hits to win his third straight victory while Herman Wehmer gave up only five as he lost his fourth of the year.

Pittsburgh Pirates drove three runs home in the sixth, chasing righthander Vern Bickford, as they whipped Boston Braves 4-1. Pete Castiglione homered for the Buc's first run on the second pitch of the game.

Don Newcombe went the distance for the first time this season as he pitched Brooklyn Dodgers to a 6-2 victory over St. Louis Cardinals. Newcombe also clinched a four-run eighth-inning rally that broke a 2-2 tie with a two-run single.
