PRICE WEBBER AT MASONIC TEMPLE.—Last evening a very large and highly pleased audience witnessed an admirable performance of the fine play, "Under the Gaslight," with its great railroad scene, given with capital effect, and the different characters in capable hands. Miss Grey and Mr. Webber were given with lots of applause, and the whole performance reflected the greatest credit on the management and the Company. The favorite play of the "Octoroon; or Life in Louisiana," will be performed to-night. The music of the orchestra was very much appreciated.

ABOUT ADVERTISING.—It's the number of ideas rather than the number of words in an advertisement which makes it effective. The best ads. contain but one.

When a merchants stops advertising people get the idea into their heads that his business is "going down."

When a store is crowded with customers an impression is created that something is being sold there worth the buying. For this reason the crowd attracted to a store by advertising usually attracts another crowd.

PERSONAL.

Mayor Dawson returned home last evening.

Mrs D. H. Lodge of Hillsboro' N. B., who has been on the Island attending her mother (Mrs White of Montague) in her last illness returned to her home this morning.

George H. Ham, formerly prominently identified with the press of Manitoba, and now one of the travelling officials of the C. P. R., is paying Victoria a business visit.—Victoria, B. C., Colonist, Sept. 17.

Mrs. E. C. Jones and daughter, of Moncton, are in Charlottetown visiting Mrs. W. T. Huggan, Mrs. Jones' sister. Mr. James McKenzie, of the I. C. R., and Mrs. McKenzie crossed to the Island yesterday to attend the exhibition.—Moncton Times.

Patrick McCarey, one of the most popular police officers of Halifax, N. S., spent the greater part of his annual vacation in Boston, and was entertained by the men of his own craft in this city. Mr. McCarey leaves our city feeling that the "boys in blue" will assist officers on the other side of the line in securing prominent criminals. He was the guest of the officers of Station I during his stay in Boston, and the "boys" seem to have been more than pleased at the opportunity of entertaining a visitor, who, though working under her majesty, still has the interest of police business at heart.—Boston Post, Sept. 21.

THE CATHEDRAL BAZAAR.

About two thousand people attended the Bazaar yesterday evening, and a handsome sum was realized. The ice cream, oyster, tea and refreshment tables were splendidly patronized. The Dominion election poll is in progress, and the representatives of the different parties, Messrs. Thos. Handrahan and Geo Rogers, keep their eyes open as to the fairness of the voting. At three o'clock this afternoon was as follows: Sir John Thompson, was eighteen ahead of Mr. Laurier.

The literary table is doing splendidly. The most prominent article on it, a'most, is the scholarship donated by L B Miller, Esq. People who read of this for the first time will do well to remember that the scholarship consists of a full course in the Business College, including typewriting and shorthand. It is worth $60, and will be disposed of by the guess system, a number of beans being placed in a vessel (no one being aware of the number), and for ten cents a guess the person coming the nearest to the right number obtains the scholarship. Seldom does the opportunity offer of procuring a scholarship for so little money.

The Ladies Committee acknowledge with thanks the receipt of a beautiful wax cross from Mr. Michael Hennessy. It is on one of the fancy tables, and is as handsome an article as has yet been sent in.

They also acknowledge $10 in cash from Hon. Frank Smith, per Mrs. Howlan.

The lime light exhibition last night was the best ever seen here. Crowds surrounded the rink, watching with intense interest the pictures as they were put one by one on the canvas. The pictures of His Lordship Bishop McDonald and of the late lamented Bishop McIntyre were true to life; and those of the World's Fair, especially the Ferris Wheel, were well worth paying a good price to see. The firms who were lucky enough to procure an advertisement in here should be congratulated, as Messrs. Haslam and Doull know how to do their work.

Messrs Fennell & Chandler have the thanks of the Ladies Committee for $10 in goods and Mrs. James Waddell for a beautiful cake, and Mr. Vatcher also for cakes, and Thos. J. Hughes for confectionery.

From Rev. J. C. McLean. Little Pond parish, goods valued at $50; Grand River, goods valued at $100; also a large sign advertisement of the Bazaar, painted by H. H. Croseman in his best style, as his donation to the Bazaar. A fine marble slab for table, valued at $15, from Cairns & McLean.

All prices on the useful and fancy articles are put down to-day. Here is a grand chance to get blankets, etc., at the very lowest figures, and the fancy apron and other tables should do a rushing trade during the remainder of the week.

A member of the committee acknowledges $10 in cash from Bishop Macdonald of Harbor Grace; Bishop Rogers, of Chatham, $10; Father Griffin, U. S., $5; Father Murphy, Halifax, $5; Father R Macdonald, N. S., $5; Father Chisolm, of Pictou, $4. Another lady wishes to thank Mr. Angus McCallum for a splendid barrel of oysters.

THAT BICYCLE RACE.

SIR,—Why is it that we do not see the name of the so-called champion amongst the list for to-morrow's race on the Exhibition grounds? This race would give him a splendid opportunity of showing the public what he can really do.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER

HOME RULE FOR IRELAND.

Chamberlain's Speech at Leeds.

LONDON, Sept. 26.

Joseph Chamberlain, speaking at Leeds, said: "Never has opposition to Home Rule been so justified as at the present time. The course of recent events, he declared, proved that the Irish party was not made of such stuff that any English Government could safely trust its words. Unionists had to thank that party for exposing themselves one and another, in their true colors. Ever since Home Rule was defeated, Chamberlain said, members of the party had been engaged in blackening each other's characters, painting portraits of each other which, taken together, would form a chamber of horrors. (Cheers and laughter.)

Count Mercier's Condition.

MONTREAL, Sept. 26.

Mercier shows remarkable vitality. He received the apostolic benediction from the Pope yesterday.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—The early death of Mr. Wallace F. Scantlebury, is deeply regretted by many friends. An excellent official and a good man has passed away.

—The amount due Merchants Bank of P. E. Island, on the 30st August, by the Government of P. E. Island, was $77,143, and the amount due by Provincial Governments to the Merchants Bank of Halifax on the same date was $89,340. We are getting on.

—Water was let into the Canadian Soo canal yesterday, but it will be some days before the dams are cleared away and the entrance ready for vessels to go through. It has not yet been definitely settled whether there will be a formal opening or not.

Notwithstanding the excitement of the Exhibition, the Electors of Ward 2 should not overlook the importance of selecting a good man to represent the Ward for the balance of Councillor Robertson's time. A meeting of the Electors should be held at once, and a candidate selected.

MARRIED.

At St. Andrew's, on the 18th inst., by the Rev. Monsignor McDonald, P. P., Mr. John F. Loughran, of Fort Augustus parish, to Miss Agnes, daughter of Martin Sinnott, Esq., of Morell.

But it is God who has bereft us
Who can all our sorrows heal.
