IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JOSEPH CUTCLIFFE

It was with deepest sorrow the many relatives and friends of the late Mrs. Joseph Cutcliffe learned of her passing on the early morning of August 7th in the Provincial Sanatorium Charlottetown.

The deceased had been in failing health for many years. Ten years ago her condition became more serious and it was necessary that she should have hospital care. She became a patient in the Provincial Sanatorium, where she remained except for brief periods during the summer months.

During her long illness she was never known to complain or become impatient but committed herself to that friend who is closer than a brother and who has promised never to leave or forsake those who trust in Him, and as it is the blessed experience of all those who unreservedly commit their all to that friend, she was enabled to discover some blessing from His hand for which to give thanks.

The late Mrs. Cutcliffe possessed an exemplary Christian character; quiet and unassuming in her manner, generous in her judgment of others, and always ready to give help when needed.

The deceased was born in Hunter River 82 years ago and was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Simon Brown. As a young woman she taught school in various districts of the province.

She married Joseph Cutcliffe and for a number of years lived in South Melville. 39 years ago her husband purchased the farm known as the Irving farm in Cape Traverse. It was here she spent the maturer years of her life and where she will be most sadly missed. Her husband predeceased her 24 years ago.

There survive to mourn her passing besides many relatives and friends, two sons and two daughters. They are Harold, Cape Traverse, Roy, Augustine Cove; Bertha, Mrs. Albert Callbeck, Summerside and Ruth, Mrs. Jack Donovan, Pictou, N.S. A son Gordon died at the age of 21 also two infants.

There are 20 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren; also two sisters and two brothers, Eliza, Mrs Jewel, Concord, N.H. U.S.A. (Emily) Mrs. Seaman, Hunter River, P. E. I., William Brown, Calgary, Alberta and Melville in Bateman, Sask.

The funeral which was largely attended was held at the old home in Cape Traverse and was conducted by the Rev. Donald Nicholson. Praise selections sung were the 23rd psalm and "Unto the Hills."

Pall bearers were: Frank Cutcliffe, Aubrey Cutcliffe, Gordon Cutcliffe, Melville Higgins, Ray Higgins and James Brown. Flower bearers were Wendell Cutcliffe, Gerald Cutcliffe, Arthur Callbeck, Jack Donovan, Albert Callbeck and Douglas Thompson.

The remains were tenderly laid to rest in the family plot in the Crapaud Cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank Drs. Nurses and staff of the Provincial Sanatorium, neighbors and friends for their kindness shown, for flowers, cards, and letters of sympathy sent and other acts of kindness. A special thank you to Dr. Found who was so kind during the illness and death of our dear mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cutcliffe, Cape Traverse.
