"Want Some Butter?"
Asks Former Bristol Buttermaker

(Above), buttermaker Owen Sinnott, at work in the Stacey Brothers Ltd. creamery, Mitchell, Ont., lifts a mass of fresh butter from the churn. The machine holds 1,800 pounds. Mr. Sinnott is a son of Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Sinnott, Bristol, P. E. I. and learned the buttermaking business in P. E. I., serving his time at the Morell Cooperative creamery and later with Central creamery at Souris. He has been in Ontario for four years and is rated as a first-class buttermaker. Mr. Sinnott married Lois Eldershaw, also of Bristol, and they have one son Gerard. It is expected Mr. and Mrs. Sinnott will vacation here in August. Mr. Sinnott comes from a clever Bristol family. One brother, Doctor J. Cyril Sinnott, is in Montreal. Another brother and two sisters are bankers. Five sisters are school teachers. A brother is in the Dominion Weather Bureau, Toronto and another is a cabinet maker in Charlottetown. Two other sisters are still at school. (Photo by Toronto Telegram).

MONTREAL CP — Highways are better and cars are faster, police officials say, but drivers are no better than they were a decade or more ago and have not become adjusted to changed driving conditions. Police have arrested hundreds of speeders in their biggest crack-down in the history of the automobile.

ELECTORS

The Progressive Conservatives guarantee to reduce your taxes by $500,000,000.

The Government which has recently stated that they intend no tax reduction, says that it can't be done.

HERE IS HOW IT CAN AND WILL BE DONE
