

The Queen a Proud Woman.

Highlanders always looked upon the two noble families of Sutherland and Argyll as equal, if not superior, to Royalty itself. The following conversation between two highlanders at Oban Pier, in Argyshire, before the marriage of Lord Lorne, will amply and happily illustrate this:

"Good morning, Tugal, and you'll be just come from Steornway. Was the herring fishery good?"

Tugal. Oh! meadhauch! meadhauch (that is middling, middling), What news since I was go away!

Cullum. Oeh, not much news, at all, only that McCailean Mor's son, John, is to get married.

Tugal. I, I, and who will he be get married to?

Cullum. To a lady from England, Queen Victoria's daughter. I am sure you know the Queen—she lives sometimes in England, but her house is Balmoral, Aberdeenshire.

Tugal. Ah! but would McCailean Mor's son really marry the likes of her?

Cullum. Oh yes, Tugal, and they will be married soon.

Tugal. Well, well, wonders never cease. If MacCailean Mor's son will marry her, the Queen must be a proud woman that day!

Save Something.

Either man must be content with poverty all his life, or deny himself some luxuries and save to lay the base of independence in the future. But if a man defies the future and spends all he earns (whether his earnings be one or ten dollars a day) let him look for lean and want some future time—for it will surely come, no matter what he thinks. To save is absolutely the only way to get a solid fortune; there is no other certain mode. Those who shut their eyes and ears to these certain facts will be forever poor, and in their obstinate rejection of truth mayhap will die in rags and filth. Let them so die, and thank themselves. But no! They take a sort of recompense in cursing fortune. Great waste of breath. They might as well curse the mountains or eternal hills. For I can tell them fortune does not give away good and substantial goods. She sells it to the highest bidder, to the hardest and wisest worker for the boon. Men never make so fatal a mistake as when they think themselves creatures of fate, 'tis the surest folly in the world. Every man must make or mar himself, whichever he may choose. Fortune is for those who by diligence, honesty and frugality place themselves in a position to grasp hold of fortune when it appears in view. The best evidence of frugality is the five dollars or more standing in your name in the savings bank. The best evidence of honesty consists in diligence and frugality.

For several months past I have used Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites in phthisis, chronic bronchitis and other affections of the chest. I have no hesitation in stating it ranks foremost among remedies used in those diseases.

Z. S. EARLE, M. D., St. John, N. B. I strongly recommend Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites to all who suffer in any way from diseases or weakness of the lungs, bronchial tubes, or from general debility. J. H. W. SCOTT, M. D., Gagetown, N. B.

Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites acted with expedition and entire satisfaction in a case of aphonia, which failed to yield to regular treatment.

S. JACOBS, M. D., Lunenburg, N. S. No hesitation in recommending Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites for general debility, or any diseases of the lungs. H. G. ADDY, M. D.

In restoring persons suffering from diphtheritic prostration and coughs following typhoid fever, Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites is the best remedy I ever used. EDWIN CLAY, M. D., Pugwash, N. S.

Amongst the diseases overcome by the use of this remedy are the following:— Chronic Constipation, Chronic Dyspepsia, Asthma, Chronic Bronchitis, Consumption, Chronic Diarrhoea, Chronic Laryngitis, Melancholy, Nervous Debility

FELLOWS' Compound Syrup of Hypo-phosphites.

The power of arresting diseases displayed by this preparation is honorably acknowledged by the medical faculty in every section where it has been introduced; and the large sale is the best guarantee of the estimation in which it is held by the public.

This Syrup will cure Pulmonary Consumption in the first and second stages, will give great relief and prolong life on the third. It will cure Asthma, Bronchitis, Laryngitis, and coughs. It will cure all diseases originating from want of Muscular Action and Nervous Force.

Do not be deceived by remedies bearing a similar name; no other preparation is a substitute for this under any circumstances.

Look out for the name and address, J. I. FELLOWS, St. John, N. B., on the yellow rapper in watermark, which is seen by holding the paper before the light. Price, $1.50 per Bottle; six for $7.50. Sold by all Druggists. Ch'town, Oct. 31, 1878.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

The reputation it has attained, in consequence of the marvellous cures it has produced during the last half century, is a sufficient assurance to the public that it will continue to realize the happiest results that can be desired. In almost every section of country there are persons, publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs, by its use. All who have tried it, acknowledge its superiority; and where its virtues are known, no one hesitates as to what medicine to employ to relieve the distress and suffering peculiar to pulmonary affections. CHERRY PECTORAL always affords instant relief, and performs rapid cures of the milder varieties of bronchial disorder, as well as the more formidable diseases of the lungs.

As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of Childhood, it is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued and restored to health.

This medicine gains friends at every trial, as the cures it is constantly producing are too remarkable to be forgotten. No family should be without it, and those who have once used it never will.

Eminent Physicians throughout the country prescribe it, and Clergymen often recommend it from their knowledge of its effects.
