

MORE OF WHAT REALLY MATTERS

too proud, so please tell your friends -- you know who they are!): If you want the quality and substance of this paper to change, GET OFF YOUR BUTTS AND DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT!!!

When complaints come in, the person usually angrily tears apart the newspaper staff piece by piece (which only lowers our motivation to produce anything good). The editor's response is something to the effect of "If you don't like our writing, write something for us." I agree that this is ideal. Not only will something "good" make its way into the paper (and, hey, they might realize that they like their names in print), but it also gives us "rookies model to follow. However, I know that many of you don't have the time, energy, or literary interest to pursue this challenge. And so let me give the music reviews, not because they are bad but because they don't review the type of music she listens to (only alternative). Perhaps a better
