

Ezzard Charles Retains Title In 15-Round Decision Over Maxim

By JERRY LISKA
CHICAGO, May 30 — (AP) — Heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles handed a stinging boxing lesson to inept light heavyweight champion Joe Maxim for a unanimous 15-round decision in their title bout at the Chicago Stadium tonight.

Charles, vicious and persistent, made his eighth title defence a harp belting all the way of a wary and cautious — punching Maxim, who was bleeding and jutting at the finish.

There was no question that Maxim was outclassed in his attempt to dethrone the Cincinnati Negro who had beaten him three times previously before either was a champion.

Referee Frank Gilmer voted for Charles 75 to 7 and the two judges, Tommy Thomas and Ed Hantz saw it 85 to 65 each.

The bout, watched by millions of television viewers but less than 10,000 Stadium patrons, followed the same pattern almost from start to finish.

Charles carried the fight to Maxim both at close range and in long-distance exchanges. A half-hour after the fight, the battered Maxim was being administered oxygen and was mumbling incoherently to his handlers. There were no knockdowns.

The Associated Press scorecard had Maxim winning only one round, the ninth in which he machine-gunned three powerful lefts which almost stunned Charles. The AP card rated the fourth and 10th rounds even, with the rest going to Charles.

Charles never had to worry about Maxim's vaunted left or his newly-acquired right-hand sock which had flattened England's Freddie Mills for the light-heavyweight crown in London early this year.

The sparse crowd was pulling for Maxim, but had little occasion to cheer. The Cleveland Italian seemed to have little or no defence against Charles' crisp in-fightings.

From the 10th round on, Maxim was laboring to stay in the fight. He was bleeding from a cut over his right eye and was clutching and clinching at every opportunity.

The official attendance was announced at 7,225, paying a gross of $77,314. This was far below expectations of more than $100,000, but the television fee was a helping $100,000. Charles got 40 per cent of the gate-television receipts, while 20 per cent went to Maxim.

Arctic Prince Is Easy Winner Of 172nd Derby

By Jim Chambers
EPSOM, Surrey, England, May 30 — (AP) — Arctic Prince, an Irish-owned and bred colt, turned the Derby into a runaway today, winning by six lengths at odd of 28 to 1.

The fast-stepping pride of burly, grey-haired Joe McGrath, blazed up the stretch to victory over 22 other three-year olds in the 172nd and richest running of the classic before a throng of more than 500,000 at Ancient Epson Downs.

McGrath, one of Ireland's leading racehorse owners, is managing director of the Irish Hospitals Trust, organizers of the Irish Sweepstakes, one of which was based on today's race.

One of the many longshots, Arctic Prince scored by the greatest margin in 20 years. The brown son of Prince Chevalier-Arctic Sun shook loose from his rivals at Tattenham corner, a sharp bend a half-mile from home. Jockey Charlie Spares never let up until the winner was under the wire.

It required a photo to separate the next three horses with Sybil's Nephew getting second a head over Signal Box.

Le Tyrol, owned by Ralph Strassburger, an American now residing in France, was fourth.

The 9 to 1 pre-race favorite, Ki Ming, never had a chance after the first mile of the 1 1/2-mile event and finished far back. If Ki Ming had won, his owner, Billy Ley, would have collected $61,000 on a $61.60 bet made 17 months ago.

Ley On received 1,000-1 odds against his horse winning a parlay on the Two Thousand Guineas and The Derby. He won the first race May 2.

Sybil's Nephew, owned by Lord Milford, was a 5-1 chance, while Signal Box was 20 to 1. Signal Box is another Irish-owned and bred colt, from the stable of Frank W. Dennis.

The crowd included Queen Elizabeth, Queen Mother Mary, Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret. An attack of flu kept the King away.

Arctic Prince's easy victory in the slow time of 2:39 2/5 was worth $54,561 to his owner.

Following the first four in order were Crocodile, Le Vent, Nyngal, Sun Compass, Turco II, Expeditious, Medway, Stokes, Zucherero and Malka's Boy. Arcot was last.

White Sox Run Win Streak To 14 Games

(Canadian Press)
The blazing Chicago White Sox ran their win streak to 14 games Wednesday, boosting their American League lead to two full games by a Memorial Day holiday sweep over St. Louis Browns, 5-2 and 8-1.

The runner-up New York Yankees were knocked off twice by Boston as the Red Sox upped their win string to 10 by scoring 11-10 in 15 innings and 9-4.

Two more White Sox pitchers—Billy Pierce and Randy Gumpert—went the route against the lowly Browns. The Sox staff now has the remarkable record of 18 complete games in 36 (including one tie) while only five enemy pitchers have lasted against them.

Vern Stephens' homer in the 15th inning gave the surging Red Sox a first-game verdict over the Yankees after blowing an early lead. They pulled the second game out with a five-run spurt in the seventh.

The double loss cost the Yanks two full games in the pennant race. It was the fifth in a row they dropped to the Red Sox at Fenway.

Cleveland moved past Detroit into fourth place by dumping the Tigers twice, 3-1 and 4-1, and Washington came out of a nine-game losing slump by whipping Philadelphia 6-2 in the second game after dropping the opener 9-5.

Brooklyn's National League lead was sliced to 1 1/2 games over St. Louis Cardinals. The Dodgers split a pair at Philadelphia, winning 5-3 and losing 9-5. The Cards knocked off Pittsburgh 4-3 and 7-3.

Bobby Thomson's 11th inning single with the bases full gave New York Giants an opening 6-5 edge over Boston Braves but even break took the Braves out Vern Bickford got a seven-hit decision in the second 6-3. It was his seventh victory.

Forest Burgess hit a three-run homer in the ninth off Ewell Blackwell for Chicago's 5-1 second game win and a split. Barney took the opener 6-5 as Barney McCoskey drove in three runs with a homer, double and single.

Fans have read a number of accounts of the running of Canada's racing classic, The King's Plate, which was won by Major Factor with Alfie Bavington up last Saturday at Toronto's Woodbine track, but if they haven't read Jim Coleman's version of the event, then they have really missed something. Coleman may be an eminent sports scribe, but he has missed his calling. He should be on the stage. His account of the 92nd running of the event would make most present-day event comedians look green with envy when it comes to laughs.

Wallard Wins 500-Mile Automobile Race With Record-Breaking Speed

By TED SMITS
INDIANAPOLIS, May 30 — (AP) — Lee Wallard from Altamont, N. Y., a relaxed, grinning streak of gold and black, won the 35th annual 500-mile Memorial Day speedway race today at the ripe age of 40 and set a track record for blazing automobile speed.

Wallard took the lead at the start, surrendered it to four others early in the race, regained it at 210 miles and held it the rest of the way. He drove the last 30 miles without one shock absorber. He shed his exhaust pipe at 127 miles.

He averaged 128.244 miles an hour for the long grind around the famous 2 1/2-mile track.

Wallard's time was 3:57:38.05, the first time the race has been run under four hours. The old speed mark was 121.327 set by Bill Holland in 1949. All six cars that completed the course beat Holland's record time.

Only one minor accident occurred, but the terrific pace forced 25 of the 33 starters to quit, an all-time record.

Double winner Mauri Rose, also holder of one co-championship, rolled over in his car on the north-east turn when the right rear wheel collapsed. He crawled out unhurt.

Mike Nazarak of East Meadow, N. Y., finished second, two laps behind Wallard, and Jack McGrath's car, with Manuel Ayulo driving relief, was third.

Bobby Ball, like Nazarak a first-time starter, finished fourth. Henry Banks, 1950 national racing champion, was fifth.

Records were set all along the way.

Top favorites were the team of Duke Nalon and Chet Miller, but Miller dropped out at 142 miles, and Nalon, although he won 10th place, had to quit at 390 miles.

Wallard won $15,800 in lap money, $20,000 for first place, and enough side prizes to bring the total to more than $50,000.

Loretta Young of Hollywood, was waiting to kiss the happy Wallard who wound up the race

Minor Baseball

In a minor league baseball tilt at the East End Diamond yesterday evening, the North End Bombers and the East End Aces battled it out to a 19-19 deadlock after nine innings of play.

Darkness limited the teams from continuing the game to break the deadlock.

Harry McGee was on the mound for the Aces with Jimmy Duffy doing the catching while Cobey Brehaut was the Bombers' hurler with Jimmy Longaphie receiving.

Montreal Man Wins $60,000 In Sweepstakes

(By The Canadian Press)
A Montrealer won close to $60,000 with a second-place ticket in the Irish Sweepstakes today and Ottawa and Montreal residents won about $20,000 each.

John Murphy became the top Canadian winner in the Epson Derby sweep when his ticket was drawn on Sybil's Nephew, the horse that finished second.

Shirley S. Slinn, former Ottawa alderman and H. Meadows of Montreal hit the jackpot when their tickets were drawn on the show horse, Signal Box.

At least four others won $1,120 for drawing tickets on also-rans.

Therese Trepanier of Three Rivers, Que., was the big winner in the Quebec Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans' Sweep, netting $34,800 with a ticket on the Derby winner, Arctic Prince.

Crouching there, kicking and shouting and swearing and, maybe, praying a little while the Major covered the ground in great flying leaps as he passed horse after horse. "Come on, baby," pleaded Alfie but the Major needed no urging now and he was snorting and chewing on air and his eye-balls were rolling in his head because he could still see a couple of horses ahead of him. They came thundering home together and, although they had started late, they finished early. They thundered past the finishing line and the crowd was cheering and looking at their program to see what horse had just dropped in from Mars.

"The Major pulled himself up as he coasted around the turn and then paused for a deep breath, looked up at Alfie and said: 'Well, what do you think of that?'—And that, kiddies, is how Alfie and the Major won the 92nd running of The King's Plate."

28 Victories at Indianapolis Speedway proves Firestone TIRES SAFEST FOR YOUR CAR

When you put Firestone Tires on your car you know they have more reserve strength and safety than you will ever need... for they have been proved on the Speedway as the safest tires built.

For 28 years every driver in the race has bought Firestone Tires because no driver is willing to risk his life or chances of victory on anything less than the safest tires money can buy. Remember that fact next time you buy tires. Protect the lives of your family on Canada's No. 1 Tire—Firestone—first for safety, first for long mileage.

LEE WALLARD
WINS AT INDIANAPOLIS SPEEDWAY AT RECORD-BREAKING SPEED OF 128.244 MILES PER HOUR

Imagine the punishment his Firestone tires took at that terrific speed. 500 miles over the rough, brick track at the Indianapolis Speedway is equal to 50,000 miles of ordinary highway driving—4 years of average service crowded into less than 4 1/2 hours. A eloquent proof that Firestone tires are safest for your car.

"Tiger" Steele In 3rd Round TKO Over Bud Ramsay At Victoria

Welterweight Roy "Tiger" Steele, 148, of Charlottetown, scored a third-round TKO over Summerside's Bud Ramsay, 143, in the main event of a five-bout card staged at Victoria Rink last night under the sponsorship of the Crapaud Community Club.

Attended by some 500 fight fans, the card provided an excellent evening of action-packed entertainment.

Feeling his opponent out cautiously in the opening round, Steele opened up with a furious attack in the second that sent Ramsay to the canvas twice for a nine-count. Ramsay failed to answer the bell for the third round.

Light heavyweights Johnny Russell, 170, and Louis "Kid" Laferty, 171, both of this City, provided the big crowd pleaser of the night when they belted one another around the ring for eight rounds in slam-bang fashion to draw decision in the semi-final event.

Other decision bouts on the card saw Bud Lund, 138, City, Island lightweight champion, fight a six-round draw decision with Charlottetown's Duck Trainer, 140, while in the curtain raiser, Kid Callaghan, 134, City, battled to a four-round draw decision with Tiger Ferguson, 133, of Crapaud in a scrappy contest.

The Lund-Trainer go caused a bit of a rumpus among the fans when referee Wilf McCloskey stopped the contest with only 15 seconds to go in the final round and called it "no contest" without giving any reason for his action. Both fighters uninjured and willing to continue the bout, were allowed to do so when the judges overruled the referee's decision, calling the bout a draw.

One of the feature events of the night was a special four-round exhibition put on by Cobey McCloskey, Maritime middleweight title holder and Harry "Kid" Poulton, Maritime lightweight champ. Both boys, who are in training for bouts against mainland opponents have next week, put on an excellent show of smooth boxing that proved a big hit and drew rounds of applause from the spectators.

Officials for the events were as follows: — Judges — Carl Fitzpatrick, Summerside, Bob Whyte, Mahone Bay, N.S., Earl Smith, Summerside, Timers — Mr. Russell, Charlottetown, George Guerres, S'ide.; Referee — Wilf McCloskey.
