ON A PICTURE OF THE ASSUMPTION BY MURILLO.

With what calm power thou risest on the wind—
Mak'st thou a pinion of those locks unshorn?
Of that dark blue robe which floats behind
In ample fold? or art thou cloud-upborne?

A STRANGE AFFAIR.

There was nothing peculiar in the appearance of the house—a three-story building, surrounded by rather extensive grounds, evidently once a country seat of no small pretensions. It had a somewhat desolate look, though in perfect repair—that look a house always put on when long deprived of human presences. It had in fact been empty a year or more.

lauding. I can scarcely say with what surprise saw no one on stepping out on the landing. Not to be convinced, I ran up stairs and explored the upper storey. Not a soul was there—the chambers all dark and silent, and quiet. I came down like one in a dream; and meeting Kate, inquired if she had seen the woman, describing the circumstances.

things now-a-days. I'd got my labor for my pains, and folks would say I was trying to give the house a bad name; that I would be all the thanks I'd get. Talk to the agent, not to me!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT. Bad Legs, Ulcerous Sores, Bad Breasts, and Old Wounds. No description of wound, sore or ulcer can resist the healing properties of this excellent Ointment. The worst case readily assumes a healthy appearance whenever this medical agent is applied.

Piles, Fistulas, and Internal Inflammation. These distressing and weakening diseases may with certainty be cured by the sufferers themselves, if they will use Holloway's Ointment, and closely attend to the printed instructions. It should be well rubbed upon the neighboring parts, when all obnoxious matter will be removed.

Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia. Nothing has the power of reducing inflammation and subjugating pain in these complaints in the same degree as Holloway's cooling Ointment and purifying Pills. When used simultaneously they drive all inflammation and depravities from the system, subdue and remove all enlargement of the joints, and leave the sinews and muscles lax and uncontracted.

Sore Throats, Diphtheria, Quinsey, Mumps and all other Derangements of the Throat. On the appearance of any of these maladies the Ointment should be well rubbed at least three times a day upon the neck and upper part of the chest, so as to penetrate to the glands, as salt is forced into meat; this course will at once remove inflammation and ulceration. The worst cases will yield to this treatment by following the printed directions.
