STANSTEAD JUNCTION, P. Q., 12th Aug. 1893.

MESSRS C C RICHARDS & Co.
GENTLEMEN,—I fell from the bridge leading from a platform to a loaded car while assisting my men in unloading a load of grain. The bridge went down as well as the load on my back, and I struck on the ends of the sleepers, causing a serious injury to my leg. Only for its being very fleshy, would have broken it. In an hour could not walk a step. Commenced using MINARD'S LINIMENT, and the third day went to Montreal on business and got about well by the use of a cane. I can sincerely recommend it as the best liniment that I know of in use.
Yours truly,
C. H. GORDON.

THE TRANSVAAL AT TOP OF CRISIS

Discredited Report That Fighting Has Begun.

BOER TROOPS ARE ALREADY IN MOTION.

Parliament Called for 17th October—Extraordinary Preparations in England.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

LONDON, Oct. 5.—Parliament has been summoned to meet on October 17th.

The Government policy with reference to the Transvaal will be submitted and an appropriation of $8,000,000 asked.

The Harcourt wing of Liberals will oppose the expenditure.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—Preparations for war throughout Great Britain have not been equalled since the taking of Sebastopol.

Within the past week the activity has extended to the navy and dockyards.

The signs are ominous.

The extent of these preparations attracts the gravest curiosity on every hand. Some of the papers hint at prospective complications of the Transvaal crisis.

BLOEMFONTEIN, Oct. 5.—The government published a telegram from Boshof, stating that the British forces have crossed the border and that fighting has commenced.

Another telegram says that troops have crossed the border, but that no fighting has yet occurred. The government discredits the report.

A despatch from Volksrust says: The Boer camp on the Natal border, comprises 8,000 men and is growing daily. The camp breathes religious fervor.

One of the largest corps lay in Veldt without shelter during a heavy thunder-storm.

Commandant Joubert is momentarily expected to assume command of Boer forces.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—A special despatch from New Castle, Natal, dated Wednesday, says: "The Boers have left their laager at Volksrust and are moving towards the frontier."

The situation is most critical.

The magistrates and municipal officers have assembled in the town hall to concert measures for the defence of the town against an expected attack.

All the women and children have been ordered to leave for the frontier of Natal.

NO CANADIAN CONTINGENT

Great Disappointment to Volunteers.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

OTTAWA, Oct. 5.—Mr. Laurier's announcement that there will be no Canadian contingent for South Africa has created great disappointment.

The Volunteer Enlistment Act, is only for defence of Canada.

TEACHERS' CONVENTION.

First Session This Morning—Hon. Mr. Stetson's Able and Eloquent Address.

The first session of the P. E. Island Teachers Association opened in the Y. M. C. A. Hall at 10.30 a. m., with A. Trowdale, president, in the chair. In the course of his opening remarks he dwelt on the progress of education in this province and more especially on some of the just grievances of the teachers, such as the cutting away of supplements and bonuses, appointment of a teacher on the Board of Education, midsummer vacation, etc.

The following committees were appointed:

Auditing—Inspector McIntyre, Ed. Shaw, N E Carruthers,
Resolutions—Messrs Seaman, Kiely and Campbell.
Credentials—Messrs Landrigan, McLeod and Miss Connor.

Question Box—Messrs Campbell, Carruthers, McMillan, Landrigan and Miss Arbuckle.

Programme—Messrs Duncan, Ready, McPhail, Miss Fennessy.

After the appointment of committees the President introduced Hon. W. W. Stetson, who delivered a very instructive address "reading for teachers." He described vividly the ideal teacher, the teacher who was of greatest advantage to pupils.

He showed that a teacher should keep in touch with the thoughts of great educationists. Let them read the educational papers best suited to their works. It is not necessary to read all the books that are printed to have a perfect knowledge.

Such great poets as Spencer, Chaucer, Shakespeare, Milton, Burns, Wordsworth, Longfellow, Tennyson, etc. are well worth reading. All these writers had great feelings and uttered them from their hearts.

Teachers should read no authors which they have no relish for, as by reading them they derive no benefit whatever. Better to try something else which will strike a sympathetic chord in the mind of the reader. Teachers should not try to spread their knowledge too widely, lest it may do no good anywhere. Child study should be the object of every good teacher.

Hon. Mr. Stetson's remarks were eloquent, and were listened to with the closest attention.

Complimentary remarks were made by Messrs Seaman, R. H. Campbell and Superintendent McLeod, the last of whom conveyed to Mr. Stetson the thanks of the convention for his able address.

Convention adjourned until 2 p. m.

The Colonies' Contingent.

MONTREAL, Oct. 4.—The Star's London correspondent says: "The British government has cabled the Canadian government that it gladly accepts Canada's loyal offer for troops for South Africa. Acceptances have already been cabled to Queensland and New Zealand. The ministers feel that such an opportunity of giving England's enemies a magnificent object lesson in the solidarity of the empire cannot be neglected. Similar units will be received from the Australian colonies. The British government does not desire any large amount of troops, but only enough to have a fighting unit from each colony to represent a united empire in the field."

Transvaal Contingent.

TORONTO, Oct. 4.—The announcement in the Military Gazette that the Canadian contingent for the Transvaal will be commanded by Colonel Herbert, caused considerable surprise among military men here, it being generally understood that Col. Otter should command the contingent. Militia circles expect Colonel Drury of Kingston will be at the head of the battery, Col. Buchan, of London, of the infantry, and Captain Forrester, of Toronto, of the cavalry.

GREAT YACHT RACE AT NEW YORK

The Same Course Over Again

RACES TO BEGIN EARLIER THAN ON FIRST DAY

The Weather and all the Prospects Good.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Uncertainty has prevailed as to the course which will be sailed to-morrow by the Shamrock and Columbia.

The matter was settled, however, definitely this afternoon, at a meeting of the Regatta Committee.

After the meeting S. N. Kane announced that to-morrow's race would be as on Tuesday, fifteen miles to windward or leeward and beat back.

An agreement has been made between Sir Thomas Lipton and the Columbia's owner which provides that when it is impossible to finish a contest within the time limit the same class of race must be continued until a decision is reached.

Consequently before the two boats can meet on the three leg bout, it will be necessary to settle their capabilities on straightaway run of fifteen miles.

In consequence of the quickly waning daylight this time of year, the Regatta Committee today decided that the start should be made at 10.45 a. m.

The indication for today's race, while not predicting perfect yachting weather, points to favorable conditions for a good race.

VENEZUELAN AWARD.

Neither British Guiana Nor the Republic Gets all Demanded.

PARIS, Oct. 4.—The award of the Anglo-Venezuelan Boundary Arbitration Commission was read at noon yesterday. The decision was unanimous. It is considered in the nature of a compromise rather than as favouring Venezuela.

It appears that Great Britain loses some of her claims in the interior and on the coast, and the frontier will start at Waim River.

The decision, which was read by M. F. de Martens, the umpire, who has presided over the deliberations of the tribunal, is as follows:

"The undersigned, by these presents, give and publish our decision determining and judging, touching and concerning the questions that have been submitted to us by said arbitration, we decide, declare and pronounce definitely that the line of frontier of the colony of British Guiana and the United States of Venezuela is as follows:

"Starting on the coast at Point Playa, the frontier shall follow a straight line to the confluence on the Barima and the Marimua, thence following the valley of the latter to the source of the Corentin, otherwise called the Cutari River."

"Thence it shall proceed to the confluence of the Hioawa, and the Amakuru, thence following the Takiwag of the Amakuru, to its source in the Plain of Imataka; thence, in a south-westerly direction along the highest ridge of the Imataka Mountains to the highest point of the Imataka chain opposite the source of the Barima and the principal chain of the Imataka Mountains; thence in a south-west direction to the south of the Acarabisi, following the Thalweg of the Acarabisi to the Cuyuni, the northern bank of which it follows in a westerly direction to the confluence of the Cuyuni and the Vanomu; thence along the Thalweg of the Vanomu to its westernmost source; thence in a straight line to the summit of Mount Boraima; thence to the course of the Continga.

From this point the frontier shall follow the Thalweg of the Continga to its confluence with the Takutu; thence along the Thalweg of the Takutu to its source; thence in a straight line to the most western point of the Akaral Mountains, the highest ridge of which it shall follow to the source of the Corantini; thence it will follow the course of the river."

A Low Nile.

CAIRO, Oct. 4.—Reports received here from various points show that the Nile is now at the lowest point of which there is any record. Two hundred and six thousand acres are hopelessly beyond irrigation, and the river is still falling.

THE TRUE Bermuda Easter Lily

(LILIUM HARRISII)

One of the grandest winter-flowering plants in cultivation.

Pure pearly white, deliciously fragrant and a remarkable profusion of bloom, characterize this charming and celebrated Easter Lily. Its popularity and sales have increased wonderfully and deservedly, for without exception, it is one of the most valuable bulbs for winter flowering in the house. A profusion of bloom may be had from Christmas until spring, if a number are planted and "brought in" at different times. Bulbs after flowering can be ripened and rested a couple of months by withholding water, and will then produce another crop of flowers frequently equal to the first. It is a magnificent variety for church decoration at Easter and tens of thousands are grown for this purpose. The flowers are pure white, 4 or 5 inches long (and frequently more) and of the most delicious fragrance.

A supply of the above just received.
