Poetry.

LOVE IN HIS YACHT.

As sailing down life's sunny streams,
  Young love was gaily sitting,
In pleasure's gondola of dreams,
  And Joy was at the helm.
His colours were the rainbow hues,
  But far more flitting;
His canvass was supplied him
  By the spider's film;
His raking masts, his bow and shaft—
  The pennant was his band united;
The cordage was of true-love knots;
  The prow his wing obeys;
His sails were filled with victims' sighs,
  Which wafted him along the tide;
But how he laughed to find them all
  Blow different ways.

For some into the wished-for port
  Of Hymen fain would pilot him:
While those who 'd long been anchored there
  Would once more tempt the sea;
Prudes, long who scorned his power and frowned,
  Most fondly now would smile at him,
And proud hearts once so boasted free
  His slaves would be;
Some lips which long had lost all charm,
  For aught but scandal's fluency,
Sent him a retaining kiss!
  But Love refused the fee.
Yet if thy smile, my own loved one,
  By chance had caught the truant's eye,
He'd owned his cynosure was there,
  And steered by thee.

THE TEMPTER.

When man was first in Paradise,
  And angels to him came,
The tempter with his hollow words
  Brought blight upon his name;
But came no more in serpent guise,
  Lest men should know his aim;—
Ah me! the Tempter changeth,—
  The temptation is the same!

The fruit that grew in Paradise,
  On that mysterious tree,
Was not for human hands to take,
  Nor fiendish eyes to see;—
'Twas then the fruit—but now the cup—
  Whose praise he doth proclaim;
Ah me! the Tempter changeth.—
  The temptation is the same!

He comes, an angel bright,
  And with him brings the cup;
And smiles to stand at the right hand
  Of those so sup it up!
Bright visions dance before the eyes,—
  The pleasure hides the shame;—
Ah me! the Tempter changeth,—
  The temptation is the same!

He goes, as goes a fiend of hate,
  Whene'er his work is done,
And leaves behind the saddest sight
  That's seen beneath the sun:—
The wreck of many a noble heart—
  Of feeling—genius—fame;—
Beware! the Tempter changeth,—
  The temptation is the same.

Varieties.

Smoking in 1851.—Among the articles of traffic which were most in demand during the Exhibition season, cigars have taken the lead. It would be dangerous to say how many millions have been sold. The run on real Havanas was so great, that they were called for much faster than they could be made. The smoking mania has now become a universal epidemic. Of all intolerable street nuisances this is the greatest, and ought to be resisted by every true-born Briton who has a spark of patriotism or independence left. The very atmosphere is redolent of the odious weed. If you meet thirty men, they have, on the average, twenty cigars or pipes among them. From the peer and the heavy dragoon, down to the butcher's boy, and the omnibus cad, there is scarcely an exception. A leading medical practitioner, at Brighton, has lately given a list of sixteen cases of paralysis, produced by smoking, which came under his own knowledge within the last six months. Then, the expense is ruinous. Many young men smoke eighteen cigars per diem, besides what they give to their friends. Not long ago, I heard an inveterate smoker, whose entire income could scarcely have amounted to three hundred a-year, declare, that his cigars alone cost him one hundred and fifty. He drew the long bow, of course; but, if fifty was the truth, it was bad enough. A curious phase in the disease is the taste for short, dirty pipes, black with age, use and ambition, which has crept in lately. Every third dandy you meet has one of these in his cheek. The cutty and the cigar hold divided reign. Several speculators, during the last year, traversed Ireland, buying up sack-loads of these indigenous productions, which they sold again in London at an enormous premium. The peculiar aroma, so much coveted, is only to be met with in specimens of the dhudeen, which have passed through many mouths in successive generations, and have become family relics. Even in Boston, in the United States, in the land where, according to some naturalists, children are born with lighted cigars in their mouths, there is a law against smoking in the streets, and penalties inflicted on the offender. With all our respect for our transatlantic brethren, and their matchless energies, we scarcely expected to have received from them such a lesson in refined civilization.—Dublin University Magazine, for November.

Religion of the Dog.—The following original anecdote of Burns, is in a work, entitled "The Philosophy of the Seasons," by Rev. Henry Duncan:

"I well remember with what delight I listened to an interesting conversation which, while yet a schoolboy, I enjoyed an opportunity of hearing in my father's manse, between the poet Burns and another poet, my near relation, the amiable Blacklock. The subject was the fidelity of the dog. Burns took up the question with all the ardor and kindly feeling with which the conversation of that extraordinary man was so remarkably imbued. It was a subject well suited to call forth his powers; and when handled by such a man, not less suited to interest the youthful fancy. The anecdotes by which it was illustrated have long escaped my memory; but there was one sentiment expressed by Burns with his characteristic enthusiasm which, as it threw a new light into my mind, I shall never forget. "Man," said he, "is the God of the dog. He knows no other; he can understand no other; and see how he worships him! With what reverence he crouches at his feet; with what love he fawns upon him, with what dependence he looks up to him, and with what cheerful alacrity he obeys him. His whole soul is wrapped up in his God; and the powers and faculties of his nature are devoted to his service; and these powers and faculties are exalted by the intercourse. It ought just to be so with the Christian; but the dogs put Christians to shame."

Remarkable Passage.—The packet ship Staffordshire, Captain Brown, of Train's line, from Boston, December 10th, arrived at Liverpool on the 25th, after a splendid passage of fifteen days—one of the shortest ever made.

The Way they Settle Towns in California.—A Sacramento paper says, that within twenty-four hours after the first great rush to the spot, a town, a little distance removed, was surveyed, mapped, subdivided into streets, squares, &c., and in forty-eight days afterwards, it contained a number of stores, taverns, boarding-houses or hotels, gambling-houses, with monte and billiard-tables, and all the usual establishments found in the inland towns.

An Avalanche.—On Thursday last, an avalanche took place in Boston, the snow being precipitated from Trinity Church upon a portion of Thorndike building, by which about $1400 worth of glass was destroyed. A large stock of silks in Chandler & Co.'s store was also much damaged.

Finances of New York City.—From Mayor Kingsland's message, it appears that the amount to be levied in the coming year for the city and county purposes is $2,436,650; and the whole amount for city, county and state is $3,501,806.

Greatest improvement in Daguerreotype Art.

Mr. HOBS

WOULD respectfully inform the Ladies and Gentlemen of this place, wishing to procure a Miniature of themselves or friends, that they can obtain the most perfect that can be produced by this wonderful art, in a new and improved style, practised by no other Artists in North America, inserted in a neat Morrocco Case, or Frame, for the extreme low price of $1 to $5, by calling at his Rooms at the old stand, opposite to Messrs. Milner's, where he will remain for a few weeks only, before going to the Country.

Pictures taken from Busts, Portraits, Daguerreotypes, &c., as well as from life, and warranted true to the original.

Pictures taken from 8, a. m., to 5, p. m., and set in every variety of Lockets, Pins, Frames, or common Cases.

Visitors are particularly requested to embrace the morning light.

Delay not then, as opportunity shall present, to secure these mementoes of life, which, under the trying circumstances of a final separation of friends, no price can purchase. As his stay here will be short, all will do well to avail themselves of an early opportunity to secure their Miniatures.

Satisfaction given, or no Charge!

P. S.—On hand, a variety of handsome Frames in Mahogany, Rosewood, and imitation Papier Machie and Crystal.

HEALTH WHERE 'TIS SOUGHT!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS

CURE OF A DISORDERED LIVER AND STOMACH, WHEN IN A MOST HOPELESS STATE.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Matthew Harvey, of Chapel Hall-Airdrie, Scotland, dated the 15th January, 1850.

To Professor Holloway:

Sir,—Your valuable Pills have been the means, with God's blessing of restoring me to a state of perfect health, and at a time when I thought I was on the brink of the grave. I had consulted several eminent Doctors, who, after doing what they could for me, stated that they considered my case as hopeless. I ought to say that I had been suffering from a Liver and Stomach complaint of long standing, which during the last two years got so much worse, that every one considered my condition as hopeless. I as a last resource got a Box of your Pills, which soon gave relief, and by persevering in their use for some weeks, together with rubbing night and morning your Ointment over my chest and stomach and right side, I have by their means alone got completely cured, and to the astonishment of myself and every body who knows me.

(Signed) MATTHEW HARVEY.

CURE OF A CASE OF WEAKNESS AND DEBILITY OF FOUR YEARS' STANDING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Smith, of No. 5, Little Thomas Street, Gibson Street, Lambeth, dated December 12, 1849.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I beg to inform you that for nearly 5 years I hardly knew what it was to have a day's health, suffering from extreme weakness and debility, with constant nervous headaches, giddiness and sickness of the stomach, together with a great depression of spirits. I used to think that nothing could benefit me, as I had been to many medical men, some of whom, after doing all that was in their power, informed me that they considered that I had some spinal complaint beyond the reach of cure, together with a very disordered state of the stomach and liver, making my case so complicated that nothing could be done for me. One day being unusually ill and in a dejected state, I saw your Pills advertised and resolved to give them a trial, more perhaps from curiosity than with a hope of being cured, however I soon found myself better by taking them—and so I went on persevering in their use for six months, when, I am happy to say they effected a perfect cure.

(Signed) WILLIAM SMITH.
(frequently called EDWARD)

CURE OF ASTHMA OF TWENTY YEARS' STANDING.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. J. K. Heydon, 78 King Street, Sydney, dated 10th November, 1849.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I have the pleasure to inform you that many extraordinary cures of Asthma have been effected here by means of your Pills. One is that of a lady residing near the "Razorback," who after having for Twenty years been unable to make the slightest exertion, suffering very fearfully from shortness of breath coughing and spitting, but is now, (to use her own expression) able to run up to the top of that mountain. Another case is that of Mr. Caton, Tailor, Hutchinson's buildings, Clarence-street, who was so dreadfully bad that he was confined entirely to his bed-room or six months, prior to his commencing with your Pills, and attended regularly by his medical man, who pronounced him to be in a dying state, yet he, likewise, to my knowledge, has been restored to perfect health by the use of your Pills, and rubbing your Ointment night and morning into his chest.

(Signed) J. K. HEYDON.

THE EARL OF ALDBOROUGH CURED OF A LIVER AND STOMACH COMPLAINT.

Extract of a Letter from His Lordship, dated Villa Messina Leghorn, 21st February, 1845.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—Various circumstances prevented the possibility of my thanking you before this time for your politeness in sending me your Pills as you did. I now take this opportunity of sending you an order for the amount and at the same time to add, that your Pills have effected a cure of a disorder in my Liver and Stomach, which all the most eminent of the Faculty at home, and all over the Continent, had not been able to effect; no, not even the waters of Carlsbad and Marienbad. I wish to have another Box and a Pot of the Ointment, in case any of my family should ever require either. Your most obliged and obedient Servant.

(Signed) ALDBOROUGH.
