MCGUIRK — In loving memory of our dear brother Henry McGuirk who passed away February 10, 1955.
God call him home it was his will.
But in our hearts he liveth still
Ever remembered by sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell.

LIVINGSTON — In memory of our loving mother, Mrs. Annie Livingston of Churchill, P. E. I. who died February 14, 1951.
A long, long road you walked, dear mother
Sometimes the path was drear
We know you felt that on the way
Your loving God was near.
You journeyed on life's highway
Dear mother, in His heavenly light.
We know you've reached that hallowed land
Wherein there is no night.
Lovingly remembered by her children Flora, Ethel, David, Louis and Daniel.

HUGHES — James Emmet Hughes, Kinkora, February 14th, 1942.
In loving memory of our dear son and brother.
Who lost his life at sea on board S.S. Rarnjno Merchant Marine.
A day of rememberence too sad to recall
The loss of a son the best friend of all
One of the best God could send
A loving son and a faithful friend.
We may not see the spot where you are lying James
Nor place a wreath upon your grave
But mingled with out hearts deep sorrow
Is pride of one who was so brave.
Happy and smiling
Always content
Loved and respected
Where ever he went
In that bright eternal home
Where no tears e'er dim the eye
In the home of many mansions
We will meet him bye and bye.
Inserted by mother, dad, brothers and sisters.

REPORT BORDER FIGHT

MOSCOW (Reuters) — A battle between Russian border guards and armed "diversionists" last summer on the Soviet frontier in central Asia was disclosed for the first time Monday in Pravda, the Communist party newspaper. An article commemorating the 35th anniversary of the Soviet border troops did not mention the nationality of the intruders or the exact location of the battle. But it said all the intruders were "destroyed," and two Soviet officers and a sergeant were wounded.
