He was sitting at the table eating his breakfast, when he pulled a dipper of scalding hot water off the table, the contents of which went all over him. The little fellow was frightfully scalded and died.

The Temperance Cause. — On Friday evening last a large number of the Sons and Daughtors of of Temperance, together with the members of the W. C. T. U. and "Y's" and several persons not connected with the Order, assembled in the Division Room, new Masonic Temple, to witness the installation of officers of Orient Division for the current quarter by G. Several of the brethren addressed the meeting on the necessity of united and untiring efforts in the temperance cause.

New Year's Presentation.—Messrs. Allan Hunter and Ronald J. McKenzie, Esqs., of Dundas, waited upon the Rev. J. G. Cameron, of Souris, and, in the name of the Presbyterian congregation of Dundas, presented the reverend gentleman with a valuable fur coat as an expression of their high esteem, and also as a token of their high appreciation of the valuable services rendered by him to them during the time in which they had no pastor of their own. Now that they are a united and prosperous congregation, they feel that very much thanks are due to his untiring efforts in their behalf, and desire to show their appreciation in this tangible way.

Social and Address.—Mr. Andrew C. Cullen, for the last few years teacher of the Hope River School, having resigned his charge to accept a position in the Summerside High School, remembered his friends by a grand social at his father's residence on New Year's night. There was a large attendance of the youth and beauty of Hope River, judiciously sprinkled with a few of the more elderly members of the community. During the evening dancing was indulged in and there was also songs, recitations, etc., and a very complimentary address was presented to Mr. Cullen, to which he made a suitable reply. Altogether, the social was one of the most enjoyable Hope River has seen for some time.

EASTERN ITEMS.

The harbor of Souris and coast as far as the eye can see are clear of ice yet, though shipping is over for the season.

The Souris skating rink was opened last week and is now in full blast, especially on band nights, which come twice a week. Mr. Albert McDonald has rented the building for the winter. Under his management it is thought that the rink will be better patronized than ever.

Capt. McDonald has ceased to keep the lamp in the light tower lighted, as there is no further necessity for it till navigation opens next spring.

In the Methodist Church, Souris, at the close of the services on Sunday morning, the Rev. C. W. Dutcher read a letter from the Rev. J. C. Ogden, who resides in the neighborhood where lived the victims of the late Adventurer disaster, expressing thank of the Richards and Bailey families along with heartfelt appreciation for the kindness shown by the people of Souris in connection with that deplorable shipwreck. "The sad news of the death of Miss Richard and Heber Bailey," Mr. Ogden adds, "was a most crushing blow to their many friends here. The former intended to go to the Ladies College next fall. The latter was a persevering, steady young man, anxious to succeed in life. The bodies reached their destination in safety, and the way they were prepared by Souris friends for burial was very highly spoken of here. It is not often you see anything in that line better done even in cities. You will please let the friends there know that their kindness can never be forgotten."

A number of friends of Decon Scott, Kingsboro, met at his residence on New Year's evening and formed themselves into a genuine surprise party by presenting the worthy deacon with an address accompanied by a purse containing over thirty dollars in cash. Deacon Scott in appropriate words replied to the address, thanking the donors for their kindness in presenting him with such a generous and unexpected New Year's gift.

A Letter From His Dad.

Dear Son,—

Yours to hand yesterday. It gives me great pleasure in sending you a cheque for $100. Thanks to Prowse Bros. & Co. They have done the people of this country more good and saved them more money than any firm that ever started business in Charlottetown. I am glad you are buying your Furnishings and Carpets from men you can depend on. They won't misrepresent an article to make a sale. You spoke about me recommending anyone who might want a Carpet to trade there. It would be impossible for me to tell anyone who has not already heard of Messrs. Prowse Bros. & Co. Why, your sisters, your cousins and your aunts all trade there. They say their store is like a fair on market days. Crowds of thankful buyers are found pressing their way up to the counters to have a share in the bargains which they daily offer. Good bye.

From your loving Father.

The World's Columbian Exposition.

1. The whole civilized world has been interested in the Great Celebration. The crowned heads of Europe, the governments of all the famous nations of the globe, the lands of the Orient and the islands of the sea have all been co-operating to render the Exhibition worthy of the greatest event of modern times. Its magnitude and marvelous character can only be described by saying that it has comprised all the rarest products of land and sea, the most dazzling wonders of nature and the grandest productions of human genius.

2. The Great Fair which celebrates the discovery of America by Columbus has never been equalled. It was larger and more magnificent than any similar exhibition ever held. Over twenty million dollars was expended in its grand spacious buildings, and the result was the most attractive Exhibition the world ever saw.

3. This gorgeous display is vividly portrayed in our PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE WORLD'S COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION. This captivating volume is a brilliant panorama of the Great Fair which has awakened such a world wide interest.

This wonderful work is a royal octavo volume of over 800 large double-column pages, 10½ inches long by 7½ inches wide. It contains nearly twice the amount of matter in an ordinary quarto book, and is therefore equal to a large volume of 1600 pages.

It contains a complete history of the World-renowned Exposition in Chicago; captivating descriptions of the magnificent Buildings and marvellous Exhibits, such as Works of Art, Textile Fabrics, Machinery, Natural Products, Latest Inventions, Discoveries, etc., with a full description of Chicago, its wonderful Buildings, Parks, etc., by ex-Governor Wm. E. Cameron, of the World's Columbian Exposition History Co., with an introduction by Hon. Thomas W. Palmer, ex-U. S. Senator and ex-Minister to Spain, including a chapter on the Women's Department by Frances E. Willard, President of the World's and National Woman's Christian Temperance Unions.

CONDITIONS—It is printed from clear, new type, on fine calendered paper, and is embellished with a large number of BEAUTIFUL ENGRAVINGS, which charm everyone who sees them.

This grand work surpasses anything that has yet appeared in this line, and will be sold by subscription only. Wait for it; take no other.
