ANGUS McMILLAN, Esq., of Summerside, has gone to England.

NEITHER the St. Lawrence nor Princess of Wales left port to-day. "Too thick."

NO TRUTH in the report that the Str. Carroll will make another trip to this port this season.

SPREAD THE GOOD NEWS.—The EXAMINER is now—in addition to the stores in which it has heretofore been sold—on sale daily at the Ferry Store, corner of Prince and King streets, and at the store of Mr. Coffin, corner of Hillsborough and Grafton streets.

THE landscape paintings of Mr. Harris—on exhibition at the salesroom of William Dodd—have attracted a good deal of attention throughout the day; and we have no doubt that there will be an active competition for them on Thursday next.

BY TELEGRAPH from Toronto, dated Sunday, 10 a. m., the storm drum was ordered up at Chatham, Point du Chene, Charlottetown, Pictou, Sydney, Glace Bay, Cow Bay, Louisburg, Port Hastings, Halifax, Liverpool, Digby, St. John and St. Andrews.

Baptist Sunday School Concert.—Remember the Baptist Sunday School Concert in the New Church building on Monday evening, the 15th inst. Doors open at 7 1/2 o'clock, Concert to commence at 8 o'clock. Tickets for sale at the Apothecaries' Hall, and at the door. Admission 10 cents. Proceeds in aid of the poor of the school. s m

The St. John Telegraph publishes the following Ottawa despatch:—"The Government has decided to cancel the contract for operating the Pembina branch. Mr. Schreiber will go to Winnipeg within ten days to take charge of the road; his place on the Intercolonial will be filled by Mr. Pottinger, who is now in the city."

A SAD CASE.—An unfortunate girl, some sixteen years of age, who has evidently "loved not wisely," was found by the police wandering about the streets seeking shelter from the bitter cold and finding none, at two o'clock on Sunday morning. She was taken to the station and warmed; thence to jail, from which she was discharged this morning. The poor girl said she had travelled all the way from Georgetown on foot.

THE steamer Worcester left for Boston, direct, on Saturday evening. The following is a list of passengers: Wm. Dalton, Miss McInnis, Miss T. J. Campbell, John Storey, Jas. Stewart, Benj. Holland, M. Malone, Miss C. McQueen, Mr. L. McCormack, Miss M. McCormack, John McDonald, Chas. Henry, Chas. Stewart, John McAskill, James Hogan, W. A. Faught, James Collins.

THE sixth and last meeting of the series of public temperance meetings was held in the Division Room, Queen street, on Saturday evening, Mr. John Jury in the Chair. The speakers were Rev. Isaac Murray, D. D., Mr. S. E. Hodgson and Mr. H. Rackhem. Four names were added to the pledge, making a total of twenty-eight names during the series: We trust that the next series will shortly be announced. This evening at 8 o'clock Victoria Division, of the Sons of Temperance, will hold its regular session in the Division Room.

BICK, the celebrated Berlin detective, who performed wondrous feats in ferreting out ingenious criminals, has just died. He commenced his public career as Burgomaster of Freddichow, a small town on the Oder, which office he exchanged for Commissary of Criminal Police, some six and twenty years ago. It was he who broke up the band of malefactors who were the terror of Pomerania in 1850. He joined the band himself, aided them in committing several overt acts of treason, and enabled himself to identify them when netted by a force of gendarmierie.

THE LARGEST FARM IN THE WORLD.—The largest farm in the world is 170 miles square, and is situated in Ellis county, Kansas. Its proprietor is an Englishman named George Grant, who named his estate Victoria, in honor of his sovereign. Vast herds of cattle, and a cavalry brigade of mounted stockmen roam over the face of this great farm, on which the only remedy employed for bruises, inflammation and the like, is Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia. Giles' Pills cures Piles. Sold by W. R. Watson. Send for pamphlet. Dr. Giles, 120 West Broadway, N. Y. Trial size 25 cents.

THE Patriot has the following rather good story in connection with the removal of the prisoners in Queen's County Jail to Kingston Penitentiary:—"One of the prisoners—O'Rielly—was accompanied by a large rat which he carried inside the breast of his jacket. It seems that he has domesticated several of the rodents which frequented his cell, and he seemed to be especially fond of this one which he called "Mucky." He pleaded so hard to be allowed to take his strange pet with him that the jailer could not find it in his heart to refuse him. "Mucky" was the cause of a somewhat amusing incident just before the prisoners were removed. They were being searched by the officers, who wished to make sure that they had no forbidden articles concealed in their clothing. One of Mr. Moylan's deputies—a French Canadian—came up to O'Rielly and proceeded to search him. He thrust his hand into the breast of O'Rielly's coat where "Mucky" was comfortably nestled. Feeling something soft come into contact with his hand he thought had made a find, and proceeded to bring the concealed object to view. Now, it appears that this particular French Canadian has an unquerable antipathy to rats, and when he caught sight of "Mucky's" white teeth and gleaming eyes it proved too much for his nerves. "Mon Dieu le sacre cochon," he exclaimed in a tone of horror, dropping the rat and starting back several feet. The man's face became as white as a sheet, and he did not get over his fright for some time. He took care to keep at a respectful distance from O'Rielly after this incident, evidently thinking that a man who carried rats about his person was a dangerous character."

LORNE HIGHLAND WHISKY. THE ANALYTICAL SANITARY INSTITUTION, 54, Holborn-viaduct, E. C., London, Aug. 18, 1879, report on the "Lorne Highland Whisky" of Messrs. Greenlees Brothers:—

"We have visited the bottling stores of Messrs. Greenlees Brothers, at Gresham-buildings, London, and have selected from the vats, samples of their Lorne Highland Whisky, and have subjected them to careful examination and analysis. The samples were pale, showing their freedom from added coloring matter, very fragrant, mellow and of pleasant flavor; in fact, they possessed all the characteristics of pure and well-matured Scotch Whiskey of the first quality."
