SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Our New Lieutenaat Governor.

ST. PATRICK, Que., July 12.

Senator Carvel has been appointed Lieutenant Governor of Prince Edward Island from September 2nd next.

Echoes of the Great Fight.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 11.

Jake Kilrain, Charley Mitchell, Poney Moore and John Murphy arrived this morning. Kilrain looks badly. His face is badly bruised, both eyes are blackened, his lips are cut and his jaw damaged. Kilrain says: "Sullivan whipped me and did it fairly. I was not in condition. I was not drugged, don't blame anybody, and acknowledge defeat, but still think I can whip Sullivan, and shall try for another go at him. Mitchell will challenge Sullivan for another battle.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 11.

John L. Sullivan was arrested here this morning on a requisition from the Governor of Mississippi. He is now in the county jail. Muldoon, Cleary and Charley Johnston have also been arrested.

LATER.

NASHVILLE, July 11.

John L. Sullivan and Charley Johnston have been released on a writ of habeas corpus. They leave here to-night.

An Important Appointment.

OTTAWA, July 11.

Hon. J. J. C. Abbott, a member of the Dominion Government and a director of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, has been appointed Canadian Commissioner to Australia for the purpose of promoting commercial relations with that Colony, and leaves for England at once in pursuance of his mission. Mr. Abbott while in England will put himself in communication with the British Government and representatives in London of the Australian Colonies previous to his departure for the latter place, where he will arrive this autum to attend the inter-Colonial Conference on the subject of the trade relations between the members of the Australian group and other parts of the Empire. Mr. Abbott's commission authorizes him to deal with the question of trade and tariff as well as with direct steamship communication with Canada and cable connections.

Hon. Mr. Chapleau's Claims.

OTTAWA, July 11.

In urging the claims of Mr. Chapleau to the position of Minister of Railways and Canals, Le Canadien, Mr. Chapleau's organ, contends that Quebec is entitled to a higher official representation than it now possesses. Speaking of the death of Mr. Pope, it says that the portfolio of Minister of Railways was the only department of importance held by representatives of Quebec. It adds: "At divers times we have expressed the opinion that if the Leader of the Government cannot find among those who represent our Province in the cabinet, men who are fit to replace Mr. Pope, it would be better for him to give them their conge. Speaking of the report that he was to be appointed Minister of Raliways, Mr, Chapleau said yesterday that his friends were insisting on his receiving it, and he felt that it properly belonged to the Province of Quebec.

News from Ottawa.

OTTAWA, July 11.

Mr. Lynch, leader of the Protestant Tories in the Quebec Legislature, has been appointed a Supreme Court Judge. This is regarded as an indication that the Tories have practically given up fighting the Mercier Government.

Hon. William Ross, of Halifax, arrived here to-day, and had an interview with the Minister of Customs.

Judging from the present signs, the divorce case list for the next session of the Senate will be heavy. In three cases notice has been given already, and a fourth lot is expected. Three cases come up from western Ontario, and the fourth from British Columbia.

Millers in Council.

TORONTO, July 11.

A convention of Ontario millers, held here yesterday, decided to continue the agitation in favor of increasing the duty on flour to one dollar per barrel. David Plevis, Secretary of the Millers' Association, stated that he had talked with Hon. C. H. Tupper, and that the latter had admitted that the demands of the millers were just, but that the Government could not grant them without losing five or six constituencies in the Maritime Provinces.

In Trouble.

LONDON, July 11.

Major T. M. Field, assistant secretary of the British and American Mortgage Co., has been arraigned and remanded to prison for fraudulently issuing coupons of the company to the amount of $5,000.

Panama Canal Relief Bill.

PARIS, July 11.

The Senate has adopted the Panama Canal Relief Bill, but appended the clause to the measure which necessitates the return of the bill to the Chamber of Deputies for adoption by that body.

From Wimbledon.

LONDON, July 11.

Private Rippon, of the Second Essex Regiment, won the first prize bronze medal in the shooting at Wimbledon.

Another German Bombardment.

ZANZIBAR, July 11.

The Germans have bombarded and occupied Tangal, meeting with slight resistance.

Local and Other Items.

PICNIC.—Don't forget the Sunday School Picnic at Westville to-morrow.

CRICKET.—There will be cricket at the Park to-morrow afternoon.

POLICE COURT.—Several Scott Act cases were on the docket this forenoon. They were dismissed.

A GOOD SAIL.—A very pleasant time is expected at the Picnic to-morrow at McEwen's Wharf, Westville.

THE RIFLE.—The Charlottetown Engineer Co. will hold its third monthly rifle competition on Monday afternoon next at 2.30.

PERFORMING BEARS.—Two Italians, accompanied by a pair of performing bears, have arrived in town and are amusing the young folk. The bears go through a number of very clever tricks.

RETURN FARE TO ST. JOHN.—We are requested to intimate that the return tickets from Charlottetown to St. John, on the occasion of the Carnival, will be $5.50 instead of $3.50 as stated yesterday.

LECTURE.—Prof. Clark Braden will lecture in Summerside on Saturday evening, at eight o'clock, and on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock, and in the evening at half-past eight. Subject, "Christianity vs. Infidelity."

FOR HALIFAX.—The steamer Princess Beatrice, Captain Kelley, sailed for Halifax, via Georgetown and Souris, at half-past three o'clock yesterday afternoon. She had a cargo of lobsters, pork and potatoes.

NO MATTER what may be the ills you bear from indigestion, a dose of Ayer's Cathartic Pills will ease you without question. Just try them once and be assured; they have much worse dyspeptics cured. You'll find them nice and amply worth the price.

THE HATTIE LOUISE.—By telegram to Judge Alley from his son, we learn that the Hattie Louise, Capt. Barnard, from Trinidad, W. I., for this port, arrived at Port Mulgrave, N.S., this morning, all well, and will proceed to Charlottetown first chance.

ON ACCOUNT OF THE WEATHER.—Should the weather to-morrow prove unfavorable, St. Paul's Sunday School Picnic will not be held at Westville, but the scholars will be given a Tea at the Sunday School Room, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. A table will be spread for visitors.

A NEW FEATURE.—The Guardian is out with a list of prizes for persons sending in subscribers. First on the list is "Brudder Gardner's Stump Speeches," which will be awarded the sender of two new names and $2 in cash! THE EXAMINER doesn't need any such "literature" to add names to its subscription list.

FOR BOSTON.—The steamer Worcester, Capt Nickerson, sailed for Boston last evening with a cargo of eggs, lobsters and mackerel, and the following passengers:—Mrs. Coady, J. P. Patterson, Mr. Mahar, Mrs. Mahar, Mrs. Joseph Fisk, Mrs. S. C. McRae, Florence Buchanan, Mrs. F. Ventor, P. Burdge, Joseph Macdonald, Flora McLeod, Mrs. Stewart.

DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS LOADED.—The West Chester, Pa., Republican says: Yesterday at the Kirk stables some one placed a blanket upon a roof to dry. It rested on an innocent looking electric light wire, and hung down over the side of the shed just within the reach of passers by. Presently the blanket became wet from the heavy rain and charged with electricity. When the rain had ceased William Kirk thought the blanket would dry better in the house, and attempted to take it off the roof. When he caught hold of it he was surprised. The blanket was loaded, and William stood rooted to the spot with astonishment and electricity combined for several seconds. Then he got loose and amused himself by sending others to bring in the blanket. It still remains on the roof.

Supreme Court.

FRIDAY, July 12.

Smith vs Ryan—Jury now up.

Daniel Edmunds, applt., vs Daniel W. Henderson, respt.—appeal from Magistrate. Convicted of violation of Canada Temperance Act. Jury empanelled. Morson for appellant; Attorney-General for respondent; now before the court.

Weather Bulletin.

TORONTO, July 12.—10 a. m.

Fair weather, preceded by local showers, stationary or a little higher temperature.

Midsummer goods in colored Cashmeres and Merinos, ladies' black and white Straw Hats, Ribbons and Plushes. Just opened at James Paton & Co's., Brown's Block.

The Favorite

Medicine for Throat and Lung Difficulties has long been, and still is, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It cures Croup, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, and Asthma; soothes irritation of the Larynx and Fauces; strengthens the Vocal Organs; allays soreness of the Lungs; prevents Consumption, and, even in advanced stages of that disease, relieves Coughing and induces Sleep. There is no other preparation for diseases of the throat and lungs to be compared with this remedy.

"My wife had a distressing cough, with pains in the side and breast. We tried various medicines, but none did her any good until I got a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has cured her. A neighbor, Mrs. Glenn, had the measles, and the cough was relieved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have no hesitation in recommending this to every one afflicted."—Robert Horton Foreman Headlight, Morrillton, Ark.

"I have been afflicted with asthma for forty years. Last spring I was taken with a violent cough, which threatened to terminate my days. Every one pronounced me in consumption. I determined to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effects were magical. I was immediately relieved and continued to improve until entirely recovered."—Joel Bullard, Guilford, Conn.

"Six months ago I had a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, brought on by an incessant cough which deprived me of sleep and rest. I tried various remedies, but obtained no relief until I began to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. A few bottles of this medicine cured me." Mrs. E. Coburn, 19 Second st., Lowell, Mass.

"For children afflicted with colds, coughs, sore throat, or croup, I do not know of any remedy which will give more speedy relief than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I have found it, also, invaluable in cases of Whooping Cough."—Ann Lovejoy, 1257 Washington street, Boston, Mass.

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water and milk. Sold only in packets, by Grocers, labelled thus: JAMES EPPS & CO., Homœopathic Chemists,
