

S'side Lawyer And Malpeque Farmer Nominated By 3rd Prince Liberals

—Mr. J. A. Gallant, lawyer of Summerside and Mr. Frank L. McNutt, Malpeque, farmer, were nominated as candidates for assemblyman and councillor respectively at the Liberal nominating convention of the Third District of Prince held last evening at the Legion Hall in Summerside.

Mr. Edson Rayner, president of the Prince Liberal Association, was chairman of the meeting at which Premier A. W. Matheson was in attendance.

Mr. McNutt is the present councillor for the Third District of Prince and he was the only nominee for this seat. In addition to Mr. Gallant, Mr. Carroll Delaney of Summerside was also up for nomination for assemblyman with Mr. Gallant winning out by a vote of 31 to 18.

Mr. Delaney then moved that the nomination of Mr. Gallant be unanimous which was seconded and approved. Mr. Gallant told the convention that he had not completely decided until 8.45 p.m. last evening to have his name appear as a candidate for nomination and that his problems and reasons for this were more or less special.

He said that during the last election he ran on a Conservative ticket but since that time his leanings have been Liberal. Mr. Gallant stated that many would be annoyed, which was something he would have to take in stride, and others he said, unfortunately would be hurt.

He said that he would do his utmost to do a good job and would always be willing to take advice as he is young in politics and said he had a lot to learn.

Premier Matheson, in his address, said he was much impressed by Mr. Gallant's speech and stated that he did a splendid job of a very difficult task. The Premier said "I look forward with a great deal of pleasure to having Mr. Gallant with us in the house assembly."

Mr. Matheson spoke briefly on a program to benefit the several thousand farmers on Prince Edward Island who are presently not getting the necessary support. He said "It is not a program of giving away money, but something that will be of assistance that you can take advantage of and work out your own salvation."

Mr. McNutt also addressed the gathering thanking them for the nomination given him once again and briefly reviewing some of the projects carried through by the Liberal Party during the past few years.

Mr. William Currie acted as secretary of the meeting in the unavoidable absence of Mr. Morley Bell, who is out of the Province.

Escaped S'side Jail Prisoner Gives Himself Up

—Wilbur Hippenstall, 29, of Summerside one of the two prisoners who escaped from the Prince County Jail last Monday gave himself up to the Summerside detachment of the R. C. M. P. early yesterday afternoon.

Hippenstall apparently had been hiding out in barns and other buildings since Monday but hunger forced him to seek food yesterday noon at a home in Bedeque area. After eating a meal he asked to use the phone and immediately called the Summerside detachment of the R.C.M.P. and asked that they come after him.

Mr. Hippenstall is awaiting trial on a car theft charge. Michael Turnbull, who also escaped on Monday, was recaptured at Borden the same evening. He is serving a term for theft.—S.

Plans For P.E.I. Day At Amherst

Wednesday, November 3rd is the day when Prince Edward Islanders will "come one, come all" to the Maritime Winter Fair in Amherst to celebrate their own special day of the week-long program.

Premier A. W. Matheson and his Ministers Agriculture, the Hon. C. C. Baker, will be in attendance at P.E.I. day, along with other officials of the government.

A continuation of the judging of Ayshire and Jersey cattle will start the fourth day of the Fair at nine o'clock, which is also the time scheduled for the judging of Sheep to begin.

The morning will mostly be given over to the heavy judging program in order to complete the placing of the largest entry of cattle in the Fair's history.

The afternoon, too, will be devoted to the same groups, with Percheron horses on the line added to fill out the program.

At seven o'clock, class 43, for hunters of middle and heavyweight carrying more than 165 pounds, will be shown in the ring, followed by 7.25 by class 183, the Maritime Pacing Stake.

A parade of Ayshire Cattle will start at 7.45 in the ring, one of the finest line-ups of Dairy cattle to be seen in Canada.

At 8.00 o'clock Road Hacks will be shown, followed at 8.20 by four-in-hand Percherons. Fine Harness horses will go through their paces at 8.45, followed by the darling "knock-down-and-out" event for jumpers.

An innovation at the "Maritime" this year is the sheep shearing contest at 9.30, which already is stimulating excitement in the event and its results.

Square dancing at 10 o'clock will see the Amherst Sophisticates in competition with the Sherbrooke, P.E.I. and Circle Eight set of Southport, P.E.I.

The vaudeville team of "Bouncing Bodes" will round out the day's program at 10.45.

Citing what he called the turnip marketing chaos as controlled by the dealers, he stated that the farmers could not control the price of their own produce.

The well-attended and well-conducted meeting was presided over by Mr. John James MacKinnon. A vote of thank moved by Mr. D. Mullins, was extended Mr. MacDonald and the other speakers.

—Mrs. John C. Mathews returned to her home in Alberton South Tuesday after visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Bishop, Dorchester, N.B.

—Four ladies from the adjoining district of Brooklyn have moved to Alberton for the winter months. Mrs. Robert Wallace and Miss Nellie Wells are at the home of Mrs. C. H. Wells, while Mrs. L. B. Leard and Miss Annie Leard have taken up residence at the corner of Church and Albion Streets.

Potato Marketing

The Province could command a position in the marketing field, in view of the competitive factors outside the province, it could also contend with the dealers within the province and the dealers atting the price on one another and depressing the market price.

Mr. Harvey Douglas, M.L.A., also speaking as a grower, gave full support to the potato board and the selling agency as he felt that this organization was the way the farmers could do anything or get anywhere.

He pointed out that the competition from Maine and other points would still be there whether or not there was a board and agency, and that the stronger way to compete was to have an organization. He felt that the dealers were unable to do anything as they cut the prices on themselves and depress the market price, whereas the board would maintain a uniform price.

Citing what he called the turnip marketing chaos as controlled by the dealers, he stated that the farmers could not control the price of their own produce.

The well-attended and well-conducted meeting was presided over by Mr. John James MacKinnon. A vote of thank moved by Mr. D. Mullins, was extended Mr. MacDonald and the other speakers.

Preparations For

ance this year in view of the fact that the World War II stores will be held in Canada next summer. Some of the funds raised will be earmarked for Scouts attending the great gathering from this Province.

Troop and Pack meetings this week have taken the form of rallies in preparation for "A" Day. Baskets have been decorated and Scouts and Cubs briefed as to routes and procedure.

Harvest apples will be delivered to various headquarters today in anticipation for an early start on Saturday. It only awaits the cooperation of the weatherman and the ready response of a generous public to put this annual event "over the top."

S'side Dealer Promises To Announce Alternative Potato Marketing Plan

—An alternative program to one proposed by the Potato Marketing Board will be placed before the public within a few days, according to an announcement made at a meeting in Wellington last evening by Mr. Fred Bingham of the firm of Joseph Read & Company in Summerside.

Mr. Bingham made the announcement in reply to requests from Messrs. Leo MacIsaac and Charles Yeo who called on those opposed to the policies proposed by the Potato Marketing Board to announce through the press, a constructive program for the future that will be an alternative to what is proposed by the board.

Mr. Bingham said he would be done, probably by Saturday. The meeting last evening was one of several being held throughout the Province to enable spokesmen for the Potato Marketing Board to explain the proposed marketing pool. About 100 persons were present to hear the board's policies explained by Mr. Leo MacIsaac of Island Co-Op Services, the principal speaker at this four-hour meeting which continued until after 12.30 a.m.

Mr. C. F. Gallant of Wellington presided at this orderly meeting and gave all speakers a full opportunity to express their views.

ANSWERED QUESTIONS
Mr. Irving Hogg, of Wilnot Valley, a producer representative on the board, was present on the platform and on a few occasions replied to questions directed to him from the audience.

Others who took part in the various discussions included Messrs. Peter Gallant, Victor Inman, Lloyd Waugh, Charles Yeo, Everett Hudson, Fred Bingham James MacKenna, Reuben Lantz and Hubert Arnow.

Mr. Peter Gallant wanted to know who had composed the wording of the ballot to be used in the plebiscite. Mr. MacIsaac replied that the Government had assumed responsibility for this matter and Mr. Gallant then suggested that the ballot implied some extent that they implied the Board could operate without a selling agency by placing the second question on the ballot.

OPPOSITION SPOKESMAN
Mr. Fred Bingham, principal spokesman for those at last night's meeting who are opposed to the selling agency, questioned Mr. MacIsaac on his present employment, and was told that he took off his coat and shirt and asked his father if he was looking for fight. Father, mother and accused moved out into the porch. Wallace got into the fight too, they fought and fell and tumbled from the house down behind the barn 35 yards, through area containing hay, pulled in the yard, spring tooth harrow and other items. Accused fell over harrows but kept on going. Deceased lost his pants and one shoe, had only shorts and undershirt on. They sufficed for about an hour, then returned to porch door.

Accused heard mother holler to go to bed, he would not come into the house like that. "I asked McKenna to come with me and put his pants on. He came with me from porch door and put his arm around me while I tried to get him dressed. He was out. Noonan came over to help me but instead he took my coat and neck and threw me aside. "He then walked away while accused continued and succeeded in getting pants on deceased who then chased accused around the yard while he backed away and coaxed deceased not to fight. He paid no heed but repeated he was Old Jack McKenna and a good man. "He was swinging and trying to hit me and I was scared", the accused said. Knew he was a fighter and backed away from him for about twenty minutes.

"Finally he backed me up against the house and had me cornered and I struck him with my fist on the chin; he fell and I walked away," the accused said, and went to look for his watch and ring, which were missing.

Emmett Noonan and Wallace MacKenna were fighting. Emmett had Wallace by the throat on the ground. Accused told them there was no need to fight and they should go home. Glancing back, accused saw deceased poised to strike him from behind and when he was ready to swing, accused ducked and ran through a lane between the house and a shed, ducking and backing away as deceased followed. Deceased kept repeating he was a good man and accused repeatedly said he did not want to fight. Deceased kept after accused for half an hour or more, this time, the accused said. "Down near the barrack I was backed up against it, he was coming in and swinging, I struck one blow and he fell again," accused said. "I knew he was drinking but he was getting around."

Accused returned to house where mother and girls were, they having entered by the front door, and gone up stairs. Jack was still on the ground. Noonan and Wallace MacKenna came into the house still wanting to fight. Mother told them the R.C.M.P. had been called. Accused went into house and asked Noonan to come out and help put deceased in truck as he had no coat on and it was cold. "We put him in the truck. Emmett wanted to fight and chased me around but when he got close accused tripped him and got clear."

tall and weighed about 190 lbs. witness had seen him before. There was no cause for enmity or ill-will between accused and deceased. After refusing twice to take a drink, accused finally had one drink.

Emmett Noonan brought in four points of beer from the truck. Mother and hired girl came in and went to pantry to have a lunch. Mother refused a drink when offered it.

Wallace drank and stood near stove. Accused noticed him start to fall and asked him if he wanted a drink. In a few seconds he fell behind the stove and went asleep. Deceased persisted in attempts to sell accused a heater but desisted when accused said he would have to see the animal.

Mother and girl came into kitchen and father also arrived. Deceased introduced himself to father as fighting Jack MacKenna, and offered him a drink, which was refused. Father returned to his work in the field. Emmett Noonan and Jack MacKenna kept on drinking. Accused left the house for a period. The three others were standing in the kitchen and Wallace complained of a black eye. They growled and grumbled among themselves, the accused said.

Dad returned to house, and stood with accused and his mother inside the screen door. MacKenna

Y P U Meeting

—During the business period of the Trinity Y.P.U., weekly meeting held in Epworth Hall on Tuesday evening, chaired by the President Evelyn Underhay, plans were finalized for Young Peoples night in Trinity Church, October 31st.

At that time the group will form the choir, several members will assist Rev. C. D. Matheson with the service of worship, others will act as ushers and there will be special music under the direction of Miss Geldart. The highlight will be the installation of the new Y. P. U. executive and the dedication of members conducted by the Minister. Plans were also completed for the group Halloween social. New members were welcomed.

The worship, as was the evening program, was by the Commission on Citizenship community Service, under the convener Miss Olive Jelly and was conducted by Evelyn Underhay, assisted by Mary MacLure. A period of recreation was led by Dorothy Townsend while a hymn sing followed by lunch were all part of the evening fellowship.

The minister was present to conduct another enlightening Bible Study in the series.—S.

wanted to try to put him asleep, intoxicated persons often get knocked out." Emmett and Wallace were fighting alone, witness stated. Emmett blamed Wallace for stealing his watch.

"Did it occur to you at any time to send someone to phone the Mounted Police to come and make an arrest?"

Accused replied: "Dad and mother were unable to drive a car, I wouldn't leave them alone." Questioned by Mr. Bell, accused said MacKenna had his pants, his undershirt and one shoe on when he was placed in truck. "There was no clothing left at our place."

In summing up Mr. Bell said: "We have given evidence on behalf of the accused. To show the innocence of this man. From the first he co-operated and when the inquest was on, he voluntarily appeared there and gave evidence. Today he has appeared and given evidence.
