IN MEMORIAM

CAMPBELL—In loving memory of my Dad, Otto W. Campbell, who passed away Oct. 3rd, 1952. Ever remembered by his daughter, Noreen.

BROWN—In loving memory of Franklin Brown, New London, who departed this life October 4th 1950. Remembrance is a golden chain Death tries to break, but all in vain To have to love and then to part Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart. Fondly remembered by Wife and family.

CARD OF THANKS

The Wife and Family of the late Henry Martell, Georgetown, wish to express their sincere thanks to all who sent mass cards, cards of sympathy and those who helped in any way during their sad bereavement. Special thanks to Rev. Owen Kiggins and Dr. A. Kennedy.

While a patient in the P.C. Hospital, I wish to express my sincere thanks to Drs. Downing and Beer, nursing staff, and clergy also those who visited and remembered me with cards, treats and flowers. I sincerely thank you, Mrs. Robert Carr, New London.

Mr. Heber MacLean, Cornwall, wishes to thank his friends and neighbours and all those who send cards and messages of sympathy.

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN C. MILLIGAN

Following a four week illness of pneumonia borne with Christian cheerfulness, there passed to Eternal rest at Prince County Hospital Sunday evening, September 9th, 1956, John C. Milligan of MacNeill's Mills, in his 92nd year.

In spite of all that tender care and medical attention could do the heart weakened and two days previous to Mr. Milligan's passing he entered the Hospital where the end came suddenly on the above date.

Mr. Milligan was born at Poplar Grove, March 15th, 1865, son of the late David Milligan and Marion Smith, and sixty four years ago married Jane MacNeill of MacNeill's Mills, where he lived till his death, being the fourth to settle in the district. Mr. Milligan saw many changes through the years and took a great interest in the welfare of his community.

He was in very good health and was active and around until his illness, and took great pleasure in relating his experiences through the years to his many friends, especially to the young people of whom he was very fond.

The funeral was held from his late residence on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 12, to Freehold Presbyterian Church, Lot 11. Service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. M. L. MacNaughton, who spoke words of comfort to the bereaved family. Burial was in the church cemetery. The hymns sung were "The Lord's my Shepherd," "Nearer My God to Thee," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

Besides his sorrowing widow he leaves to mourn his passing, two daughters and six sons, Olive (Mrs. Brey Gilbert) Suncook, N.H., Miss Ramayne, at home; William, mechanic Falls, Me.; David, Rumford, Me.; Roy, Northwood, N.H.; Edgar at home; Claude, Halifax; N.S.; and Clarence, St. John, N.B.; Two daughters predeceased him in the past four years.

Also three sisters and one brother, Priscilla (Mrs. Charles Strongman) Post Hill; Belle (Mrs. Robert MacDonald) MacNeill's Mills; Ada (Mrs. Willard Hodge, Truro, N.S.); and Daniel, Salt Lake City, U.S.A. He also leaves twenty-eight grandchildren and thirty-nine great grandchildren.

The pallbearers were all nephews of the deceased, Stanford, George, Arthur, Colin and Raymond Milligan and Elmer MacDonald.

The floral tributes were beautiful, with the many messages of sympathy, bore silent tribute and respect in which the deceased was held.
